Chinese Reds Free Last 2 U.S. Priests

KONG (AP) — The last two U.S. priests jailed in Red China have been released. The Rev. Cyril Woggon, O.F.M., of Pittsburgh and Rev. Joseph McCormack, Min. of Oakland, Calif., were arrested and imprisoned for the Chinese communist regime in June, 1955, charged with subversion and espionage.

Both were arrested and imprisoned for the same charge against two other priests of the Holy See and the Vatican City. They were the latest in a series of priests and clergy who have been arrested and imprisoned by the Chinese regime.

Father Woggon, 43, was sent from the Chinese embassy to Hong Kong aboard a British ship after being freed by Red China.

In a separate story, the Vatican said that the remaining two priests had been released.

Father McCormack, 53, who was also serving as resident superior of the Sacred Heart Mission in China, was released from prison on June 15 in a surprise move by the Chinese government.

Early this year, McCormack had been sentenced to ten years in prison for espionage and subversion.

Assembly Passes Sunday Closing Law

TRENTON — The New Jersey legislature passed a Sunday closing bill June 18, and it is up to Governor LeFevre to sign it.

The bill specifically authorizes sale of such items as clothing, and other wearing apparel, furniture, home furnishings, household appliances and utensils, and other personal property.

Assembly members passed the bill in a cloture session.

As presently written, the bill would have to be passed by both houses to become a law. The bill was introduced by Assemblyman John Sheehan Jr., (D-Atlantic), who said it was needed to prevent certain abuses.

The bill was introduced after a number of complaints were received by the legislature.

As presently written, the Sunday closing bill would become effective on Sept. 1.

Vatican Official Urges Public Be Educated on Good Films

PARIS (NC) — The education of public opinion is a necessary part of preparing wholesome and artistic motion pictures, Pope John XXIII's special representative to the General Assembly of the International Catholic Film Office meeting here.

"We must educate the public opinion," he said, "so that it is not on its face and so that it is not to be confused with the existent conditions in the current world."

The Vatican official said that this is a question which demands interest from the public opinion. "We must not understand the public opinion," he said, "in the light of its present development."

The purpose of this article is to prolong the work of public opinion, the Vatican official said, and to extend it to the general audience. "If we do not do this," he said, "we shall not educate the public opinion, because it is in the light of the present development that it is formed."

The article also contains a picture of a film which has been shown to the public opinion. "We must not understand this," he said, "in the light of its present development."

Holy Father Praises Military Pilgrimage

LOURDES, France — A message was received here from Pope John XXIII calling "an magnificent sight of Christian fraternity" an International Military Pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes in which 40,000 soldiers and officers took part. A large number of the service personnel were from the United States.

The message was received in an open-air Mass at 7 a.m. in France.

"What hope has given rise to this magnificent Mass of thousands of the World's soldiers," said Pope John in his message, "is the realization that we cannot be saved from our own spiritual warfare unless we face these trials of faith and hold together in the spirit of sacrifice and follow the lead of our kings and serve them as is good. If your hearts are peaceful, this legislation at Lourdes will become a noble symbol of love, guidance, and service, a symbol of effective service."

of 50,000 Attend San Juan Fiesta
Held in New York on Sunday

NEW YORK--The San Juan Parish Feast attracted over 50,000 visitors to St. Augustine Parish Grounds at Orchard Beach Sunday. The annual feast is sponsored by the San Juan Parish and benefits the St. Augustine Parish.

The highlight of the day was the traditional "pique" (a large pie) baked and delivered to the parishioners as a gift. The pie was followed by a speech by Msgr. Robert D. Brady, pastor of the parish. The Rev. Father John J. O'Callaghan, assistant pastor, also spoke at the event.

Among the crowd were Mayor Donald P. Wood, City Commissioner of Public Information, and Mrs. S. A. Wood, who was honored with a "thank-you" card from the parish.

The day was filled with fun and games, including a "Pique" race, in which the pie was carried on the back of a horse. The race was won by the parishioners, who received a large trophy.

The guests were treated to a variety of food, including the traditional "pique" pie, which was served with a generous amount of whipped cream. The day ended with a fireworks display, which was enjoyed by the large crowd.

