Minutes of the Meeting of the New Jersey Catholic Historical Records Commission
Tuesday, November 23, 1976.

The meeting came to order at 2:00 P.M. Bishop Dougherty announced the sudden illness of Sr. Regina, O.P.

1. Letters were received from:
   a. Professor Richard P. McCormick regretting his inability to accept the Commission's invitation to membership;

   b. The New Jersey Bicentennial Celebration Commission regretting its inability to support the Commission because of exhaustion
      of its budget;

   c. The New Jersey Historical Commission expressing its sympathy on the death of Msgr. Thomas G. Pahy.

2. Extensive discussion ensued of the proposed list of consultants, and decision was postponed until the next meeting.

3. The Commission then discussed the draft Memorandum of Understanding.
   After discussion, the Director was commissioned to revise the document, and to obtain the services of Mr. Thomas Gassert to pass upon its legal implications.

4. The next meeting of the Commission will take place on Tuesday, January 18, 1976 at 2:00 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
