Parrillo, "Setonian" Editor-in-Chief, Appointed Editor of The Galleon

By GARY NARDINO

In a surprise move at a meeting held three days after Senior election, Joe Parrillo, defeated candidate for Senior class president, was appointed Editor-in-Chief of The Galleon Yearbook. Joe Brennan, along with four other victorious party members, broke precedent, as the appointment to this position was always considered to be a political job. Parrillo was named for the position, which is the biggest on campus, over Joe Flood, a Brennan backer, and Paul Keast, who was in the Parrillo camp in the recent elections. It was common knowledge that Keast would have received the job if Parrillo had won the election. Both Flood and Keast have pledged their support to Parrillo to ensure the Class of 1955 the best yearbook possible.

At present Parrillo is Editor-in-Chief of The Setonian, his term running out in December. Although no official statement concerning the newspaper has been made, it is believed that Parrillo will wait until the Fall Semester begins before making a decision.

Joe Parrillo takes on his new job with two and a half years of newspaper experience behind him. He joined The Setonian in January, 1952, as a news reporter, and worked under Flood. With Flood's election to Editor-in-Chief, Parrillo was appointed Managing Editor in January, 1953, and then Executive Editor in September, 1953. In December he was elected as Editor-in-Chief, and with the conclusion of this semester he will have completed one half of his term.

When work on The Galleon starts

it will be under the newly adopted constitution. Aside from those who will be appointed by Parrillo, there will be nine underclassmen "learning the ropes." Three being selected by the Soph President and three by the Junior President, in addition to the three chosen by the Student Council.

In one of the most interesting, hard fought, and highly contested elections in many a year, students marched to the polls and cast their votes for Sophomore and Senior Class representatives. There was "no contest" for the Junior Class officers because only one party entered the race. From beginning to end there was surprise after surprise, upset after upset. The biggest shock of all is the fact that of the nine Student Council representatives elected in the three classes, only one has had any previous experience in student government before, that being Dick Kernan. When the Frosh hold their elections in September, three more inexperienced Councilmen will round out the body of twelve. With this situation at hand, the question is—Will a number of club representatives, who now have voting power, band together and control the Student Council? This seems very likely since the three representatives from each class are, in general, "green" and will split their vote on vital issues. Only time will tell. The breakdown on each class is as follows:

SENIOR CLASS ELECTION RESULTS

The Unified Setonian Party, led by Joe Brennan, swept Joe Parrillo and The United Students Party out of office in the all-important Senior elections. Five of the six incumbents lost, the only one serving on the United Students Party being Dick Kernan. Kernan has now won a seat on the Student Council for the fourth consecutive year, campaigning with three different parties. He was elected President of the Council at the opening session May 18th.

The presence of a third party was considered to be a deciding factor in the outcome. With this in mind, the United Students Party was picked as pre-election favorites. But the Unified Setonian Party put on a surging drive to turn the tide. The third party was decisive but in Brennan's favor, and not Parrillo's. Six of the Unified Setonians won with Kernan just edging out Joe Donegan for the third, and all-important council seat.

The total party vote was: Unified Setonian, 1,008; United Students, 766; Opportunity, 192. The individual totals are as follows:

Unified Setonian	United Students	Opportunity
President: Brennan (114)	Parrillo (58)	Oppenheimer (56)
Vice President: Brandon (113)	Lacour (56)	DeRosier (46)
Treasurer: Blair (111)	Boyle (56)	Coslin (44)
Secretary: Gullerzack (111)	Duck (59)	Strawo (44)

STUDENT COUNCIL (C denotes winner)

Bady (156)	Sherran (124)
Robb (115)	Layden (124)
Donegan (157)	Dondorshine (158)

Editor's Report

With this issue, The Setonian concludes its 1953-54 series of publications. It has been a long, hard year, but in my humble opinion I believe it has been a profitable and successful one. There have been, and still are, many trials and tribulations which I have met and am still meeting. Most of them have been conquered, others beyond my reach. But such is life and a tired and weary editor continues to ramble on.

I have, and will continue to give my all to The Setonian and Seton Hall. I have put forth all of my spare time and energy to fulfill, beyond expectations, the duties of editor-in-chief. On Fridays alone a total of one hundred and fifty hours have been spent in putting together and perfecting, to the utmost, eighteen issues of The Setonian. I have spent every one of those hours at the printers. Why? To make sure the student body of Seton Hall University received a paper worthy to bear the name of Seton Hall. Am I complaining? Certainly not. Am I boasting? You can bet your bottom dollar I am. I am proud of every issue published, especially our anniversary issue, which was a project in itself. A total of twenty-four pages; a record indeed. Believe me, a lot of sweat and toil went into the making of that issue.

A new high was reached this semester in eight-page editions, a total of four. A new high was reached in six-page editions; a total of five. Not since last November 6, 1953, was a four-page edition published. Care for some more statistics? Here they are: A total of one hundred and thirty pages as compared to the 1952-53 total of seventy-two. No less than one hundred and forty-seven pictures as compared to the sixty-eight that appeared during the 1952-53 editions. Just one more figure. Eighteen editions as compared to fourteen for last year. An increase in every department because of the hard work, experience, and willingness put forth. At the beginning of next semester a survey will be taken to determine what the student would like to read in The Setonian. The Queen of the Campus Dance, of course, will be our social highlight of the year, and I hope it will be as successful as it has been in the past.

In conclusion I would like to express my appreciation to the administration, the faculty, and the student body for accepting The Setonian as the official undergraduate newspaper of Seton Hall. Sincere thanks go to Father Clement A. Ockay, our Moderator, who has been the guiding light for The Setonian.

