Far East Institute Opens February 4

With the opening of the spring semester on February 4th, the newly founded Institute of Far Eastern Studies will offer academic courses on Asian problems. The Institute is dedicated to the imparting of the most accurate information on the Far East, past and present.

During the months that have elapsed since the formal inauguration of the Institute, great progress has been made in formulating plans for the adoption of the best methods for providing better understanding between the American people and the people of the Far East. The academic courses of the Institute which will be given in University College at Newark, in the late afternoon and evening, will provide an opportunity for interested students to study the cultural, religious and social aspects of the peoples of the Far East. The courses are open to regularly matriculated students or to special students who wish to take these subjects for cultural purposes. Such courses as "American Foreign Policy in the Far East" will prove interesting, enlightening and timely.

The Regent of the Institute, Father Cain, has announced that other scholarly endeavors have been undertaken by members of the new group. One faculty member has been sent to southeast Asia to study the social and cultural development of the Overseas Chinese in that area. One director of the Institute has a book ready for publication; and a monograph entitled "How to Make Democracy Work in the Far East" is being prepared by outstanding authors in America, China, Japan, Korea and Viet Nam.

S.A.M. Has Annual Alumni Dinner

December 13, 1951 was the occasion of the Annual Alumni Award Dinner sponsored by the Society for the Advancement of Management of Seton Hall University, South Orange, New Jersey. It was held at Howard Johnson's East Orange, New Jersey.

Mr. John Medwin, President of the Student Chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management at Seton Hall University introduced the Right Reverend Monsignor John L. McNulty, President of Seton Hall University, to the gathering. Monsignor McNulty addressed the group and spoke about the progress that is being made on the construction of the proposed new buildings which are to be erected on the South Orange campus as soon as possible. The topic "the progress of the Alcoholic Anonymous" was also mentioned. The Reverend Monsignor closed his comment by stating that he was proud of being President of Seton Hall University and head of many clean cut and honest boys who are always trying to better themselves.

The guest speaker, Mr. Frederick J. Bishop, President of the Northern New Jersey Chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management, was introduced to the group. Mr. Bishop commended the Society for the Advancement of Management at Seton Hall University for its outstanding work and urged the men to continue on the same path which he said would lead to greater and better things.

Mr. Medwin announced to the group that among the guests present were: Mr. Austin S. Murphy, Dean of the School of Business of Seton Hall University and Mr. William R. Dineen, Dean of Freshmen of Seton Hall University.

Dr. Rooney Speaks In WSOU Series

In the first of a series of broadcasts over the Seton Hall F. M. radio station, the St. Thomas More Pre-Legal Society was addressed on Wednesday evening, January 9 by Dr. Miriam T. Rooney, Dean of Studies of the University School of Law.

Speaking to the panel of law students on the topic, "The Study of Law Today," Dr. Rooney stressed the importance of the student going to a recognized university of law where the case method of learning is practiced. She also pointed out the necessity of the student obtaining a general education in the study of law because of the increase in judicial problems today.

A question and answer period followed Dr. Rooney's 15 minute talk. When asked how true the statement was that the Law field was very much overcrowded, Dr. Rooney answered "... the Law field is only crowded at the bottom. There is a great demand for good lawyers in the upper strata."

Dan Dalton, President of the Society, introduced Dr. Rooney as a former Legal Advisor in the State Department. Mr. Dineen, Dean of Freshmen, concluded the half hour program by thanking Dr. Rooney on behalf of all the members of the Legal organization.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Rev. Thomas W. Cunningham, Ph.D., Coordinating Dean of Seton Hall University, releases in this issue the complete examination schedule for all Campus classes in any of the University's component units. A simple system of assignments has been followed. Classes held throughout the semester in the morning periods have their examinations scheduled for Monday and Tuesday. The remaining classes, meeting from the fifth period onward, are assigned Wednesday and Thursday or in some instances Friday morning. Father Cunningham warns each student of the absolute necessity of following this schedule to the letter.

Junior Class News

The Junior Class officers would like to express their appreciation to all those who supported the "MISTLETOE DANCE" and helped to make it such a tremendous success.

Total receipts netted over $900.00, leaving a net profit of more than $500.00 after all expenses.

