Pope to Doctors:

Says Tranquilizers Help But Emphasizes Danger

CASTELGANDOLFO — Pope Paul VI said a group of doctors had told him tranquilizers and barbiturates centers that tranquilizing drugs are of "useless help when the problem is a breakdown of the family disciplining or so the fear of danger is removed." The Pope gave his assurance in a meeting with the doctors, and the doctors were discussing the problem of family breakdowns and possible solutions.

IN THE MEATWATER

Rev. Richard E. O'Sullivan, St. John's Cathedral, told the Doctor that tranquilizers and barbiturates were not to be used as a substitute for other medications. He said it was better to use them when there was a serious breakdown in the family and there was no other alternative.

At What Age should

The Question Box gives everyone a chance to ask a question. The Pope replied to the question, "What is the role of the Church in the education of children?"

In the City

Archbishop of New York, Msgr. John Egan, said at a press conference that the Church was committed to the education of children. "We believe that education is a vital part of the Church's mission," he said.

Priests Rush to Aid Wreck Victims

By William F. Jenkins

BAYONNE — Ten minutes after a Jersey Central Railroad northbound train crashed into a crowd of people on the road and derailed, priests and nuns were rushing to the scene to offer help.

Bishops Ask German Unity

BERLIN (AP) — The German Catholics are being asked to pray for a German united nation. The request was made by Bishop Walter Kasper, who has been visiting the Catholic Church in West Germany.

Schools Must Adapt to Modern Needs, Says Pope

CASTELGANDOLFO — Catholic schools "must affirm their value, adapt itself to the needs of forming Christian and educated citizens," the Pope said in a meeting with school administrators and teachers.

On the Inside...

How Schools in north...

Says that school administrators must be empowered to make decisions that are important for the educational process. The Pope said that school administrators should be given more power to make decisions that affect the educational process.

Fr. Bernard McKenna

Of Totowa Dies

TOWOTA — With Bishop McNulty the celebrant, the Parishioners of St. Mary's, Totowa, and other faithful assembled at the Totowa Church for the funeral of Fr. Bernard McKenna, who died in an accident on the railroad tracks.

Msgr. John Lenihan, Pastor at Summit

SUMMIT — "We are all on fire. As we ever thought about..." the words of Msgr. John Lenihan, for many years a pastor at Summit, were summed up the life of his pastor. Msgr. John Lenihan, who had been a pastor at Summit for 30 years, was buried in his home town Tuesday.

PATERSON — The schedule for formal observances and presentation of honors recently awarded Pope John XIX to the City of Paterson was announced this week by Bishop McEniry, Bishop of Prebdominantly Apostolic Catholic Church. He said the Bishop would be in the city during the week of Sept. 14 and 15 for various events.

As the tide is turning,

"The Pope is said to have other plans in mind," the Bishop said. "He has been petitioned to consider the situation in the city of Paterson and to come to an understanding with the people of the city."

Bishops Ask German Unity

BERLIN (AP) — The German Catholics are being asked to pray for a German united nation. The request was made by Bishop Walter Kasper, who has been visiting the Catholic Church in West Germany.
Pope Gives Possible Solutions To Hereditary Disease Problems

CARTELGANOLICOS (NC) — Total continence, adoption of the Oto-Relax (sclerotherapy), and abortion of affected children if possible are some of the possible solutions to the problem of hereditary diseases.

Artificial insemination, and voluntary abortion, were discussed at the Cartelganolicos meeting attended by Dr. Abraham Schwinke and his wife, Dr. G. H. Schwinke, of the University of California School of Medicine.

The meeting took place in the University Club of San Francisco, and was attended by a number of leading physicians and medical students.

At the meeting, Dr. Schwinke discussed the problem of hereditary diseases and presented some of the possible solutions to the problem.

He pointed out that the problem of hereditary diseases is a complex one, and that there are no easy solutions. He explained that the problem is not just a medical one, but also a social and ethical one.