Last, but certainly not least, a tip of the hat to my entire editorial board and staff. Without their help and cooperation the voyage would have been impossible. Until next fall when we resume operations, I wish you, on behalf of everyone connected with The Setonian, a safe and enjoyable vacation. God bless you.

BLUE AND WHITE SPOTLIGHT

By BILL GANGE

This week's illuminated subject is the Rev. John J. Feeley, A.B., A.M., executive Vice President of Seton Hall University and the chairman of the Athletic Council. Rev. Feeley is no stranger here at Seton Hall, he has been a student, teacher, and administrator; but I am afraid that his duties as executive Vice President keep him so busy that he is a stranger to most students. For this reason I am particularly pleased that he is the subject of the Blue and White Spotlight, because it will enable the undergraduates to realize the high caliber of the men who run Seton Hall.

Rev. John J. Feeley is a native of South Orange. He attended Our Lady of Sorrows grammar school, and St. Benedict's Academy in Newark; he came to Seton Hall for his college education. Following this, he entered Immaculate Conception Seminary; he was ordained in 1934. Following his ordination he became a curate at St. Teresa's in Summit. In 1940 he returned to Seton Hall as an instructor in Philosophy. His teaching days were short lived for in February 1942 he became a chaplain in the Navy. He served until 1946 spending most of his time in the South West Pacific Islands. During this period of service he attained the rank of Lieutenant Commander, and he still holds this rank as a member of the Naval Reserve.

The War reaching a successful conclusion Father Feeley returned to Seton Hall where he resumed teaching Philosophy and Religion.

In March 1949 he was made Controller in Charge of Veterans. A year later in March 1950 he was appointed to his present position of Executive Vice President.

In line with his exhaustive duties as Vice President, he, as chairman of the athletic council, is temporarily taking care of athletics in the absence of Father Carey. He has also assisted greatly in the development of the new building program. You would think that a man so busy with the affairs of Seton Hall would be oblivious to anything else, but personal conversation with Father Feeley revealed that he is well informed of world conditions and has definite ideas as to the pattern the world is following.

On weekends he helps out at Our Lady of Lourdes in West Orange.

Open Letter

To the Graduating Seniors

The time has come for you young men and women to leave the institutional world of theory and to enter a different world—a world about which many of you probably know very little. If you believe some of the things you hear and read, you will think this new world is a very frightening one, one in which you are doomed to destruction at the mercy of deadly weapons; one in which you cannot find a job to support the wife and children you are doubtless anticipating, one in which you will lose your identity, your imagination, your freedom. Speaking as your Secretary of Labor, I want to tell you not to be afraid. America is still the nation your ancestors made it. It still holds the greatest opportunities of any nation of the world, opportunities indeed which would be more than enough for twice your number.

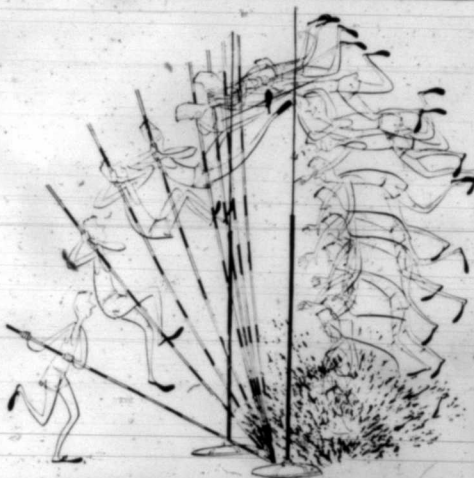

The military service which many of you face should not be regarded as a waste of time. There are many skills and techniques which you can learn through experience in the military which will stand you in good stead all the rest of your life. Look on your military service as a great opportunity for further education, and regard it as an important part of your career.

With regard to the fears that some of you may have that you will be but a nameless cipher in the new world you are about to enter, that you will lose your precious identity as an individual, let me just reassure you that in America, a working person is no machine, no automaton. You are a child of the Creator, and the greatest responsibility that you have is to be worthy of yourself.

Congratulations, sincere best wishes on your graduation, and the hope that in some small way it will help you to fulfill the destiny that God has for you.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES P. MITCHELL, Secretary of Labor

OPERATION "PINCUSHION!"

Bill Lobus

"Now take your shots like a good boy, sonny; or we won't let you go to our 'Georgia Resort!'"

By A. JOSEPH PARRILLO

Commencement—At first sight it seems strange that we call the exercises marking graduation from school "Commencement Exercises." Yet the term is well chosen. For they mark the beginning of a new career in a higher school or in life. Indeed this earthly life is but the testing ground for eternal life where we really begin to live.

A Vacation—A vacation consists essentially in a change of scenery and occupation. It is good for the health of body and mind. But it should not entail the discontinuance of our religious practices: our morning and our evening prayers, and our attendance at Sunday Mass. Find out in advance the hour of Mass in the church nearest your vacation point, so you will be present on time.

Can We Forgive?—If someone offends you or hurts you, are you slow to offer forgiveness? Have you ever thought, "I can never forgive that?" Then remember these words of Saint Philip Neri: "If a man finds it hard to forgive injuries, let him look at a crucifix." Forgive, and imitate Our Lord and Master, who forgave even those who put Him to death.

Change the World—"It is better to light one candle," runs a Chinese proverb, "than to curse the darkness." The meaning is that it is better to do some little thing to improve a bad situation than to expend one's energy in fruitless complaining.

This is the cardinal principle of the Christopher movement. Never let pass a day without doing something to fashion the world more closely after the pattern of Christ. Thus you can change the world.