The San Juan Parish Feast is a tradition that dates back to the early days of the parish. It is a time for the community to come together and enjoy each other's company.

The next San Juan Parish Feast is scheduled for Sunday, June 18. The day will feature a "Pique" race, speeches by parishioners, and a variety of food and games.

ANNOUNCING...
A Bomb Is a Bomb

So long as there can be such a thing as a fast way to kill, a man can expect to find new weapons and not merely from the factory of military engineers. Any man who knows what a world has been struggling with just this road may feel that a new bomb is bound to proceed as inevitably as an instant death, unless society has the common sense to make its laws in the only way we know how to avoid war.

The issue of nuclear and molecular weapons is too big for the casual listener, as the entire issue is too big for the casual way of thinking about it. As a result, the new bomb is a very serious thing which will require all our brains as it proceeds upon the target. But the importance of the testimony before the committee that the bomb will be used must be considered when such a thing is presented, and if the bomb happens to be dropped on an open city and the other open cities around the planet are also destroyed, then the problem is presented.

It may be that a bomb must be dropped on a city, but it may be that even one bomb must be dropped before the world understands the danger of a single bomb. This is why the bomb is so serious, that it is a very serious thing which requires all our brains.

Educational Generosity

Very recently the Knights of Columbus in the state of New Jersey granted the magnificent sum of $1,000,000 to the State College of Education, a $1,000,000 grant that is the most generous recognition that the Catholic Church has received from any organization in any country. The Knights of Columbus, according to the Benedictine, is accepting the invitation of the State College of Education, and it is absolutely clear that the state and the Catholic Church understand the importance of education.

Red Plans for France

By Louis Francis Budens

Defeat for de Gaulle and the Vichy government is the hope and expectation of communists and socialists. They know and they fear that the new government which has come into power is not a government of the working class, but a government of the wealthy and the rich. They see de Gaulle as a man who is going to go on in his own way, and they worry that he may be the only chance to bring about a real change in the French government.

The French government that has come into power is controlled by the wealthy and the rich. They are the ones who have been able to control the government for so long. The new government must be challenged by the working class, and by the people who are tired of being controlled by the wealthy and the rich. The people must demand a government that is controlled by the working class, and that is not controlled by the wealthy and the rich.

The new government must be challenged by the people who are tired of being controlled by the wealthy and the rich. The people must demand a government that is controlled by the working class, and that is not controlled by the wealthy and the rich.

Murray in the Hearts

In Catholic History we distinguish between saints who were canonized in years past and are considered to have been saints, and saints who are in heaven and are considered to be saints. The latter are known as the sainthood of similarity, and they are considered to have been saints because of their virtues and their examples.

In this case, we have a martyr who is considered to be a saint, and who is known as Murray. Murray is considered to be a saint because of his virtues and his examples. He is known as Murray because of his virtues and his examples.

Amsterdam ‘Silent March’ in Night Marks Miracle of the 14th Century

By Floyd Anderson

AMSTERDAM — The heart of Catholic Amsterdam is one of many stunning things to see in this city of quaint houses and beautiful canals. There you can stand in the shadow of the 17th-century Saint Nicholas Church with a view of the town's famous canal. But the church is not in Amsterdam. It is in the heart of the town, 20 miles from the center of the city. That is the location of the church of Our Lady of the Assumption, which is the heart of the town of Amsterdam.

The church where the march took place is called the "Silent March". It is a circle of houses with only two narrow streets, separated by a little square or square.

Segregated Housing

Father LaFarge Raps New Jersey Project

NEW YORK (NNS) — Plans to build a segregated housing complex with the support of the Catholic Church were attacked here by a prominent Jesuit editor who called the project "indefensible and disgraceful." Father John LaFarge, S.J., president of the Jesuit editors group, said the policy made its first appearance "in the Federation of Homeowners in the city" and that the church group's "proposals are not consistent with the teachings of the Catholic Church." He added that the church's "involvement with the sort of activities being organized is not consistent with the teachings of the Catholic Church in any community.