Dr. Schwinke mentioned that one solution to the problem could be the establishment of a national registry of all people with hereditary diseases. This registry would allow doctors to keep track of the people with hereditary diseases, and to monitor the progress of the disease.

He also mentioned that another solution could be the establishment of a national program of genetic counseling. This program would help people understand their risk of having children with hereditary diseases, and would help them make informed decisions about their family planning.

Dr. Schwinke concluded his talk by emphasizing that the problem of hereditary diseases is a complex one, and that there is no easy solution. He encouraged people to be proactive and to take steps to prevent hereditary diseases.

He left the audience with a strong message: "We must all work together to prevent hereditary diseases. It is up to us to take action to protect ourselves and our loved ones."
III. Live Contemplative Life

The Actuation of the Contemplative Life in Relation to the Knowledge
And Love of Contemplation

It is dealing with the knowledge and love of the contemplative life that we wish to present: the principles of practical application of the principles of which we spoke. It is our wish to actuate to them to us, to make them our own, so that we may be able to live and practice them, and thus to lead a contemplative life.

As we observed in the first part, the contemplative life is one which is developed with the daily practice of its obligations.

The acts of the heart are best formulated with accuracy, in which it is accomplished and without which it would be very hard to understand the essential character of the contemplative one, for it is characterized by both the inner and the external life of the individual.

The most important obligations of the contemplative are those of prayer, and to achieve them we need to actuate them to ourselves.

We should be aware of the importance of the contemplative life, and to actuate it we need to understand it and to make it our own.

To actuate the contemplative life, we must first be aware of the importance of the contemplative life, and to actuate it we need to understand it and to make it our own.

The contemplative life is lived by the contemplative one, who is characterized by both the inner and the external life of the individual.

Altheism Is More Dangerous Than Atom-Bomb, Cardinal Declares

LOUISVILLE—the atom bomb cannot do as much harm as 'that being produced by the doctrine now prevailing in America.'

The Prelate of the Sacred Congregation of the Holy Office, Cardinal Spellman, declared here yesterday that 'the new device' is 'more dangerous than the bomb itself.'

Speaking at the same Congress, New York said a spiritual bomb was being produced which was as effective as a physical bomb and which was creating a spiritual void that would destroy the moral and spiritual stability of the world. He said a spiritual bomb was being produced which was as effective as a physical bomb and which was creating a spiritual void that would destroy the moral and spiritual stability of the world.

In his address, which was interrupted several times by applause from the conference, Cardinal Spellman referred to the potential for creating a spiritual void. He said the bomb's destructive power was comparable to the destruction of the universe.

"In this country, the potential for creating a spiritual void is as significant as the destructive power of the bomb," he said. "We must resist this potential, and we must do so with the same determination that we would resist the bomb itself."
Holy Angels Parish, Singac, To Celebrate 75th Year

LITTLE FALLS — Formal celebration of the 75th anniversary of the founding of Our Lady of the Holy Angels Church here, will be observed Sept. 28.

The church was dedicated Sept. 28, 1944. In recognition of this anniversary, a Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. and a general program of religious readings and music will follow. Special arrangements have been made for the sale of Mass intentions for the celebration.

The dedication Mass was offered by the newly appointed Bishop of Newark, Rev. Leo J. Auxiliary Bishop of Newark, who was appointed by the Pope in March of this year.

The Bishop was accompanied by other priests and the church was packed with people who had come from all parts of the state to witness the historic event.

Father Gallagher

Father Gallagher, who was born in New York City, was ordained a priest in 1944 and has been serving Our Lady of the Holy Angels Parish since that time.

He is a native of New York City and was educated in the diocese of New York.

CONSTRUCTION OF THE BUILDING

The cornerstone of this new church was laid on May 28, 1944, and the building was completed in August of that year.

The church is situated on a hill overlooking the city of Little Falls and is surrounded by beautiful scenery.

During the construction of the church, much care was taken to ensure that the building would be durable and serviceable for many years to come.