48 Years in the Kitchen—All that Saint Zita did her whole life long was housework. She became a kitchenmaid when 12, and stayed on the very same job until her death at 60. Her employer was hard and stingy. But Zita learned the art of praying while working of turning homely work into lofty prayer. More than meals can be produced in the kitchen. Saints can be produced there, too.

Manners and Graces—The good manners you show often mean you will be asked to share in some great again. And politeness is most important, too, in your prayers. Saint Vincent de Paul wrote that "Gratitude for graces received is one of the best means for obtaining new graces."

Loyalty—Loyalty lies at the foundation of domestic, social, religious life. To the early disciples, loyalty meant persecution, loss of property and family, a baptism of blood. But it brought victory.

To the modern Christian, loyalty calls for effort, for perseverance, for sacrifice; it means that all choices must be tested by the principles of Jesus. The Church of Christ is worthy of loyalty.

S. A. M. Completes Project On New Jersey Industries

Favorable long run business prospects and anticipations far outweigh current difficulties of New Jersey industries, according to a survey of business prospects taken by the Seton Hall University Chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management.

A survey questionnaire was submitted to all members of the Society for the Advancement of Management, North Jersey Chapter. Additional statistical data was obtained from the Survey of Current Problems of New Jersey Manufacturing Industries, a study made under the Division of Business Research, School of Business Administration, Seton Hall University.

Mr. William J. Doerflinger

"New Jersey industry appears to be optimistic as to future economic development," William Doerflinger, Moderator of the Chapter and a member of the faculty of the School of Business Administration stated in drawing conclusions on the survey. "Although confronted with many problems, the setback of government defense orders did not appear as a major problem."

"With emphasis on new products and capital investment New Jersey industry is preparing to bring more satisfaction to the consumer and raise his plane of living."

"Furthermore, New Jersey employment with the possible exception of the clothing and textile industries compares favorably with the nation as a whole. With the solution of problems concerning labor, harmonious relationships should further encourage both labor and management. However, all positive forces operating in the economy will fall short of achieving full potentials without active and responsible planning and economic considerations of problems raised by industrial community."

Joseph Martocchio was chairman of the questionnaire committee. Also on the committee were Walter Daidrup, Hugh Schweitzer, Robert Backes, Thomas Biczap and George Selfert.

The tabulation committee consisted of Albert Horan, Edward Heston, and Bob Williams.

The editorial committee was made up of Martocchio, Williams, and Daidrup.

Setonians to Participate in Marian Day Celebration

Twenty-five Seniors will participate in a Marian Year celebration at Carnegie Hall on Sunday afternoon, May 23, 1954. Archbishop Thomas A. Boland of Newark will preside at the ceremony organized by Rev. Harold V. Colgan, founder of the Blue Army of Our Lady of Fatima. A statue of Our Lady of Fatima will be crowned during the service and the audience will view the world premiere of the film, Fatima Triumph.

Several weeks ago George Connelly, Senior Class President, was requested by Bishop Colgan of St. Mary's Parish, Plainfield, to provide student ushers for the occasion. Seton Hall will assist in the program with a similar group of students from Notre Dame College of Staten Island, New York. The following Seniors will usher: George Connelly, Richard Rento, Owen Haveron, Robert Moore, Richard Mescherymer, Gerald Williams, Donald Matthews, Vincent Hanlon, William McDermott, Les Fries, Frederick O'Boyle, John Walsh, Henry Lajegy, Andrew Zahn, Robert Williams, John Katter, Brian Fox, Thomas McKrown, Frederick Koehler, Jerome Bonillo, Bernard Hart, Lawrence Hogan, George Stone, Jerry Chiriacella, and James McLaughlin.

During the ceremony in New York a crown is to be placed upon a Pilgrim Virgin statue especially blessed by the Bishop of Fatima for the United Nations. "Jewels for the coronet have been pouring in from all sections of the country to the National Blue Army Headquarters in Washington, N. J. The coronation will be a reenactment of a 1946 ceremony in which Pope Pius XII crowned Our Lady of Fatima, "Queen of the World" with a jeweled, encrusted diadem donated by the people of Portugal. The statue is a copy according to the description given by the only living one of the three children who saw Our Lady of Fatima, Portugal, of the vision which appeared there in 1917 and promised on certain conditions the conversion of Russia and world peace.

Additional features of the New York program will be addressed by the Blue Army Founder, Rev. Harold Colgan, and its national commander, John Haffner, as well as the bestowing of the first annual Blue Army award.

College Graduates Have Chance for a Commission

Major D. H. MacDonnell, Officer in Charge of the Marine Corps Officer Procurement office at New York, stated that college seniors and graduates still have an opportunity in 1954 to be commissioned under the Officer Candidate Course program.

Plans have been completed for Marine Officer Procurement Officers and Marine Officer Instructors at NROTC units to accept applications from May 1, 1954, to July 1, 1954, for the 11th Officer Candidate Course, scheduled to convene in November, 1954, at the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Virginia. Applicants for this class must be at least twenty years of age and not over twenty-seven years of age on July 1, 1955. They must be seniors or graduates of an accredited college or university and hold degrees in fields other than medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine, theology, pharmacy, music or art. All candidates enrolling in this program are subject to serve three years of active service after appointment to commissioned rank. Accepted applicants will be ordered to a ten-week basic training course at Quantico. Upon successful completion of this training, candidates will be commissioned and assigned five months of specialized officer training in Basic School.

Interested college seniors and graduates can obtain additional information concerning the Officer Candidate Course, scheduled to convene in November, from Major MacDonnell at 346 Broadway, Marine Officer Instructors of local reserve units or their nearest Marine Corps Recruiter.

