

Seton Hall University

eRepository @ Seton Hall

---

1966

The Setonian

---

4-1-1966

Bayley News, April 1, 1966 (April Fools Edition)

Seton Hall University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarship.shu.edu/setonian1966>

---

Recommended Citation

Seton Hall University, "Bayley News, April 1, 1966 (April Fools Edition)" (1966). 1966. 1.
<https://scholarship.shu.edu/setonian1966/1>

In the following four pages we poke fun at many aspects of Seton Hall. We mean no harm nor personal injury. All of those individuals and groups mentioned are held in the greatest respect for their persons, organizations, names, and positions. "On April, fools we only jest of those of whom we think the best."

FINAL

Issue of year

BAYLEY NEWS

SOUTH ORANGE'S PICTURE NEWSPAPER

Vol. 1 - No. 1

SOUTH ORANGE N.J. FRIDAY APRIL 1, 1966

Weather: Cool, cloudy administration

NEW CONSTRUCTION WRECKS OLD DORM

Presidential Decree: 'To South Orange Avenue'

Building Scandal Indicated

Home is where...

This is the scene shortly after the catastrophic collapse of Boland Hall into a pile of rubble. 350 students, following a Presidential directive, fled down in the middle of South Orange Ave.

SS Disbanded—ROTC Mobilized

Martial Law Set To Stop Rioting

LAST THE SETON HALL SS HAS BEEN ARRESTED EN MASSE BY THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION AS A DANGEROUS ALIEN ORGANIZATION. THE ROTC HAS BEEN MOBILIZED TO PATROL CAMPUS. COL. JAMES K. SCHMIDT HAS DECLARED A STATE OF MARSHAL LAW TO OVERCOME THE WANTON DISREGARD FOR LAW, ORDER AND THE AMERICAN WAY BY OBVIOUS RED, DOWD-LEARNING STUDENT JAY WALKERS.

The Seton Hall campus is in a state of utter chaos. Col. James Schmidt, Campus Commander-in-Chief, has called out the national guard, tanks, armored personnel carriers, and self-propelled howitzers are currently patrolling the riot torn campus grounds.

President Johnson has eagerly offered the besieged Commander all possible assistance. He has sent his wife and two daughters as immediate aid. Governor Richard Hughes has declared the SHU a "shocking, revolting, horrible, frightening and not very nice at all."

The entire affair began when the FBI arrested the Seton Security Force as a "dangerous enemy" alien organization. Commander Speidel voiced vehement objection to this un-American treatment saying that "we always had the best interests of Der Euerbe at heart."

The Seton Hall students, freed from the beautiful bonds of discipline maintained by the SS, immediately went wild. They broke out into a rampant spree of illicit, illegal, and unlawful acts which were dangerous and threatened God, Mother and the American ideal with total discipline.

FORCE OF ARMS: Behind the barrel of this M-41 "peace-maker" is seen a group of the wantonly illegal and dangerously unlawful Seton Hall students before they were pacified by the ROTC (with the aid of practically the entire U. S. armed forces, not to mention Vailsburg Cub Scout Pack 37).

Hall Upgrades Standards; Qualifies As Job Corps Camp

Seton Hall University has just been designated provisional Job Corps Training Camp. The official decision is pending the successful completion of a major upgrading of the University's academic standards to provide a "worthy scholastic challenge" to the 650 grammar school drop-outs considering admission.

The Hall is working feverishly to achieve this worthy goal. It has undertaken a final alteration in its basic philosophy of modern, "insignificant" methods. Representative of this system is increased student rules and regulations. These include the tightening of the dress code so as to require leather jackets and dirty tee-shirts for their attendance. The cut system has been strengthened, and will be strictly enforced. All students attending a class must then sit in the back row, and not in the front row. The school is also upgrading its automatics, law, and other "insignificant" standards.

But the newly created self-evaluation and internal control committee, headed by the University's President, is also upgrading its standards. The committee is also upgrading its standards. The committee is also upgrading its standards.

The committee is also upgrading its standards. The committee is also upgrading its standards. The committee is also upgrading its standards. The committee is also upgrading its standards.

Frosh Orientation

WELCOME SIGHT: The picture above shows next year's freshman class during orientation. The University decided to maintain their cool and not go coeducational. They thought it might be nice to try all girls next time around instead.

Bulletin

INTRAMURAL DIRECTOR EDDIE COPPOLA TODAY ANNOUNCED THAT HE WAS MOVING THE ENTIRE INTRAMURAL PROGRAM TO FAIRBACH DICKINSON UNIVERSITY OF TEANECK. COPPOLA T.O.D. BAYLEY NEWS REPORTERS THAT THE ATMOSPHERE AT THE UNIVERSITY WAS TOTALLY UNFRIENDLY TO THIS PROGRAM AND FDU HAS OFFERED A MUCH BETTER ARRANGEMENT. PHYSICALLY, AS HE KNOWN DOWN AT THE GYM WILL BECOME DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS, BASKETBALL, BASEBALL AND SQUASH COACH AT FDU IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THIS ANNOUNCEMENT. BISHOP J. J. DOUGHERTY NAMED FR. HORGAN INTRAMURAL DIRECTOR FOR THE REMAINDER OF HIS LIFE.

