ADVOCATE—He patroness in priests, it."

The Pope stressed rigid rules for religious.

VATICAN CITY—Quality rather than quantity should govern admission to religious orders, Pope Paul VI stated at an audience to the Italian religious congregations which have their headquarters in Rome.

He said the superior in a religious order should be careful to receive only those who are properly prepared not only in spiritual life, but also in an education and training, even if the moral aspect is of primary importance toward their religious vocation.

Pope Paul said the Church does not approve of the lay brother system, especially if an order is a family character.

He defined "the importance of the superior's personal example and the spiritual director's role, as well as the idea of spiritual coordination among his members toward the total consecrated life of the Church and the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, that which he says in the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Church of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, he said, is what is needed in the Church today.

Pope Paul stressed rigid rules for religious orders. He will also make an audience to religious orders, including the four congregations that have their headquarters in the United States.

Transactions—The Pope, speaking in Latin, told the religious congregations that the rules of poverty, obedience, and celibacy "are the bedrock of the life of a religious and the source of the institute's spirit from the rules."

The Pontifex said that in the beginning of the Church in this era, the ideal of the religious was to bring people to Christ and to return them to the Lord.

Autonomy—In his address, he said that the religious institutes have autonomy in the common life of the Church, provided they are not acting against the teachings of the Church and the norms of the Congregation for Institutes of Consecrated Life.

Ballantine Gives Floor For Seton Medical School

Jersey City — A generous contribution for reconstructing and expanding Seton Medical School was announced yesterday at a banquet in the Palace Hotel where Catholic University Deans and other officials of religious congregations of New Jersey brought together to express the support of religious congregations of the state and their abiding interest in the future of the medical school.

Cardinal Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle, president of the Board of Regents of the college, announced the help promised by Mr. and Mrs. W. Franklin Feller of New York City.

The cardinals' letter was read by Rev. Monsignor J. S. Fillmore, S.J., assistant general of the Congregation of the Holy Cross. The principal of the college, the Fr. James's first medical and dental school in New Jersey, is located in the historic city of Paterson.

The Board of Regents, in its last meeting in the second week of February, decided to start the reconstruction of the school.

Included in the contributions is a gift to the college of $100,000.

Mail Order Pornography Available Even to Young

WASHINGTON — Mail order pornography is big busitness. Just last week, a New York judge — in a U.S. District committee investigating juvenile delinquency — put the figure at $100,000,000. — 2,000 letters containing big mail orders are sent out each day.

YOUNG PEOPLE are the best customers for mail order sewing materials. They receive mail orders for the first time at the age of 14 or 15. — Even before that, boys are already ordering materials to sew in their pockets.

MADE-UP orders are sent out to boys by industrial sewing materials companies. — They are sent out in big mail order books, filled with attractive pictures of girls in provocative costumes. — More boys are ordering these mail order books than ever before.

They receive mail orders for the first time at the age of 14 or 15 years.

THE ORCHESTRA is the best customer for mail order sewing materials. — The underprivileged youth of the city are breeding a new generation of sewing material adores. — They receive mail orders for the first time at the age of 14 or 15 years.

Apostolic terms: Rehearsals

THE REHEARSALS involved a group of 15-year-old boys who were sent out by the Postal Department. — They were given free sewing materials and were asked to write down their orders.

THE ORDER was filled by the Postal Department. — The youngsters were given sewing materials to sew in their pockets.

Bishops of Northern Rhodesia denounce racial intolerance

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia (AP) - Bishops have denounced the "ideology of violence" in a statement on racial disorders.

"In a joint pastoral letter to the Catholic faithful, the bishops said the violence has caused great suffering to the nation. The bishops said whites and blacks should share all the benefits, including education, health and work opportunities.

"We stand united in the fight for justice and peace."

Advocates fuller participation of Catholics in Church's life

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) - Bishops and priests who came to Australia for the first time have expressed their desire for fuller participation of Catholics in Church's life.

"The bishops have declared that they want to be fully involved in the Church's life," said one of the bishops.

"They hope that the Church will become a living organism that can respond to the needs of the people."

Urges Catholics take broader public view

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Catholics must begin to think in terms of the common good if they are to exercise influence in proportion to their numbers, Archbishop Karl J. Wuerl said in his installation of Bishop Charles J. Brown.

"The Church must be a force for good in society," said Archbishop Wuerl.

"We must be a voice for the weak and the voice of the voiceless."

Bishops to be invoked for help

Bishops, in a statement released today, have invoked the help of St. Francis of Assisi in their fight against the evil of violence.

"We call upon St. Francis to intercede for us and to guide us in our mission," said one of the bishops.

"We pray that the Church may become a beacon of hope in the midst of chaos."

