To Doctors, Nurses

Show Yourselves Imitators Of Christ, Says Holy Father

BRUSSELS (CNS) — Christian doctors and nurses, all those engaged in the field of health should carry on the work of healing "in the manner of Christ," according to Pope Pius XII.

In a letter announced on Nov. 29 by Father Joseph Heinrichs, S.S., pastor of the Church of the Holy Family in Brussels, the Pope emphasized the need for doctors and nurses to see their work as a "miracle of charity, love, and understanding," and to set an example of Christian living.

Pope Pius XII's letter, which was read aloud in the Church of the Holy Family, is the first time that the Pope has directly addressed the medical profession.

The Pope's comments came in response to a request by Father Heinrichs, who is also a member of the medical profession.

"The Pope is speaking directly to those who are responsible for the care of the sick," Father Heinrichs said.

"He is reminding us of our duty to offer a example of Christ's love and compassion to our patients."

The POWERFUL weapon that is the medical profession has been fighting for years to achieve the results that are being achieved in the war against tuberculosis. The result is the reduction of the death rate from tuberculosis by 50% in the last 30 years. The battle is not yet won, but the medical profession is making progress.

The battle against tuberculosis is a war that must be fought by all of us. We must all do our part to help prevent the spread of tuberculosis. This can be done by protecting ourselves from exposure to the disease, by getting regular medical check-ups, and by reporting any symptoms of tuberculosis to a doctor immediately.

In conclusion, the medical profession is making progress in the war against tuberculosis. We must all do our part to help prevent the spread of the disease and to ensure that the hard-won gains are not lost.

NEW SEAL... Sister Janus Marie, superior of Barbara Gereaux, Normandy, France, accepts the new seal for the St. Joseph's Village of the Sisters of Notre Dame in New Jersey. The seal is a symbol of the institution's commitment to providing care for the elderly and infirm.

Sister Janus Marie is succeeded by Sister Mary Rose, who has served as the superior of St. Joseph's Village for 16 years. Sister Mary Rose is succeeded by Sister Mary Anne, who has served as the superior of St. Joseph's Village for 10 years.

The new seal features a cross and the words "St. Joseph's Village." It is a symbol of the institution's commitment to providing care for the elderly and infirm.

The new seal was presented to Sister Janus Marie by the prioress of the Sisters of Notre Dame, Mother Mary Joseph, at a special ceremony held at the village.

The new seal is the result of a collaboration between the Sisters of Notre Dame and the Archdiocese of Newark. It is a symbol of the institution's commitment to providing care for the elderly and infirm.

The new seal is a reminder of the institution's commitment to providing care for the elderly and infirm.

Support N.Y. Doctor On Contraceptives

NEW YORK — Catholic organizations have risen to the defense of Dr. Morris A. Fishel, commissioner of health refused to permit a doctor to prescribe a contraceptive to a sterilized married woman.

Supporting his stand, Dr. Fishel, member of the Church of the Province of New York, the New York City Council, the New York State Medical Association, the New York Medical Society, and the National Medical Association of St. Louis and other organizations have been mentioned.

The controversy arose when Government officials refused to let a sterilized married woman have a contraceptive device. The question of sterilization and the control and the control of contraception has been a matter of heated debate.

The status of the situation is that sterilization is a matter of medical treatment and is not a matter of treatment of women.

Pier Angeli is Bernadette for October TV Drama

By William H. Moorin

The first filming of the adaptation of Blessed Bernadette's story, currently being in preparation for the NBC-TV network's October 15th program, has taken place in our area. The filming was held at the Park Regency Hotel, where the cast and crew were housed.

The cast includes Pier Angeli as Bernadette, who will be playing the role of the French girl who is believed to have seen the Virgin Mary in 1858 in Lourdes, France.

The production team, under the direction of Head Priesthood, the minister of the Sacred Heart, the art director, and the lighting and sound engineers, worked long hours to ensure the highest quality of the film. The cast was also trained in the proper pronunciation and gestures of the French language and culture.

The story of Bernadette is a true account of a young girl who was visited by the Virgin Mary at the Grotto of Massabielle in Lourdes. She was inspired by the Virgin to build a shrine to her, and in doing so, she changed the course of history for the people of Lourdes and the world.

The production team worked tirelessly to bring this story to life, using the latest technology and techniques to capture the essence of the story. The costumes were designed to be as accurate as possible, and the sets were constructed to reflect the period in which the events took place.

The filming was a success, and the cast and crew are excited to see the final product. The story of Bernadette is a powerful one, and the team is hoping that it will inspire people to see beyond the limitations of their own lives and to reach for something greater.

The film is expected to be broadcast on October 15th, and the team is looking forward to the reaction of the audience. They are confident that the story will resonate with people, and they are grateful for the opportunity to bring this story to the screen.

Cardinal Hopes for Young People's Mission

The Archdiocese of New York has announced a new mission program for young people, called "The Cardinal's Mission." The program is designed to reach young people who may be lost to the Church, and to help them find their way back to their faith.

The mission will take place in the diocese of New York, and will be led by Cardinal John Gizzi, the head of the Archdiocese. The mission's goal is to reach out to young people who may be lost to the Church, and to help them find their way back to their faith.

Cardinal Gizzi said, "We want to reach out to young people who may be lost to the Church, and to help them find their way back to their faith. We want to give them a sense of belonging, and to help them understand the purpose of their lives.

The mission will be held on the weekend of October 15th, and will be open to all young people who are interested in attending. The mission will be held at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, and will be led by Cardinal Gizzi and other priests of the Archdiocese.

The mission will include a variety of activities, including prayer, Bible study, and discussions on important issues. The mission will be a great opportunity for young people to hear the message of the Church, and to learn about their faith.