Roberts Gives $$$

Ken Roberts, Bayley News Editor, has just given $1000 to the University. He has given $1000 to the University. He has given $1000 to the University.

Mr. Roberts has given $1000 to the University. He has given $1000 to the University. He has given $1000 to the University. He has given $1000 to the University.

Hall Seeded Behind Prep JVs in NIT

Father John J. Horgan, in a move "to increase the popularity of local athletics," announced yesterday that the Hall will forego the Queen City Holiday Tournament in Buffalo for the NIT.

That's right! The Bucks will head down South Orange Ave. next December to the first annual Newark Invitational Tournament. The tournament, under the direction of the Newark Board of Education, will be the first of its kind in the U.S. combining the best in high school basketball with the type of college hall the Hall plays.

In announcing the change, Horgan stated: "The decision, though new, the Newark Street Juggs today will go down in both Seton Hall and Newark's athletic history. It will serve to extend a spirit of brotherhood to that city and bring the best of Newark to the Seton Hall basketball court."

Horgan also noted that the venue into the converted gymnasium had, did break the school's long-standing tradition from the "Big metropolitan arena."

The reason, Horgan insisted, was not the Seton Hall's "Hall of Fame" series, but a genuine effort to gain the much-needed exposure, the metropolitan arena offers.

About the gym, tourney officials stated that they were in complete agreement that the hall would afford more environmental surroundings for the Newark high schoolers. The court's dimensions are as follows: 48 feet long, 22 feet wide and 15 feet high. It formerly held the Newark Rodent Extermination Department.

The twelve tourney members will include: Seton Hall University Varsity, Seton Hall Prep Junior Varsity, (the Prep Varsity will enter the Queen City Tourney), Vailsburg, Barringer, St. James, Weequahic, Central, Southside, Croydon Hall, Marylaw, the host team, the Military Park Muggers, and Maulers, and just for laughs, the Boston Celtics.

Seeded for the tournament has been conducted by an impartial selection committee which includes the St. Peter's College Booster Club, the Sisters of Charity (Marylawn Division) and South Orange, Fire Department. The seedings have yet to be announced, but an informed source (Joe the Barber) states the seedings will go as follows:

1. Weequahic
2. South Side
3. Central
4. Seton Hall (Prep JVs)
5. Vailsburg
6. Barringer
7. Military Park Muggers
8. Maulers
9. St. James
10. Marylaw
11. Croydon Hall
12. Seton Hall (University Varsity)

At Walsh Gym reaction was varied. Ed Coppola, Intramural Director, fumed when he heard the announcement. Said Physical Ed: "Where do they get off

NIT OPPOSITION: The above team picture depicts the Seton Hall Prep team. This team shapes up to be the Buc's major opposition in the upcoming Newark Invitational Basketball Tournament. But Coach Richie Regan is confident. After all, the Prep is coached by ex-Pirate Richie Dec and Regan taught Dec all he knows — which should make for a rather interesting, though poorly coached, game.

not inviting the Intramural All-Stars. If they want some good teams, I got plenty — TKE, the Trotters, Phi Kap A and the DSP Champions.

From Richie Regan, Hall coach, soon after his revival: "I figure we'll start off with a 1-2-3 zone and if that doesn't work (you can bet your last buck it won't) we will switch to a press, and if that doesn't work, maybe we'll go into a 0-5-0 or maybe, and then, well we could, but that wouldn't work, but if we, no, however."

Vinny Bickler, WSOU sports director (when he's there) favored the games or at least the trip, anyway: "I hear the team will stay at the luxurious Newark YWCA. This will give the team a basis for future trips and give me less travel time."

From Kappa Sigma Pi pickets protesting the move, came this statement formally drawn up after the announcement: "Nothing against Father Horgan as a priest, and Mr. Regan as a man, but this idea

Finally, from Tom, the janitor, comes this word of caution: "Playing in such an outstanding interscholastic tournament must give the players a sense of intense pride. The city of Newark is rich in tradition and local color. However, one must remember 'A wet bird never flies at night.'"

BULLETIN

The University Council in a surprise move today announced the appointment of Tom, the janitor, as Head of the Philosophy Department.

Gibson Fraud Revealed

Hall Track Coach John Gibson, Germann today revealed his up-to-date hidden last name when faced with some slapping evidence by Father Horgan and the D.

John Germann, 22, a professional athlete, told the public press he had hidden his last name for several years. When he was born, his name was John Gibson, and he had a father named John Gibson. He had a brother named John Gibson, and he had a sister named John Gibson. He had a mother named John Gibson, and he had a father named John Gibson. He had a brother named John Gibson, and he had a sister named John Gibson. He had a mother named John Gibson, and he had a father named John Gibson.

Track Coach Gibson Germann reveals last name, and expenses. He felt it was necessary.

