

Seton Hall University

eRepository @ Seton Hall

---

The Bridge: A Yearbook of Judaeo-Christian
Studies, Vol. I

The Institute of Judaeo-Christian Studies

---

1955

Contributors

John M. Oesterreicher

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarship.shu.edu/jcs-bridge-I>

---

CONTRIBUTORS

Father Barnabas M. Ahern, C.P., who holds a Licentiate in Sacred Scripture from the Biblical Commission in Rome, teaches at the Passionist Seminary in Chicago. Presently he is at work on a new translation of the Pauline epistles for the Confraternity version of the Bible.

Father J. Edgar Bruns, S.T.D., S.S.L., having studied at the Gregorian University and the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome, is now an assistant at Old St. Peter's in New York City.

Dom B. Christopher Butler, O.S.B., Abbot of Downside Abbey, England, is the author of The Originality of St. Matthew and of The Church and Infallibility. Many of his theological studies have appeared in The Downside Review.

The late Father Pierre Charles, S.J., was the first to hold the chair of missiology at the Gregorian University. At the time of his death in 1954 he was Dean of the Faculty of Theology at Eegenhoven College, University of Louvain, where he taught dogmatic theology and missiology.

Dom Hilaire Duesberg, O.S.B., monk of Maredsous Abbey in Belgium and professor at the University of Fribourg in Switzerland, is the author of Les Scribes inspirés and Les Valeurs chrétiennes de l'Ancien Testament.

Father Edward H. Flannery, who studied theology in Paris, is Assistant Editor of the Providence Visitor, of the diocese of Providence, Rhode Island. Recently he translated Jacques Maritain's Essay on Christian Philosophy.

Father Bertram Hessler, O.F.M., is Lector at John Duns Scotus Academy in Mönchengladbach, Germany. Dr. Hessler has written extensively on biblical theology.

Father William Keller teaches history at Seton Hall Preparatory School and University. He is engaged in writing his doctoral dissertation on Anglo-Irish politics in the late eighteenth century.

Father Richard Kugelman, C.P., S.S.L., teaches holy Scripture at the Passionist Seminary in Union City, New Jersey, and is a frequent contributor to the Catholic Biblical Quarterly.

Raïssa Maritain has published several books of poetry and other works. With Jacques Maritain she is co-author of Prayer and Intelligence. She is best known for her two autobiographical volumes, We Have Been Friends Together and Adventure in Grace.

James V. Mullaney, PH.D., is Professor of Philosophy and Chairman of the Liberal Arts Program at Manhattan College. His work has dealt particularly with problems of natural law and with Thomism in relation to contemporary philosophy.

Father William L. Rossner, S.J., PH.L., S.T.L., PH.D., has studied at St. Louis University and at Princeton, and is now Chairman of the Department of Philosophy at Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska.

Father William Granger Ryan, PH.D., is President of Seton Hill College, Greensburg, Pennsylvania. He has written on humanism and religion in Petrarch, and is known for his translation of The Golden Legend by Jacobus de Voragine.

Cornelia Jessey Süßman, M.A., has published many critical essays and several novels. Her most recent is The Treasures of Darkness. She has taught English and Creative Writing, particularly under the Adult Education Program of Riverside County, California.

Irving M. Süßman, M.A., and his wife live in the Mojave Desert. A teacher of English in the Secondary Schools of Riverside County, California, he is also a painter, as well as a writer on drama and art and the author of several short stories and one-act plays.

Father Edward A. Synan, S.T.L., L.M.S., PH.D., a graduate of the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies and the University of Toronto, wrote his doctoral thesis on Richard of Campsall, an anti-Ockhamist theologian of the fourteenth century. He is now Chairman of the Department of Philosophy at Seton Hall University.

Mother Marie Thaddea de Sion holds several degrees, her doctorate from the University of Ottawa having been won in the field of Jewish studies. She is stationed at the convent of the Congregation of Notre Dame de Sion in Saskatoon, Canada.

Barry Ulanov, PH.D., a Renaissance scholar, teaches English at Barnard College. His writings cover wide areas in comparative literature and in classical and modern music.