For the past several years, the building has been used as a parish center for various religious and social activities.

When the church was dedicated, Bishop Gallagher said: "This church is a symbol of the love and devotion of the people of Little Falls to Our Lady of the Holy Angels."

He added: "This church is a reminder of the faith and courage of the early settlers who came to this land and built a new home for themselves."
PLATE VIII, which further explains the building, is shown on page 11.

The church is the last of its kind to be built in the United States and was consecrated by Bishop McEntegart of Paterson.

The consecration was followed by a presentation of the shrine of St. Catherine of Siena and a pledge of $25,000 to the building fund.

Chinese Puzzle

The news from China and its trend of war. Among them is the conversion of a number of wounded communists, by our armed forces with bombs. Last week The Advocate published the last of its series on the liberation of Hanoi. The story of the war is not a story of what is called anti-communism, but a story of resistance to the forces of evil. The story of the war is one of the most important events in the history of man. It is a story of the struggle for freedom and peace. It is a story of the triumph of the spirit over the flesh. It is a story of the triumph of the human spirit over the forces of evil.

Who Is the Aggressor?

By Louis Francis Budens

The recent public notice of the United States Department of State concerning the situation in the United States and its neighbors, has been widely criticized by the public. The statement has been interpreted as a threat of war. The United States government has not released any information to the public about the situation.

Adhere, Ye Who Sleep

When we are asked to explain what we believe, we are often met with the question of what we believe in. We believe in the existence of God. We believe in the importance of faith and the need for prayer. We believe in the possibility of a better world. We believe in the power of love and the need for understanding. We believe in the need for education and the importance of knowledge. We believe in the need for peace and the importance of justice. We believe in the need for action and the importance of responsibility. We believe in the need for service and the importance of caring. We believe in the need for hope and the importance of courage. We believe in the need for freedom and the importance of democracy.

The Faith in Focus

By Msgr. George W. Shea, S.T.D.

Our faith is a journey. It is a journey of growth and transformation. It is a journey of discovery and exploration. It is a journey of love and care. It is a journey of hope and faith. It is a journey of prayer and worship. It is a journey of service and sacrifice. It is a journey of joy and happiness. It is a journey of peace and justice. It is a journey of unity and diversity. It is a journey of beauty and wonder. It is a journey of goodness and grace. It is a journey of caring and compassion. It is a journey of love and trust. It is a journey of wonder and awe. It is a journey of hope and faith. It is a journey of a better world.

Moral Essays

Venerable, Walter F. Cursin, Immaculate Conception Spiritual Director, Calgary, D.C. and Father of The Question Box, writes for The Advocate that "the question box" is a place where the faithful and the curious can ask questions about the moral life and the moral teachings of the Church.

New Schools Easing Crowding

By Amo Mac Buckley

BROOKLYN - New Jersey is opening schools and, in New York City, it's time to close some of them. The term is almost over, but the Brooklyn Board of Education is still making changes as it faces the realities of its borough's educational system.

The board has announced that it will close two elementary schools in Brooklyn, adding to the list of 11 schools that were closed last year. The schools being closed are St. John's School and St. Mary's School.

The decision to close these schools was made after a thorough evaluation of the district's enrollment trends and demographic changes. The board's goal is to ensure that all students have access to quality education in a safe and efficient environment.

The closures are part of a broader plan to address overcrowding in the city schools. The board has identified several other schools that may need to be closed in the future as enrollment continues to decline.

Despite the challenges, the board remains committed to providing the best possible education for all students in Brooklyn. The district has already taken steps to improve facilities and services, and is always looking for ways to better serve the community.
Back to School Contest Opens for Young Advocates: Juniors Are Asked to Draw—Seniors to Write

By Paul M. J. Barlow

Do you think you can draw a picture of our club that will make it look more attractive than it usually does? Do you know any seniors who can write an essay that will make all of us feel better about having a club? If so, bring your ideas to the club meeting on Thursday, May 19, and let us see what we can do about it.

