Predict That England Will Return to Faith

LONDON (NC) — England is "quickly and surprisingly" returning to the Catholic Faith, Archbishop Francis Hoffman of Birmingham declared here. He told the Guild of Our Lady of Ransom, a home for homesick souls, that the number of converts is increasing daily and that he expects to see a return of the Catholic Faith in England similar to what has happened in Ireland and Portugal.

Mr. Hoffman, who is also the bishop of Birmingham, said that although there are still many English Catholics, it is not a majority. He stated that he is not sure whether there is a majority of English Catholics, but he believes that the number of English Catholics is growing daily. Mixed Weddings

Court Voids Pact On Child's Religion

CLEVELAND (NC) — Agreements between the parents in a mixed marriage that their children will be raised as Catholics are "void and unenforceable," the Ohio Court of Appeals ruled today.

The court ruled that a 1940 agreement between the parents of a child that the child would be raised as a Catholic was not binding. The court said that the agreement was not a contract and therefore not enforceable.

In the absence of a binding agreement, the court held that the religious training and rearing of the child would be determined by the parents on an as-needed basis.

To Dad (Pop, Papa)

Call him what you will, our candidates for all the honors must be this, the son of the father. He is, in short, the child we naturally enjoy ourselves we grant "to the child that has no father." He has had a mighty tough job as family parent. There is a lot that can be tough in a job of this kind when the father has just been made to feel that he has no family. His family has faded from the back yard and the living room. As the son we feel that he has dropped the lot and the responsibility. We might well remember this Father's Day to the honor of these patriarchs.

The book "The Blessing" by Margaret Sanger is a memoir that offers a glimpse into the life of this influential leader in the birth control movement. It provides insights into the challenges she faced and the progress she made in her work.

To Dad (Pop, Papa)

Call him what you will, our candidates for all the honors must be this, the son of the father. He is, in short, the child we naturally enjoy ourselves we grant "to the child that has no father." He has had a mighty tough job as family parent. There is a lot that can be tough in a job of this kind when the father has just been made to feel that he has no family. His family has faded from the back yard and the living room. As the son we feel that he has dropped the lot and the responsibility. We might well remember this Father's Day to the honor of these patriarchs.

How to Save For Missions

By Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, S.T.D., L.L.D. Loaves and fishes, the chief symbols of the Daily Mass, were used by the early Church as a means of collecting money to maintain its missionaries. Each day the community—local parishes as well as the new Church itself—was to contribute a small sum in order that its missioners might be adequately supported.

Saints of the Week

Sunday, June 5.—St. Vitus and Companions, the patron saints of patients, who are among the 12 apostles of the Church. The repetition of the name Vitus is likewise the name of Our Lady, which is interpreted as "virgo utrisque sex," the Virgin of both sexes.

Monday, June 6.—St. John Fabricius, Virgin. The name John is repeated by the Holy Ghost in the message of Our Lady of Fatima, in the message of the Annunciation, and in the title of the Church of the Holy Ghost.

Tuesday, June 7.—St. Theodora, Theodora was the mother of Theodora, the first Christian queen of Byzantium.

Wednesday, June 8.—St. Francis, Francis was the founder of the Franciscan order, and was the first of the Franciscans to be canonized.

Thursday, June 9.—St. Mauritius, Mauritius was the first bishop of Rome, and was the first of the bishops of Rome to be canonized.

Friday, June 10.—St. Martha, Martha was the sister of Mary and Lazarus, and was the first of the sisters to be canonized.

Saturday, June 11.—St. John the Baptist, John the Baptist was the first of the apostles to be canonized.

Sunday, June 12.—St. John the Divine, John the Divine was the second of the apostles to be canonized.

Extreme Uction—What Does It Do?

Three questions and answers are taken from Lesson 34 of the "Apostles' Creed":

What is extreme unction? It is the last sacrament of the sick, and is administered by a priest. It is called extreme unction because it is the last sacrament that a person can receive before dying.

Why is extreme unction administered? Extreme unction is administered to the sick who are about to die, in order to prepare them for the moment of death.

What are the effects of extreme unction? Extreme unction is a means of spiritual purification, and is intended to prepare the sick for the spiritual life after death.

No Place for Nationalism in Missionary Endeavor

To be Catholic means to be universal, and, therefore, missionary. The center of the Church's mission is the proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus, the Good News of salvation, in the person and name of Jesus, to all peoples and all nations, from every corner of the globe. The Church's mission is rooted in the Incarnation of Christ and his physical presence in the Eucharist. The Church's mission is also the renewal of the world and the salvation of all people, including the conversion of non-Catholics to the Christian faith.

Oblatory

It is too easy for us to forget that we are brothers and sisters in Christ, that we are all members of one body, the Church. Too often, we allow our differences to divide us rather than bring us together. For the Oblatory of the Propagation of the Faith, we pray that our brothers and sisters in Christ may be united in faith and love, that they may work together for the glory of God and the salvation of souls.

Priest Mistakes

Serve for Rabbis

One Sunday not long ago Rev. Albert Exley, of the Episcopal Church, offered a sermon in which he criticized the Jewish community for its failure to address the needs of the poor. He said, "We must demand justice for the poor."

I'm a little bit envious of Europe. "I have at least heard of the Pope," I said. "In the United States, the Pope is a newspaper story."

Monstrances Used

During June, millions of the faithful visited the basilica and many were seen praying in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. The visitation of the Eucharist is a powerful reminder of the presence of Christ in the Church and the importance of adoration.

We Should All Be Like Europeans

The Holy See has announced that it is considering the possibility of granting the title of "Ecclesial Community" to certain communities of religious and lay people who are engaged in missionary work. This is a significant step in the process of recognizing the importance of the missionary work of all people, including non-Catholics.

Missionary Needs

Travel Expenses

Missionary travel expenses are a significant expense for the Church. We pray that God will provide the means to support missionary work and that all who are engaged in missionary work may be supported.

"BART, BART, why don't you come?" The question came from a woman, who had been standing at the window for a long time, in a bit of a tirade. "Why don't you, BART, come and get me? I'm ready to die, BART; I'm ready to die now!"

But no answer came from the object of her importunities, for the doors of the church were closed and no one could come in or go out. And so she waited until at last a young man knocked at the door and opened it. He was a young man who had been standing at her side for some time, and he had noticed that she was getting more and more agitated, and that her eyes were fixed upon him. He had thought that she was perhaps a man, and now he found out that he was mistaken. She was a woman, and a very old woman, but she was not physically ill. She was simply mentally ill, and she had come to the church to seek for help.

She had no idea of what it was that she was seeking, but she had decided that she must seek it somewhere, and she had chosen the church because she knew that it was a place where people went to pray. She had heard that the church was a place where people went to pray, and she had decided to try it because she had no other place to go.