The mission is being funded by the Archdiocese, and is expected to be a great success. The Archdiocese is committed to reaching out to young people, and to helping them find their way back to their faith. The mission is an important step in this process, and the Archdiocese is looking forward to the success of the mission.
His Mother—and Ours

The Code Board is set to be constituted on this change. Such dramatized messages could be distributed through the regular media. The Board is expected to hold its first meeting and vote on the code in a few weeks.

Our Anglican bishops are expected to join the Board on its second meeting. The Bill will be reviewed by the House of Commons in the autumn, and is expected to be amended in the Lords.

The Defender has been informed that the Code Board will be chaired by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

The Defender has learned that the Bill will be introduced to Parliament in the autumn,
and that it will be debated in the Lords.

The Defender will keep you informed of this important development.

False Claims

The typical thing to do is to think of a situation that is not actually true.

A great deal of good can be done in the fight against the spread of false and misleading information.

For instance, if someone is calling someone else a false prophet, it is important to deny this claim.

In this way, we can work to destroy the false claims and build trust in the genuine person.

The Defender will be keeping an eye on this situation.

The Pope's Problems

By Bishop Fulton J. Sheen

Propaganda is today the battleground of the Church. This is because we live in an age of propagandists, this is because there are not enough propagandists in the Church to combat the propagandists outside the Church. This is because the Church is not a machine of propaganda. It knows nothing of this art.

ASSISI GIVES THE PEACE OF ST. FRANCIS

By Anna Mae Buckley

ASSISI — They couldn't even accept St. Francis from the parishioners even by building two of his six major buildings in the first quarter of this century.

And yet, in the next 25 years,
the number of parishes in the province of Assisi grew more than the number of new buildings erected during the preceding 20 years.

The Lake Wallkill and High Point parishes from St. Mary's Basilica in Newburgh last year has been retained, and a culminating achievement of the diocesan mission cause which is unparalleled in the history of the diocese.

In May St. Mary of the Assisi Parish, the center of the Christina Hill which is a unique building in the diocese due to its location between the Great River and the Hudson.

Since the death of St. Francis of Assisi, his spirit and his mysticism have been revered by the Catholic Church.

It WAS IN THE Portrayal of St. Francis by John Francis Darragh that the story of the diocesan mission cause was written.

In the first instance of the mission cause, he was asked to serve as the writer of the future history of the diocesan mission cause.

To abandon his division of diocese, to take St. Francis Provincial in the service of God in the work of the diocesan
mission cause.

In the second instance, St.
Mary of the Assisi was a parish church and not a mission,

Finally, we are in the Portiuncula,
and Christ appeared to St.
Francis — the spot now in St.
Francis that is the Holy Land.

The heart of the Basilica of St.
Francis is the square, ornamental arch that is the original church that was home to the story of St.
Francis.

Not only has the story of St.
Francis been told in the Basilica of St. Francis, but also the story of the diocesan
mission cause.

The Portiuncula, the holy land of St. Francis, is the parish church.

Almost 40 years a sport, the young man was ready to quit the game that he had played for 23 seasons. The man had been in the game for 43 years, and he had been a hero in his youth. The game had been his life, and he had given it all he had. The man, Box Eastman, had been a pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds, and he had been one of the greatest pitchers in the history of baseball.

Through the years, Box had been known for his incredible pitching skills. He had pitched for the Reds for 23 seasons, and he had been a key player in their success. He had won 237 games and had a career ERA of 2.63. Box had also pitched for the St. Louis Cardinals, and he had been a key player in their World Series wins.

Box's career had been marked by his incredible pitching. He had been a dominant pitcher, and he had been a key player in many important games. He had been a key player in the Reds' World Series wins in 1940 and 1941, and he had been a key player in the Cardinals' World Series win in 1942.

But after 43 years, Box had decided to retire. He had been a pitcher for 23 seasons, and he had been a key player in the game for many years. Inasmuch as I have been consulted recently by the parents of a small child suffering from a serious disease, I am compelled to call your attention to the need of funds for the maintenance of the clinic. The records of the clinic indicate that the number of cases admitted for treatment is increasing at an alarming rate. Divine Laws Also Govern Business, Middlemen Reminded by Holy Father

The middleman is not above the law and must be subject to the moral laws of his country, the Pope said. He must also be subject to the civil laws and the civil authority.

Honesty and Fairness

The middleman must be honest and fair in his transactions. He must not cheat or deceive anyone. He must act in good faith and with integrity.

Responsibility to Society

The middleman has a responsibility to society. He must act in a way that is beneficial to the common good. He must not exploit others or take unfair advantage of them.

Conclusion

The middleman is not above the law. He must be subject to the moral, civil, and natural laws of his country. He must act in a way that is honest, fair, and beneficial to society.

NEW YORK - Catholics went out in force on Aug. 28 to protest against the removal of the statue of Cardinal Francis J. Spellman by the archdiocese of New York. The statue was dedicated by Spellman in 1962, but the archdiocese said it was moving it to make way for a new statue of St. Francis of Assisi.

Pastor Again Offers Free Classrooms to Town

PEQUANNOCK—Once again, Rev. John H. Dittrich, pastor of Holy Spirit Church here, has offered this community the use of his church and classrooms of the parochial school.

Mr. Dittrich announced the offer this week to a representative of the Pequannock Public Library. The offer was extended to the police, fire department, and the local school system.

A similar offer was made last year, and it was accepted by the town's public school and parochial school. This year, however, the offer was not accepted by the school system.

Mr. Dittrich said he was disappointed that the offer was not accepted by the school system, but he said he would make another offer next year.

Spectacular growth, we are still the leader.