Students Attend Marketing Affair

In April the Marketing Club journeyed by chartered bus to Pace College, New York City for the Annual Student Marketing Conference. The Conference was sponsored by the American Marketing Association, New York Chapter and had for its theme "New Horizons in Marketing." Leading business executives spoke and conducted panel discussions on topics of major importance to the marketing student. Special emphasis was given to the new trends in marketing and how they affect the careers of the marketing students.

Four panel discussions added variety to the Conference. Each panel comprised the leading men in their special field.

A most interesting feature of the conference was the question period which followed each speaker. Seton Hall Marketing students displayed their aptness by dominating the question period and by putting many of the speakers on the spot with their pointed questions.

The chairmen for the Seton Hall Marketing Club's arrangements for the Conference were President John O'Connor and Vice-President Walter Kowalski. Professor Fred Segel, Moderator, was in charge of the group.

A Saga of Threes

From Eternity there were Three who loved—

The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

And from their love and their goodness sprang All being and all grace.

At Nazareth there were three who loved—

A Carpenter, who protected and ruled;

A Maiden Mother, who nurtured her Son;

A Child, who, ruling, yet obeyed. And in their lives all homes were consecrated.

In a Christian home there are three who love—

A man who is the head of the home;

A woman who is its heart;

Christ, who is the bond of union and the basis

Of all love.

In every child there are three who love—

A father who rules and who protects;

A mother who bears and who guides;

God, who creates and who holds in being.

TODAY'S QUIZ

WHAT MAKES A LUCKY TASTE BETTER?

"IT'S TOASTED"
to taste better!

A Lucky tastes better for two important reasons: 1. Lucky Strike means fine tobacco...light, mild, good-tasting tobacco.

2. That tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' fine tobacco... makes it taste even better—cleaner, fresher, smoother.

That's why a Lucky tastes better. And naturally, better taste is why thousands of college students prefer Luckies to all other brands.

So, enjoy better taste. Be Happy—Go Lucky!

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER

Brownson Debating Society Holds Elections As Season Is Completed

The Brownson Debating Society finished up its highly successful debate season with elections on Thursday, May 6. The new officers will assume their official duties of guiding the society through the 1954-55 debate season, in September. The successful candidates, all of whom have had extensive experience in this year's activities and are accomplished debaters, are:

President, Jerry Sullivan; Vice President, Gene Herbst; Treasurer, Joe Gilchrist; Secretary, Tom Gorman; Debate Manager, Buddy Duggan; and Student Council Representative, George Hurler.

The Brownson Society finished its debate schedule in a highly successful manner. On May 4, Buddy Duggan and Tom Gorman traveled to Columbia University and defeated a team from Columbia's debating society on the topic "Resolved that the Communist Party of the United States be outlawed." Seton Hall debated the negative side of the question.

The last debates of the season on the collegiate topic of "Free Trade," were completed at Newark Rutgers College on May 5. Joe Gilchrist and George Hurler argued the negative while Jerry Sullivan and Buddy Duggan handled the affirmative. The debates resulted in an even split with Seton Hall winning one debate and Newark Rutgers winning one. Four of the society's Divinity students traveled to Saddle River Township on May 12 to conduct a debate on "Free Trade" for a Holy Name Society. The debate, which is provided as a public service by the society was conducted by Ralph Attanasio, Buddy Duggan, John Egan, and Tom Gorman.

Pass In Review

"PASS IN REVIEW" serves the purpose of keeping you informed on the activities of the Seton Hall R.O.T.C. unit and its related organizations. From time to time there will be news of the Pistol and Rifle teams, Pershing Rifles Band, Alumni, and bits of information about R.O.T.C. students and instructors.

Earlier this month, Company K of the 8th Regiment National Society of Pershing Rifles, Seton Hall University's unit, elected its Company Commander for the term from May 1954 to May 1955. The cadets, unanimously chose P. R. Master sergeant Frank E. Schatzman Jr. as their new C.O.

The following Tuesday, the 11th of May, at a ceremony held in the presence of Lt. Col. Bartlett and Feehan, and P. R. Moderator Capt. Adams, the former company commander Andrew T. Zahn pinned the Captain bars on Schatzman, and then awarded the Gold Regimental Medal of achievement to P. R. Lt. Spiros T. Gevas for his outstanding work with the company in fostering the high ideals of the society, and for his work with the company's drill team.

The new company commander, on behalf of the company, presented identification bracelets to Andrew Spiros Gevas, John R. Flynn, James M. Moore, Bernard T. Hart, John Regan, and William M. Speckhardt, retiring P. R. officers.

The new company commander has announced that the Executive Officer will be Cornelius Morris. (Continued on page 6)

THE HASH CAN

By BOB BRADY

That time which I suppose all students look forward to has swiftly caught up with this writer, and that of course is graduation. Now that the time has arrived there is much to be done. And not the least important of these activities is the many thanks that are what we consider so very necessary.

Our activities since we started our studies here at Seton Hall in night school back in 1949 have encompassed a much greater area than we had ever anticipated. However, out of this area a few special activities stand out and because of their especial benefit to me personally I would like now for them to stand up and be recognized and take their much deserved bows. First to the activity to which I was closest and longest affiliated, WSOU.

"Pages of time have permanently recorded the events that have occurred here thusly, we shall not re-write them but names are not always thusly recorded. To those who are no longer connected with the radio station go my thanks; George Stapleton who as Chief Announcer at the time passed favorably upon my audition, to Lew Arnold who both appointed me and removed me from my post as Chief Announcer go not the might be expected regrets but rather a sincere and humble thanks for the benefits derived from both acts. To the present; the eternal lights of the radio station; Father Gilhobby who is held by those of the past and present in the greatest esteem and to Tom Parnham for his aid and patience especially on those long weekends. And to all of those under whom I have served or who have served under me, my only hope is that we have both benefited.