Special thanks go to Father Fleming, Director of Student Affairs, and Mr. Albert C. Witterholt.

Season's First Concert Planned

The Seton Hall University Glee Club presented this season's first concert last Friday at St. Joseph's College for Women, Chestnut Hill, Pa. Under the able direction of Mr. Joseph Murphy, the Ambassadors presented a program of eight selections with featured solos by Joe Purcell, Ray Papay and Everett Felder. Due credit goes to Don Thiess who accompanied at the Steinway.

Both Mr. Murphy and Pete Weber, Glee Club President, were well satisfied with the appearance of the Ambassadors.

Selections from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" were presented by the Chestnut Hill Girls' Orchestra. The program was then concluded with renditions by the Girls' Glee Club. Dancing and refreshments followed in the auditorium and a good time was had by all.

The long awaited Glee Club recording of "Alma Mater" and "March Setonia" is now on sale for $1.25 at the College Bookstore. Every student should have a copy of this record as a lasting remembrance of his Alma Mater.

The School of Business Administration in cooperation with The New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants and The Research Institute of America, Inc. sponsored a panel discussion given by Institute Editorial Staff Tax Analysts on Preventive Tax Planning for 1952.

At the next convocation, February 6, Justice Charles E. Murphy will address the faculty and student body on the topic "The Future Belongs to the Bold."

Charles E. Murphy was born in Trenton, New Jersey on June 6, 1895. He was graduated from Rider College, New Jersey, and subsequently attended Columbia University and Fordham University School of Law, from which he obtained his Bachelor of Law Degree in 1925.

He entered the United States Army as a private in 1917 and while in service overseas during the First World War was promoted to First Lieutenant and Captain of Infantry in October 1918 and was decorated for gallantry.

Judge Murphy has resided in Brooklyn for over 25 years with his wife, Elizabeth S. Murphy and three children: Charles E. Murphy, Jr., now a lieutenant in the United States Marines; Thomas E. Murphy, former Ensign in the United States Navy, both of whom were overseas during the last war, and Elizabeth, who is now Mrs. George E. Ortel.

Judge Murphy has been active in the communal life of Brooklyn and during World War II he was Chairman of Civilian Defense in the populous Crown Heights Flatbush area of that borough. Following the war, he was Chairman of the Public Relations Committee of the Brooklyn War Memorial. He is a past Post Commander of the American Legion and a member of the New York State Bar Association, Brooklyn Bar Association and New York County Lawyers Association, the Knights of Columbus Cathedral Club, Montauk Club and Quaker Hill Country Club. He is a former President of the Advertising Club of New York.

Prior to January 1, 1947 Judge Murphy was the head of the law firm of Murphy, Block Sullivan & Sawyer, with offices at 280 Broadway, New York City. On January 1, 1947 he was appointed Corporation Counsel of the City of New York by Mayor William O'Dwayer. This is the largest law office of the world, is staffed by more than 550 lawyers and handles law suits involving millions of dollars annually. Judge Murphy handled this important position of Corporation Counsel until January 1, 1948, when he became a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York in the Second Judicial District, having been elected to that office in November 1947 as a candidate of both the Democratic and Republican Parties.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS TO ADDRESS FORUM

On Sunday, January 27, the Honorable William F. Knowland will lecture on "American Foreign Policy in the Far East" in the Seton Hall gymnasium auditorium at South Orange. This talk by the distinguished Senator from California will be the first of three lectures under the sponsorship of the Institute of Far Eastern Studies. Senator Knowland has recently returned from an extensive visit to the Far East and is considered to be one of the best informed congressmen on Asian questions.

Because many Americans remain confused on the issues behind the Korean war, the Institute has invited the Korean Ambassador to the United States, Dr. You Chan Yang, to lecture on February 4th. The title of Dr. Yang's talk will be "Korea and the United States."

On the same evening the former Chinese Ambassador to the United States, Dr. Hu Shih, will talk "On China." Dr. Hu is an outstanding Chinese scholar, the "Father of the Chinese Renaissance" and has received more than thirty honorary degrees from European and American universities.