Gibson Germann also stated his denial of ever using head shop watches and mirrors in recent meets. "I wouldn't do that even if Herb and George were not twins." Next year, however, with the boys' younger brother (by 6 minutes) the situation might change. The youngest Germann triplet is 3-6 and 230 pounds.

Athletic Dept. Edges SHU Faculty

The final game of the Seton Hall Invitational Tournament was played in the little gym on April 1. This tournament is the first played since the ban has been lifted, but judging by the way the finalists played, the tournament will be banned again.

The finalists, the Athletic Dept. Antipodians and the Faculty Furies, earned the right to the playoff by defeating the Holy Spirit League and the Holy Spirit League, respectively. Fr. Horgan, coach of the Antipodians, decided to resort to cheating warfare by smirking the black square throughout the game. Fr. Horgan, coach of the Antipodians, decided his strategy would be to use his athletic training to his advantage. Fr. O'Toole, the Faculty Furies' coach, decided to use his athletic training to his advantage. Fr. O'Toole, the Faculty Furies' coach, decided to use his athletic training to his advantage.

The game started with a few seconds of silence. Fr. O'Toole, the Faculty Furies' coach, decided to use his athletic training to his advantage. Fr. O'Toole, the Faculty Furies' coach, decided to use his athletic training to his advantage. Fr. O'Toole, the Faculty Furies' coach, decided to use his athletic training to his advantage. Fr. O'Toole, the Faculty Furies' coach, decided to use his athletic training to his advantage.

The game started with a few seconds of silence. Fr. O'Toole, the Faculty Furies' coach, decided to use his athletic training to his advantage. Fr. O'Toole, the Faculty Furies' coach, decided to use his athletic training to his advantage. Fr. O'Toole, the Faculty Furies' coach, decided to use his athletic training to his advantage. Fr. O'Toole, the Faculty Furies' coach, decided to use his athletic training to his advantage.

consented by bouncing the ball off Menzies' head.

After the foul shot DeProspero quickly brought the ball on court and passed to Doc West, who flicked off a jump and which would have went in if the basket didn't shake when he landed on the court. The ball was rebounded by jumping Ed Coppola, and was stolen by Vince Ferrara. Much to the disappointment of the Faculty, Ferrara was called for traveling when the ball got stuck in his hands. With darning play, such as this, the Faculty was down 13-0 at half time. Mouth-sucking protestantism was provoked by pretzelman at half-time.

The Furies started the second half in high spirits as Fr. O'Toole miraculously recovered from Coach Coppola's crash landing. With O'Toole's out-mach-covering Regan and Menzies, who are too heavy to move anyway (the Faculty tied the score in two minutes. Fr. Ballweaver, tempted to insure his team against any more errors by ordering West not to jump and shove Ferrara's beard! Despite this psychological disadvantage, the Antipodians kept pace with O'Toole's scoring by Ed Coppola's rebounding (who would come near the Crusher?) the defensive play of "Animal" Evanoff, and Owen Carroll's rocket passes.

With ten seconds to go and the score tied twenty-one all,

Evanoff tackled DeProspero and drew a foul. Despite Fr. Horgan's smoke screen, "Uncle Nick" converted and the Furies went ahead 22-21. Carroll seeing only five seconds left on the clock, flicked the ball to Nick Menzies, returning his old soccer days, hoisted the ball in for the winning bucket.

There was a pleasant atmosphere after the game. Richie Regan was hung in effigy for the thousandth time. Nick Menzies slipped Fr. Horgan a loaded cigar. Vince Ferrara sold socks from his shorn beard as souvenirs. Dr. DeProspero carried Dr. West off the court but this extreme conception of weight resulted in their taking a quick trip. They crashed through the floor into the swimming pool. Walt Cohrsen sold second hand bone flutes in the lobby. Steve Evanoff was arrested for assault and battery by fearless leader.

Pirates Sign 5

Seton Hall basketball coach, Richie Regan, today revealed the Pirates had received five signed scholarship applications as of Tuesday. These five will receive full tuition scholarships to the Hall and will attempt to play basketball for the all-powerful SHU Team.

The five are: Pat Caruso, 3-7 center from Mt. St. Dominic Academy; Pat, a dandy shooter, scored within two feet of six buckets, scored a record 36 points in a recent state tourney game. She will major in mathematics.

Joe Blow, 7-4 guard from South Orange Poly Technical Institute and Chicken Hatchery. Regan is very high on this boy saying: "Even though Joe was sixteenth man on a team that was 0-47 on the season and was bedded down with a terminal case of ber-ber for the past six weeks, he could develop."

Tom Hinczynski, a 4-2

backcourt man is from Our Lady of the Valley of the Holy Green Giant. Tom, known for his expert ball handling, cannot shoot, but will give the Buc's good bench strength. Up on hearing the spelling of Hinczynski's name, "That's Hinczynski, as in Smith's the sports casting department of WSOU quit."

Ngô Kân Sy, is a 6-5 utilityman from Hanoi, North Vietnam. Sy does not know a darn thing about what a basketball looks like, but Regan figures his recruiting will gain some kind of congressional investigation, or at least some exposure.