Thanks go also to the editors, under whom I have served here under the banner of The Setonian and of the activities of which we spoke in the anniversary issue, and to the memory of the columns that never quite made the printed form. To the members of the Student Council with whom much has been discussed, some things vehemently but always on the friendliest of terms and to the Education Club and Mr. Turner for their guidance and the privilege of representing them and my Prof. for their encouragement and knowledge. Finally and most important to the spirit of Seton Hall University which injected into me both the intent and desire for the above work in the light of the ends set for us by Almighty God. Goodbye and good luck.

Tubes and Talk

By BEN OKULSKI

If you should turn on your FM radio to 89.5 on Saturday afternoon, you'll probably hear someone say "It's Music by The Dominos."

A little combo featuring popular music mixed with some polkas and obereks. The group consists of four members. Wally on the accordion, Stan on the saxophone, Chick on the trumpet and Steve on the drum. The boys got together about six years ago and are still going strong. During the summer they play weekend dates at Rova Farms in Lakewood. The group takes the downbeat at 2:15 P. M. and they don't stop until 2:30 P. M. If you like pops or polkas tune in to the Dominos.

GRADUATION TIME

Next month graduation will cut the WSOU staff short of thirteen members. Each year the "Voice of Seton Hall University" loses some of its staff members, but 1954 will bring one of the greatest losses ever. Seven active members and six directors will leave to enter the field of commercial radio and television. The seven members are: Larry Hogan, Jerry Bonillo, Bob Brady, Danny DeFlore, Joe La Motta, Phil Sattley and Al Pikarsky. The directors leaving are Jim Previti, Director of Production, Russ Rauch and Sil D'Addario, co-directors of the sports department, Frank McCormick, Director of Classical Music, Ted Florio, Director of News and Jim McGlone, Student Director of Dramatics.

To start to list the many achievements of these WSOU graduates would be impossible. They leave us with a well organized and well balanced radio station. We hope that we can continue the efficient operation of WSOU as they have done in past years. We, the remaining staff, would like to offer our deepest thanks to these graduation members, for all of their efforts. We would also like to wish them God's blessings to succeed in their field of radio and television.

AWARDS

NEW POLICY

On the weekend of June 19th WSOU will put into effect a new policy. For the summer months WSOU will leave the air on weekends. This will include Saturday and Sunday. This is the first time that a policy such as this has been adopted by WSOU. This new five-day schedule was brought about because of the many weekend vacationers among the staff and the extreme heat in the studios of WSOU generated by the transmitter which is located in the control room. Remember, WSOU leaves the air on weekends during the summer but will return to a full broadcasting schedule next September.

WSOU TIPS

WSOU graduate Jimmy Graham is working at a station in Vermont. This is the last "Tubes and Talk" column until next semester, so I'd like to wish everyone a happy summer. You'll be hearing from us in the last week of September.

"But-I Thought
the War
Was Over?"

Sure! The fighting's stopped in Korea... but the war against death is never over! The fighting continues relentlessly in homes and hospitals all over America. And the greatest defense weapon of all is blood. Yes, blood saves lives!

It is needed now by thousands of men, women and children for surgery and medical treatment. It is needed, too, to build a national reserve of blood derivatives as "life insurance" for hundreds of thousands in time of disaster. So...

Arthur Shaub, the Training Officer, with Lawrence Leyden, the Recruiting Officer, and Frank Lynch, the Warrant Officer. The first platoon with the present freshmen will be led by Jack Phillips, while Nicholas Cerulo and Thomas Bender will have charge of the pledge platoons. The drill team will be in the hands of its former Sergeant Joseph Zarelli.

Miss Joanne Shilling was chosen Queen of the recent Military Ball, sponsored by the ROTC cadets of Seton Hall. Miss Shilling is a senior at Summit High School. Her escort was Cadet Richard Hennessy.

Annual Inspection

Lt. Col. Frank E. Bartlett, P.M.-S.A.T. of the Seton Hall University ROTC, and his staff, received an annual inspection visit from the Kearny, N. J. Military District.

The inspection team consisted of three officers: Col. Lindsay P. Caywood, Provost Marshal of the First Army, and Lt. Col. R. Deheimer and Major H. M. Cardella from the New Jersey Military District at Kearny.

Colonel Caywood was called in from New York, because the inspecting team must contain at least one member, that is of the same branch as the unit being inspected.

This inspection visit was Col. Caywood's first time back, since 1952. He feels that the building and expansion program of the university is very fine and impressive.

Col. Caywood feels that we are very fortunate in our president Rt. Rev. Msgr. John L. McNulty and staff, and attributes the improvement of the ROTC, to the wonderful support given Lt. Col. Frank E. Bartlett, and his staff, by the school authorities.

Col. Caywood found the ROTC unit larger now than it was two years ago, and thinks the members of the ROTC show a very enthusiastic attitude. The military courtesy and the appearance shown by the regiment was outstanding. Because of all these things, Col.

Caywood and the accompanying members of the team found the inspection most satisfactory.

Col. Caywood ended by saying, "That although a man should for some reason not be able to continue in the ROTC program, he should use what he has obtained advantageously and thus, be better equipped to serve his country."

Six members of the Seton Hall University rifle team have been given awards for gaining the Class B Metropolitan rifle championship, Captain Michael J. Sabrinsky, coach of the team, announced.

Those honored were as follows: Murray Weingartner, Robert Carwell, Orland DiRienzo, John E. Phillips, Vincent P. Betz, and Benjamin Stanziale.