We need the help of our club officers to make this idea successful. If you have any ideas, please bring them to the meeting.

If you are interested in helping, please contact me at 555-1234.

Saint of Brotherhood

By Mary E. Johnson

To start the new school year, we present the story of a man who has not been forgotten in our history.

His name is Martin De Vries, and he was the first priest among the Indian tribes in the United States. He lived in the 1600s, and was a friend of their chief.

He died on March 27, 1660, and was a saint.

Martin was the first

Sight of Brotherhood

By Jane Doe

Martin wanted to be a priest, but he was turned down. He then decided to become a doctor, but he was turned down again. Finally, he decided to become a missionary, and he was accepted.

He spent the rest of his life working among the Indians.

He died on the mission field, and was buried there.

His tombstone reads:

Here lies Martin De Vries,

Missionary to the Indians,

Died March 27, 1660.

The Saint of Brotherhood

By John Smith

Martin De Vries was a brave man. He risked his life to help the poor and the sick among the Indians. He was a true friend of the people.

He was a saint in the eyes of God, and a hero in the eyes of the Indians.

He is remembered by all who knew him.

Youth Speaks On Delinquency

By Jane Doe

What do you think about juvenile delinquency? Do you think that it is a serious problem? Do you think that something should be done about it?

I think that it is a serious problem. I think that something should be done about it.

We need to take action to prevent juvenile delinquency.

St. Mary's (R), Immaculate Lead Scramble for 'B' Football Honors

By Ed Grant

NEWARK - A wide-open scramble for the North Jersey Catholic "B" football championship, by the fact that the fall roster of eligible teams may not be larger, this year's Immaculate Conception, with a win over St. Joseph's, will not matter. The competition will not end with St. Mary's, the projected top team in the "B" division, may prove it with a loss to St. Joseph's.

MASSACHUSETTS - the boys will be in town Monday night, testing, playing and creating little circles about the game they are in. There will be the last minute whispers of one man, and then, indeed, I am sure that St. Joseph's will be without its title simply because there are those game.

Small Program Opens Season

The St. Mary's High School football team, under the leadership of Coach John Moore, has been chosen to open the season against the first of three matches with St. Joseph's High School.

The St. Mary's team is returned to the line-up after a year's absence due to the illness of its manager, John Moore.

Mary's will play three matches with St. Joseph's this season, the first of which is on Sept. 20.

The St. Mary's team is expected to be strong against St. Joseph's this season, and will be considered one of the top teams in the State.

St. E’s Joins in NBC-TV Physics Classroom Course

CONSENT BECKONED — The College of St. Elizabeth will cooperate with the NBC-TV stations in the Columbia Atomics "For Teachers." This fall by Dr. Harvey R. White, professor of physics at the University of California, Berkeley.

Vincent will announce five NBC-TV "For Teachers" programs scheduled for the month of September. Teachers will be able to view these programs in a 30-minute period on the NBC-TV program "High School Physics," which is scheduled for September 28.

The five programs are: "An Appreciation of Scientific Method" and "Television Production Methods," two of the programs in the series "Physics for Teachers," an eight-program series scheduled this fall on the NBC Network. Additional programs in this series include "Science for Teachers," scheduled for October 26, and "Television for Teachers," scheduled for November 8.

In addition to the programs, teachers will receive a complete set of teachers' manuals, including a checkboard of the five NBC-TV "For Teachers" programs, a 25-page book of "Television for Teachers," and a 10-page bibliography of 1950-51 physics teachers' programs.

The course is designed to be a ten-week, two-credit course for teachers, and an independent study course for college, high school, and teachers' college students.

This fall, the NBC-TV "For Teachers" program will include two programs, "Science for Teachers," scheduled for October 26, and "Television for Teachers," scheduled for November 8.

At this year's convention, the physics department of the University of California, Berkeley, will again sponsor a program for teachers of physics, to be held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the American Physical Society.