Tickets for the lecture series are $1.50 and may be purchased at the gymnasium or at the Newark office in 31 Clinton Street. Through the Department of Student Affairs, student tickets for $.50 will be available at the various locations on the Campus and in the University building.

The Advocate

The Setonian congratulates "The Advocate," our new Archdiocesan Catholic weekly newspaper. "The Advocate" serves the four counties of the Archdiocese of Newark with a Catholic population of 1,078,000, 205 parishes, 567 priests, 2,905 sisters, 217 schools, colleges and universities, with 146,703 children under Catholic instruction.

To quote from the Advocate's initial issue:

"It has been said that a Catholic whose reading is restricted exclusively to the secular press becomes, almost without realizing it, pagan in his judgments of men and events. It has been said, too, that the Catholic home which has not a Catholic paper coming into it regularly is on its way to a lessened, if not a lost faith."

We pray God's blessings upon the endeavors of the "Advocate" and urge every Catholic, especially Setonians, to read every issue. Copies are sold after the Sunday Masses in the parish churches or may be received by mail. Subscription—four dollars per year—may be sent to:

THE HASH CAN

By JOEL A. BATCHKER

Well, here we are back at old Setonia after a wild and wooly vacation. Though mine was replete with merry-making and inactivity, returning to school seems like a necessary evil.

When we think that this semester is rapidly drawing to a close, the time hallowed cliché, "Time Flies" is rather appropriate. It seems that only a few days ago we were fighting to secure good schedules for the fall term. Today, fellows are walking around grumbling about conflicts for the coming semester. . . . Well, that's the way the ball bounces.

Over the vacation, the Hall won a great, well deserved victory over Louisville. However, I was fortunate enough to witness the Seton Hall-Western Kentucky game, and also the scintillating NYU-West Virginia game which preceded ours at the Garden. The latter will always be remembered by those of us who were fortunate enough to be in attendance as a classic example of offensive BB at its best.

Our game was anti-climactic after that first one, and after we toyed with the boys from Kalmthout, we turned in a 67-65 win.

You fellows interested in entering pictures for the QUEEN OF THE CAMPUS DANCE, which will be held on or about May 24, are advised to submit their pix as soon as possible. We want to get a large representation of pictures from all the classes, and so far, the Seniors seem to be in the lead.

Lets go, men . . . maybe your girl, sister, etc. will be the lucky one to win the contest and all the wonderful prizes and opportunities it includes.

With the cross-country season over, the Seton Hall runners have switched their activity to the board track where they are preparing for the indoor meets which will start next month. Johnny Kamber, a student here at Setonia, boxes professionally, and his latest pugilistic feat was decisioning Johnny Marino at St. Nicholas Arena recently. Many boxing experts predict a bright future for Johnny.

Well, will you look at what we have here. This is the Queen of the Week in the Setonian's annual Queen of the Campus Contest. Helen Weigelt, a student nurse at the Englewood Hospital, hails from Emerson, N. J. Her picture was entered by Edmund Regan, a senior.

Tubes & Talk

With BOB BRADY

We'll start off our new column in a sort of formal way by telling you just what you will find here. A column of this sort has been in demand hereabouts for some time so you're truly, who must confess that this is his first attempt at writing, will try to bring you some views and facts about radio and TV. We'll try to keep you informed of the gossip flying around in the radio and TV world. As you know Seton Hall is prominent among universities in this communication medium. To become factual you have all heard of aid no doubt enjoyed the programs on our own radio station known as W.S.O.U. And of course the TV presentations on WATV, known as theatre 13. Many of you have probably wondered who this or that voice is or who this or that actor was on your screen. It will be one of our aims to tell you about these students. Also many students have done some excellent work in promoting the station through publicity and just plain hard work. We feel that they have been overlooked so it is about time someone started mentioning their activities. At least it might be a little satisfaction for those concerned. So in the ensuing months we'll fire plenty of information your way. So much for formalities.

Student organizations which are considering programs on W.S.O.U. must make arrangements through Father Fleming in the student affairs office.

W.S.O.U. received quite a write up in the N.Y.E. School of Commerce student newspaper. I got a kick out of the headline which read like this "Seton Hall far advanced in F.M. radio. N.Y.U. has glorified public address system." And then the story continues by comparing enrollments. Score: Seton Hall 7,000-N.Y.U. 45,000. Congratulations for all responsible for W.S.O.U.