Lt. Colonel John Feehan will be detached from the staff of the Seton Hall ROTC unit and will leave for the Far East early next month. Colonel Feehan will finish the semester at Seton Hall.

He came to Seton Hall in 1950 when the ROTC group was organized. He has been the Director of Instruction at Seton Hall.

Cornelius J. Morris has been awarded the Reserve Officers Association Outstanding ROTC Cadet Medal in recognition of his exceptional scholastic and military achievement by Lt. Colonel Frank E. Bartlett, professor of Military Science and Tactics at Seton Hall University. The presentation was made by Lt. Colonel Frank R. Fitzpatrick USAR, president of the Suburban Essex Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association, Department of New Jersey, at a regimental review.

Chesterfield Anniversary

By JACK HANSELL

May 1954 marks the 40th anniversary of Chesterfield advertising in college newspapers. The Setonian has carried Chesterfield advertising for 28 out of those 40 years, from 1926 to 1954. It is a pleasure to salute a company which has manifested so constantly and for so long, faith in the values inherent in the college market, and whose products have given so much pleasure to millions.

Without fanfare or sensationalism, Chesterfield has carried its friendly message to millions of readers of college newspapers, and over the years has won wide respect.

Thousands still remember the famous Chesterfield slogan of yesterday—"Such popularity must be deserved." Today college newspapers headline this message—"Today's Chesterfield is the best cigarette ever made—the largest selling cigarette in America's colleges."

Good luck to Chesterfield—from The Setonian. Chesterfield, a proud name and a proud product.

Campus Elections

JUNIOR CLASS ELECTION RESULTS

In the Sophomore Class, "Chuck" Doehler and his entire Century Party were declared winners by Election Chairman William McDermott due to the fact that there were no other parties entered in the race. In actuality it was a tribute to Doehler for the fine job he has done for the Sophomore Class this past year.

The Junior Class officers for next year are as follows:

President—"Chuck" Doehler
Vice President—Joe Luciola
Treasurer—Tom Hogan
Secretary—"Chuck" Schrak
Student Council—Ben Stanziale
Student Council—Bill Hughes
Student Council—Al Payne

SOPHOMORE CLASS ELECTION RESULTS

Dave McGraw and Joe Pecora, both from the Student Progressive Party, were elected President and Vice-President of the Sophomore Class. The other five candidates for office on McGraw's party, Gary Nardino, George Drabin, Al Janoski, Phil Cacuzza, and Louis Freda, lost to their respective opponents on the United Soph Party. All of the Seton Seven Party candidates, Bob Wussler for President, Jack Milano for Vice-President, Norman Hughes for Treasurer, Ed Cryer for Secretary, George Hurler, Bern Doneski, and Dom Pescatore for Student Council, waged a losing campaign in their bid for class office.

In gaining the two top positions, that of president and vice-president, McGraw and Pecora almost, but not quite, carried in another candidate from their party. Gary Nardino, running for Treasurer on the Student Progressive ticket, lost to Dick Monaco, by just one vote. A recount was requested by Nardino, but the result remained the same, 144 to 143.

The results are as follows:

President—Dave McGraw (Student Progressive) 140
Vice-President—Joe Pecora (Student Progressive) 150
Treasurer—Dick Monaco (United Soph) 143
Secretary—Fred Duffy (United Soph) 167
STUDENT COUNCIL (Three Highest Votes)

William Ucker Appears As Speaker on Business Forum

By A. JOSEPH PARRILLO

Mr. William A. Ucker, special assistant of the United States Information Agency, appeared on a recent Business Forum, conducted by Professor John A. McManemin, from the School of Business, and presented through the facilities of WSOU, FM radio station of Seton Hall. Also on the panel with Professor McManemin were Dean Austin S. Murphy, School of Business, and Mr. William J. Doerflinger, Professor in the School of Business.

The program, presented on alternate Friday afternoons, is taped and rebroadcasted that very same evening in order to reach a larger audience. Many interesting programs have been presented, this one in particular, being no exception.

Although not strictly in the business field, Mr. Ucker provided the studio audience, and listening audience as well, with a highly informative talk about the Radio Voice of America.

It was stated that more than 75 separate programs, ranging up to one hour and amounting to about 28 program hours and 200,000 words, are broadcast daily in 34 languages. Mr. Ucker also said, "Radio is the fastest, most effective day-by-day medium for achieving these objectives; it speaks directly to people aboard, instantaneously surmounting barriers of distance, censorship, illiteracy, foreign exchange, paper shortages and tariffs."

Another interesting fact was that the VOA broadcasts 6½ hours daily to the USSR and Soviet-controlled areas in Russian. These programs, as well as those beamed to the satellites, are recorded at overseas relay bases and repeated to counter Soviet jamming.

Hogan's Corner

By NICK BLASI

Now that the golf season is well underway, many problems will arise in an individual's golf game; namely, the hook, slice, and shank. These faults will naturally find their way in the swing this early in the season, not that they won't arise later on in the season, but since the swing is not quite set this early, these faults will almost automatically come into the swing.

There are many reasons for each one of these badly hit shots. They may be due to a combination of faulty swing movements, or just one bad movement could be the cause.

The most common cause of a slice is the back swing. One will tend to take the club back on the outside, that is, his right elbow will tend to move away from the right hip. When the down swing is started, the right elbow is not in position to guide the club from the inside out. Instead, the club will come from the outside in and cut across the ball, causing a slice.

The hook is usually caused by a faulty hand rolling. As contact is made with the ball, the tendency is to roll the hands too much, causing the club face to close and hook the ball. The trend today in golf is not to hit the ball with a hook at all. Instead, a slight fade is desirable. This effect pays handsome dividends during the hot summer months when the greens are very hard. This slight fade gives a dead ball effect, causing the ball not to run.