Lenten Loopholes

In the Lenten regulations, that are published each year by the Catholic Bishops of the United States, we are urged to be extra careful with regard to the observance of the Ember Days and the forty days of fasting. The regulations are necessary, for the reason that many are not aware of the special days of fasting and abstinence. Without this regulation, the assurance of the observance of the Ember Days and the forty days of fasting would be left to the discretion of each individual parishioner. This is not always the case, for there are many who do not observe the Ember Days and the forty days of fasting. Therefore, it is necessary that we be extra careful with regard to the observance of the Ember Days and the forty days of fasting.

The Other France

There is a France that is of interest. It is a France that is of interest to the Catholic Church and to the United States. It is the France of the religious orders and the religious congregations. It is the France of the religious education and the religious instruction. It is the France of the religious life and the religious work. It is the France of the religious spirit and the religious practice. It is the France of the religious community and the religious parishes.

What If You Have Concealed a Sin?

These questions and answers are taken from Latius 35 of "This We Believe. By This We Live" the second edition of the "Catechism of the Catholic Church" prepared by the Pontifical Commission for the Propagation of the Faith.

What must a person do who has knowingly concealed a mortal sin?

A person who has knowingly concealed a mortal sin is obliged to confess it, if possible before it be mortal sin is confessed. Otherwise, he who has knowingly concealed a mortal sin is in mortal sin.

What is a mortal sin?

A mortal sin is a sin which the sinner is aware of and conceals from God and from others, and which is so grave that it cannot be forgiven without the sacrament of reconciliation. The sinner is aware of the sin, and knows that it is mortal, and conceals it from God and from others.

Does anyone who has committed a mortal sin have the right to the sacrament of reconciliation?

No, anyone who has committed a mortal sin does not have the right to the sacrament of reconciliation. The sinner is aware of the sin, and knows that it is mortal, and conceals it from God and from others.

If someone has committed a mortal sin, and has begun to conceal it, can he be forgiven without the sacrament of reconciliation?

No, someone who has committed a mortal sin and has begun to conceal it cannot be forgiven without the sacrament of reconciliation. The sinner is aware of the sin, and knows that it is mortal, and conceals it from God and from others.

Does a person who has committed a mortal sin have the right to the sacrament of reconciliation?

Newark Branch of the Legion of Mary Mapping Plans to Continue Recent Growth

By Joe Thomas NEWARK — A newly appointed Legion of Mary unit in a suburban parish was being established with the aid of a sign assignment by the pastor through the efforts of the Newark Branch of the Legion of Mary. The pastor, the Rev. Robert M. Purcell, while taking the parish census, found several children of the parish with a real interest in the Legion of Mary, and it was decided to organize a unit in that area.

The first meeting of the new unit was held at Sacred Heart Church on Oct. 18, 1953, and a core group of nine women was formed. The unit is now active and having regular meetings.

COUNTING NOTES: Legislators from Our Lady of Sorrows, South Orange, had a full counting on their hands when they stopped at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Purcell while taking the parish census. The Purcells have seven children.

Legionnaires and members of the Purcell clan were, from the left: Billy, Mary Ann, Mr. Purcell and Regina, Mrs. Purcell and Angelo, Thomas, Dr. Henry Johnson, town, Rosemarie, Easter Pruners and Bobby.

The purpose of the Legion of Mary is to promote the sanctification of the members through prayer and good works.

FAMILY FUND: The first financial contribution of the new unit was $150,000, which was given to the Sacred Heart Church.

The Legion of Mary has been in existence for many years and is a women's organization dedicated to the promotion of the sanctification of the members through prayer and good works.

Maryknoll Nun Serves in City Ad Doctor Answering Police Calls

By Sister Maria del Rey

NEW YORK (NC) — When, according to an 18-year-old girl, her 17-year-old boyfriend was attacked by two men on the street, the girl's mother called a nun at the Maryknoll Mission House. The nun made a quick trip to a hospital, where she checked the girl's injuries and found she was not badly hurt. The police were called, but the nun remained on the scene to keep the girl quiet and calm. She then left for the hospital, where she remained for a few hours, until the police arrived.

Sister Anne Veronica, one of 15 Maryknoll Sisters, is a doctor. She has been on staff at the hospital for several years, and has received her medical degree in Rome. She is also a member of the International Medical Corps, which provides medical care to people in need around the world.

The end of February comes with the beginning of Lent, a time for prayer and thought.

Into Lent

The Lenten season will begin on Ash Wednesday, February 22. The Mass will be celebrated in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, and will have breakfast in the Great Room.

Newark Takes Vows at Mission

NEWARK—Sister M. Kathleen Frankowski, a member of the Missionaries of the Poor, took her final vows as a Missionary of the Poor. She was received into the order by Sister Mary Veronica, Superior General of the order.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frankowski, Billingsley, Ill., will take the name of Sister M. Kathleen. She is a member of the order since 1962 and has been on staff at the hospital for several years.

Women's Auxiliary

The Women's Auxiliary of the hospital will hold its annual meeting on March 15. The meeting will be held at the Hotel Nacional, and will feature a speech by Sister Mary Veronica, Superior General of the order.

The Auxiliary is a volunteer group that helps with various activities at the hospital, including providing support to patients and staff.