After purchasing a $2,000 tape machine W.S.O.U. has become a member of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters tape network. These programs consist of popular stories, musical presentations with commentary, and addresses and interviews with prominent leaders. If you are interested you can get a program schedule at the studios in the gym. Next time we will devote the entire column to the activities of your radio station so that you may become as familiar as possible with your school's station.

On January 14 Seton Hall's theatre 13 will again be featured on WATV channel 13. The entirely student operated program, which is outstanding of its kind in the country, will again be under the direction of Mr. Ray Lukshis of the Communication Arts faculty. Since this series of television programs started there has been much improvement. Your's truly had a hand in the first production which was jammed with all kinds of difficulties from rats in the floor to too much scenery. However the last production was good enough to beat out any other presentation on the air at the time. Don't miss the January 14 presentation.

W.N.E.W. New York's live wire independent has come up with another zany disc jockey show called Music and Moondog. For details listen in on Sunday nights.

Because I am writing this with a publication deadline these are all the future notes we have.

Trim St. Peter's FIRST LOSS

By JIM BUTLER

In a game played before the biggest crowd ever to witness a basketball game in Hudson County, Seton Hall downed a stubborn St. Peter's five, 84-61, at the Jersey City Armory on Monday night.

3,837 fans looked on as Honey Russell's well-oiled machine ran all over the Peacocks after a slow start. Led by Don O'Rourke and Bill Heitman, the home forces took an early lead, and were ahead, 20-12, as the first period ended. They quickly relinquished this advantage, however, for the second canto was all Roy Belliveau, the Setonia star netting 11 points. At the half, the Bucs led, 38-27.

St. Peter's lack of a good big man was the main cause of their complete collapse in, the third quarter, when Walt Dukes tallied 9 markers for the Pirates' cause, and sparked the Blue and White to a 68-39 lead as the period ended. Were it not for the inspirational play of Don Finn in this quarter, the Pirates would have undoubtedly gone over the century mark at the conclusion of the game.

In the final period, the Peacocks outscored the visitors, who by this time had inserted their reserve strength, Heitman and Charlie Thogode were instrumental in this final, but futile surge of the losers.

Big Walt Dukes put on a one-man show for the benefit of the 2,400 persons who witnessed Monday night's game in the Gym, when he broke three records and tied another in Seton Hall's well-deserved 69-52 victory over Eastern Kentucky.

The 6'11" ace practically downed the stubborn visitors by himself, for two of the starting five, Johnny Ligos and Roy Belliveau, failed to score a basket from the floor. It was the second consecutive game in which Belliveau was not up to par.

The Setonia star broke the Gymnasium record with his 36 points. Richie Regan's 30 points in the Boston College fiasco two weeks ago was the previous high for the arena for a Pirate player, while Ken Reeves of Louisville and Ed Loui of Hawaii jointly held the mark for a visiting player, 32. Another scoring record broken by Dukes was Ed Sadowski's and Regan's mark for the most points scored by a player representing Seton Hall, 30.

By taking the ball from the backboards a total of 29 times, Big Walt bettered by 1 the Gym rebounding record which he himself had set earlier in the season. He also tied the Gymnasium mark for free throws, the second time he has done so. Bob Davies is the other co-holder of this record.

Dukes excelled on defense against the Maroons, and in one spree during the first half, he blocked four successive shots attempted by Eastern center Jim Bingham. Bingham, at 6'5", was the visitors' biggest man, and it was his inability to cope with Dukes that kept the Pirates in the game in the first half.

Big Walt called 20 of the team's 37 points in the opening half, and only Jimmy Ahearn, who performed in an outstanding fashion, played steady ball among the other players, and this made the burden even heavier on Dukes' slender shoulders. Bill Bales and Jim Bechtold stood out for the visitors in the first half, the former hitting with three straight set shots in one spurt.

Unlike the see-saw first half, the second half saw the game turn into a one-sided affair, with the crowd's interest then being centered on Duke's performance. When the big center left the game in favor of Cappy Trowbridge late in the final period, the stands gave him a standing two-minute ovation.