The shank is a nightmare if one is not mentally capable to cope with it. Usually after one hits such a shot, all confidence is lost and the day is ruined. This need not be so because the shank was the result of one bad movement, namely, falling over the ball before the ball is hit. This will cause the club to be out of line when contact is made—result, a shot hit on the shaft.

Now that you know about these faults, I would like to tell you something to correct these errors.

Slice—on the back swing, keep the right elbow close to the right hip. This is also to be kept in mind on the down swing.

Hook—at contact of ball, keep the right palm square to the target as long as possible (the fade shot artist keeps this position for a prolonged period.)

Shank—do not let your weight move anywhere but from your lateral movements (left to right leg and back again shifting.) Do not fall over the ball. If you can't break a shank, try hitting a few with the tendency to stay back on your heels.

The most important factor in the whole golf game is a mental factor—namely, confidence in your golf game. Let's get out to the course and be a true golf bug by starting to acquire this factor and improve our respective games.

Brief Shanks:

A team of Halpin and Zupka versus Taylor and Stone could be a close team match. The golf team is going great guns. Let's get out and support the Seton Hall Golf Day.

Land, ho! After eight months of sailing we have at long last reached the termination of our journey and we cordially hope that for you it was a pleasant trip.

Upon setting sail last September we ventured extensively, hoping to satisfy the diversified interests of the reader with our observations candidly conveyed. Eighteen editions of The Setonian later, this somewhat tired seafarer welcomes the impending three months' literary respite.

With alacrity we cover our keyboard and silently steal away for a summer's solitude and seclusion from sports. Rest assured, however, that resumption of classes in late September will signal the commencement of a new year of revitalized SWTP columns, fashioned after the desires of The Setonian sports student.

We propose to continue to strive toward the attainment of a goal which seeks but to meet with your approval and complete satisfaction. Without delving into any unwarranted explanation of our aims which are well known by you the reader, let us suffice to say that we shall continue to print only that which is worthy of you, the reader.

While it might seem proper to period the year with a recapitulation of the highlights of the now nearly expired scholastic sports season, such a report might prove both tedious and boring. Hence, be it resolved that we shall not compel your attention with such a conglomeration of anecdotal athletic analysis. Rather than retrograde we should like to gather a glimpse of the future.

Briefly, the Bucs basketball aspirations appear animated. Seniors Harry Brooks, drafted by the Baltimore Bullets of the NBA, Mickey Hannon, Hank Cooper and Hank Bockrath have performed for the final time but there is a sufficient surplus to seemingly signify success in 1954-55. The potent Pirate frosh five of the 1954-55 season lend additional impetus to the theoretical invincibility of "the team" destined to be the most altitudinous array ever at the Hall. The schedule, which is deadline for mid-summer release, will prove to be of even greater quantity and quality than the most recent one which resulted in a 13-10 seasonal mark.

Baseball will be missing five of its artists and track losses will amount to six as a result of graduation. Nevertheless, a pessimistic attitude is far from prevalent here in either activity and both sports may be relied upon to supply additional moments of fame and glory to the monuments of memorable achievements by its past proud and loyal Setonians. Our propensity for ostensible optimism regardless of disconcerting data to the contrary may possibly be the paramount factor in our augury.

Apologizing for abandoning our initial intention of letting brevity be our guide in composing this final column, we bid you fond adieu. Until September, au revoir.

ONCE OVER LIGHTLY:

Vic DeFilippo, head of the Department of Physical Education at Seton Hall, has been invited by the International Federation of Amateur Boxing to referee the International Championships at Chicago on June 20th. Recently appointed Chief Inspector of Boxing in New Jersey, he has also been invited to referee the Golden Gloves International Championships at St. Louis on June 25th.

The Seton Hall University diamond squad is really a home-grown team. Pitcher Phil Walker, Catcher Jim Reardon, Third Baseman Joe Lucciola, Utility Infielder Joe Damato, and Left Fielder Denny Tallagnon all played at Seton Hall Prep. Pitcher Lou Tichenor, Shortstop Ed Walters, his understudy Bob Carroll, Centerfielder Charley Dourney, and Utility Outfielder Jim Maguire all attended Our Lady of the Valley, which is in Orange, two miles from the Hall. Only out-of-staters on the squad are Catcher Paul Jamison of Staten Island, First Baseman Jack Riley of Dorchester, Mass., and Right Fielder Mickey Hannon of Howard Beach, L. I.

Frank Fox, former Seton Hall track star, is handling the track coaching spot while Seton Hall's coach, Johnny Gibson, is in Germany, helping run an Army track clinic. Fox is doing double duty, for he also coaches the Seton Hall Prep cindermen.

LeRoy O'Neill, New York Giant farmland, is attending Seton Hall throughout the year for the first time. The rangy receiver, who was at Muskegoe of the Western Association last year, expects to report after school finishes early next month.

LeRoy is helping coach at Carteret School, West Orange, where he has been working on a promising-looking freshman, Bill Gormeley, who is catching regularly for the West Orange private school.

Don McNally, Seton Hall University frosh coach, has been pitching batting practice both to his squad and to the varsity. An infielder in the Pirate chain, McNally may try pitching this summer. The Plainfield lad expects to report to Burlington of the Carolina League.

Six Seniors to Give Final Performance As Track Team Finishes Outdoor Season

By ED ORYER

The Pirate Tracksters lost to the Wildcats of Villanova on May 8th. Lack of depth in the field events was the main cause of disaster, although the team fared poorly in the running events also.

Bob Keegan took his specialty, the 100 yard dash, in a snappy 9.8. He was nipped at the tape, however, by Villanova's ace runner Joe Gaffney in the 220. Gaffney came back to win the 440 with Frank Bailey and Chick McCready finishing together behind him. Ray Trouve copped the half mile with a 1:58.3 effort.

Comes Into His Own

The best Pirate performance was accounted for by unheralded Chick Maute. Probably the most underrated runner on the team, the speedy Sophomore took a close second in the high hurdles in his first try at that event. He came back later to win the broad jump with a leap slightly over 21 feet and took a third in the high jump. Maute was not counted on to score in the latter two events but made up for the slack left by disappointing performances by other members of the team. Rain slowed down the performances and times considerably.

The only meet remaining on the schedule is the outdoor IC4A Championships at Triboro Stadium in New York on May 28th and 29th. Keegan will see action in the 100, 220 and broad jump and Trouve in the 880. Maute will also compete in the broad jump.

The IC's will be the last collegiate meet for Keegan, Dick Heine, Jack Levin, "Just" Tracy, Jim McNally and Nick Giansquinto. During his four years at Seton Hall, Keegan was one of the country's best sprinters. He never finished farther back than third in the IC4A 60 yard dash, and won it in 1953. Heine was a top middle distance runner on the Pirate team for the past two years. Levin, Tracy, McNally and Giansquinto all contributed outstanding performances on several occasions during their stay at Seton Hall.

Top performances this past season to date are: 60 yard dash—Keegan, 6.3; 100 yard—Keegan, 9.6; 440—Trouve, 49.4 (in relay); 880—Trouve, 1:56.7 (in relay).

Seton's Sport Stars

By JIM KISSANE

Justin Tracey

Another senior who departs in June is Justin Tracey, a 6'2" Brooklynite who came to the Hall from track famed Bishop Loughlin High. Tracey, a smiling, good-natured Irishman, has occupied positions on both the one and two mile Seton relay quartets. Long-legged and smooth, striding "Just," as he's affectionately referred to by his teammates, is finishing school in 3½ years by dint of summer session. Like Keegan, he's a member of the Hall R.O.T.C. unit and will receive his commission upon graduation.

Dick Heine

Dick Heine, a South Jersey schoolboy product, turned out for the Pirate track team last year as a junior. Since joining the team, Dick has been a regular on the mile and two mile relays. He was one of the most consistent runners on the squad. He has done the quarter in 50, the 600 in 1:16.5, and the half mile in 1:56.8. The tall versatile Heine has far exceeded the highest expectations of Coach Gibson and has been at top form all year.

Seton Hall Baseball Sketches

Hank Bockrath is a 6'4", 195-pound senior from Lynbrook, L. I. Hank played four years of varsity basketball in addition to his baseball pitching.

Barney Kuniert, a 20-year-old Warwick, N. Y., senior, stands 6'1" and weighs 190 pounds. The stylish southpaw has won all three games he started last year, and compiled an 0.36 ERA. Poorly supported this year, he hurled better than the record indicates.

Phil Walker, diminutive righthanded pitcher, is a 22-year-old senior from South Orange. The 5'11" fastballer had an 0.81 ERA last year, in posting a 3-1 mark. He was the portside ace of the mound corps again this year.

Bill Nolan, senior co-captain of this year's baseball team, is a 6'0", 21-year-old who is rightly all the way. A flashy second sacker, he, too, is from South Orange.

Dennis Tallagnon, 5'10", 21-year-old senior was a regular outfielder this year. The Seton Hall Prep graduate resides in Irvington.

The Tennis Twins (Spalding-made) are unmatched in their record in top tournament play. And here is the clinching proof: The Wright & Ditson is the only official tennis ball used in all U.S.L.T.A. National Championships (since 1887). Official, too, in all U.S. Davis Cup Matches. Official adoptions of its twin, the Spalding, in other leading tournaments assure their championship stature in American tennis. Place the championship twins to your own advantage.

First Annual Golf Tournament To Be Held at Suburban Country Club

Through the fine cooperation of Msgr. McNulty and Father Freley, a Seton Hall Golf Day is scheduled for May 27th at The Suburban Country Club in Union, N. J.

This tournament will be open to any undergraduate, alumni or faculty member of Seton Hall University. The purpose of this tournament is to foster school spirit among all branches of our school's structure. Following the tournament, a dinner will be held at the club.

Everyone will have a chance to win the net division of the competition. This is due to the fact that handicaps will be determined by a blind nine-hole system. This is a proven, enjoyable method and gives anyone who can combine skill and luck an opportunity to win the award. The award is to be a watch, donated by Seton Hall University.

There will be a trophy for the low gross award. This award is being donated by Mr. Bud Geoghegan, Seton Hall's golf coach. There will also be other gifts for runner-ups in the respective divisions. Awards will be given for the longest tee shot, closest to the pin, and other such divisions to be determined at a later date. All these awards are being donated by friends and members of Seton Hall University.

This is your tournament. Let's get that school spirit up and get out and win those awards. We don't want the alumni and faculty running off with them. The affair is scheduled on a holiday and should not conflict with any school activity. Subscriptions are ten dollars ($10) for golf and dinner.

Marian Year Tours Set

More than 200 students from colleges throughout the country have placed reservations on this summer's NFOCS Marian Year European Tours. Designed to meet the needs of the traveler, without the excesses associated with more elaborate programs, the rates for the four tours range from $895 to $927.

Particulars can be obtained from Harry Largey, campus travel chairman, or from the Catholic Youth Travel Office, 381 Fourth Avenue, New York 16, N. Y.
