VATICAN CITY (CNS) — Pope John XXIII has issued an encyclical letter calling Catholics to pray during October for a special month dedicated to the Rosary. The blessing of the Rosary is tied to September 8, the anniversary of the Assumption of Mary.

The Pope called for the recitation of the Rosary on a special day Oct. 8, the feast of the birth of the Virgin Mary, to be observed in the liturgical calendar. The Pope said that the recitation of the Rosary is a way of communicating with Mary, the Mother of God, and a way of showing respect for her.

The Pope also called for a renewal of the practice of reciting the Rosary in public places, such as homes, schools, hospitals, and other institutions.

The Pope said that the recitation of the Rosary is a way of showing respect for Mary, the Mother of God, and a way of communicating with her. He said that the recitation of the Rosary is a way of showing love and devotion to Mary, and a way of expressing gratitude for her.

Dominicans Seek $750,000
In Infirmary, College Drive

Caldwell — Plans for the Dominican Sisters Development Fund, with a minimum goal of $750,000, were officially announced by Bishop John J. M. Harty, O.P., superior general of the Dominican Sisters of Caldwell.

The purpose of the campaign is to help defray the $2,000,000 cost of expansion, which is being undertaken at the Motherhouse of Saint Mary and Caldwell College. The planned expansion program will provide for the following: a new infirmary, new college facilities for the John XXIII Seminary. The new infirmary will be constructed next to the present medical equipment and will house 100 patients. Facilities for only 14 patients presently are available.

Catholic women's college facilities will be expanded to accommodate the college's facilities to meet the needs of the present students. The college, which opened in 1949, is looking for sufficient endowment to meet the needs of the future.

The need for the new infirmary was requested by Bishop Harty in a meeting with the diocesan priests, and the Dominican nuns, Mrs. James M. Harty, O.P., former Moderator of the Sacred Heart Parish in New York City.

United Appeals
Sunday Noted

Newark — Sept. 26 was designated "United Appeals Day," sponsored by Bishop Harty in the diocese of Newark, Irvington, West Orange, North Arlington, and North Bergen.

The purpose of the campaign is to raise funds for the purple and gold medical equipment.

To Train Laymen
Douay

The Rose City, Natural Catholic women's organization, announced that it will sponsor a two-day course in Douay this Fall for interested persons of one or more ages, with an emphasis on the young person planning to be a religious in the future.

St. Anna's Dance

The sixth annual dance of the St. Anna's Society will be held Oct. 4 at St. Anna's Lower Parish. Fr. John Lepine will act as master of ceremonies. The dance, which is sponsored by St. Anna's Lower Parish, will be held at the English College in Newark, D.C.

Accident Insurance For Blind Issued

NEWARK — The fact that blind people can now get accident insurance is as much of a sight to the sighted world as the normal sight of the blind. Rev. Richard M., Grand Prior of the Ambrose Caroli Guild for the Blind, declared this week.

Father Wilhelm, made the observation as he announced that the donor of the blind and a well-known industrialist of the city is a member of this Guild and has contributed to the funds of the Guild for the Blind.

Father Wilhelm added that the Guild for the Blind is more than the exclusive concern of the blind people. It has been the wish of Father Wilhelm to see the Guild for the Blind as a whole, to be as much as possible of an asset to the community and as helpful to the sighted people as possible.

The cover of the Guild is as an insurance policy. It is designed for use by the Guild for the Blind, with the purpose of making possible the Guild's present plan to extend the sighted people. The plan is designed to help make possible the Guild's present plan to extend the sighted people.

Russians Visit Coincides
With Party's Anniversary

By Louis Francis Budesa

We, at Least, Have

The story begins the visit of the Red delegates to Philadelphia. The conclusions of the Soviet Committee for Cultural Relations, according to a report written by us, indicate that during the trip, the American and the Russian delegations did not agree on the price of goods, therefore there is no need to continue the trip.

Attention Catholic Men!
The Catholic men of the nation are faced with a challenge in their spiritual life, according to the mandate of the Three Non-Denominational Anniversaries, held at the Cardinal's residence. The Pope, speaking at the cardinal's residence, said: "We, the Catholic men of the nation, are faced with a challenge in our spiritual life." The message was received by the audience with great emotion.

Prayers in October

It was a day of prayer for the Catholic men of the nation, and the mass was celebrated in the Cathedral Basilica of St. Mary. The prayer was led by the Archbishop of Philadelphia and the President of the National Conference of Catholic Men.

Ulcers for Guardian Mary

In November, the most important event in the year is the visit of the Red delegates to Philadelphia, as mentioned in the report written by us. The report states that during the visit, the American and the Russian delegations did not agree on the price of goods, therefore there is no need to continue the trip.

In your Prayers

The Catholic men of the nation are encouraged to pray for the protection of the Virgin Mary and the Blessed Virgin. The message was received with great emotion.

Thankful For Literature

I thank you very much for publishing my request for information regarding a Catholic society.

One of the many Catholic societies that I have heard of is the Daughters of Charity. They are a religious congregation founded by St. Vincent de Paul and St. Louise de Marillac in 1870. The sisters of this congregation are active in various works of religious, charitable, and educational service in the United States and around the world.

I am interested in learning more about the Daughters of Charity and how they can help me in my efforts to promote religious education and service in my community.

Thank you again for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Salute to Dan Herr

The significance of Dan Herr's contributions to the Catholic community cannot be overstated. As a dedicated member of the St. John Paul II Newman Center, Dan has been an active participant in various activities, including volunteer work and organizing events.

Dan's commitment to fostering a welcoming and inclusive environment for Catholic students is an inspiration to all. His efforts have helped many young people find their path in life and grow in their faith.

Dan's recent illness has highlighted the importance of prayer and support for those facing challenges. We pray for a speedy and complete recovery for Dan and his family.

May God bless Dan and all those who care for him.

God Loves You

An Example To Follow

By Brian Cronin

When we think of the term "saint," we often picture someone living a life of purity and holiness. However, the concept of sainthood is broader than that, and we can often see examples of saints in our everyday lives.

One such example is St. Thérèse of Lisieux, the "Little Flower." She lived a life of simplicity and humility, but her example of faith and sacrifice continues to inspire people today.

St. Thérèse's writings and letters have become a source of comfort and guidance for many. Her simple words and actions can teach us much about how to live a life that is truly devoted to God.

May we all strive to live our lives as an example to others, just as St. Thérèse did.

Sincerely,

Here Comes a Week of Great Saints and Good Example
By June Dewey
This week is a week for great saints. This week is a week for England known as the "Greatest Week," known as "the week of the saints." We remember St. Gala, St. Francis of Assisi, and St. Mary Magdalene. It is a week we reserve for ourAnnotation: The image contains a page from a newspaper article titled "Here Comes a Week of Great Saints and Good Example." The article discusses the celebration of saints' days and mentions St. Gala, St. Francis of Assisi, and St. Mary Magdalene as significant saints to be remembered. The page also contains various advertisements and notices, including details about Saint Elizabeth's College, College of Saint Elizabeth, and the Advocate newspaper. The text is a mixture of formal and informal language, with some sections discussing the importance of certain saints and others listing events or notices. The page is a typical example of a local newspaper from 1949, featuring local news and advertisements. The layout includes a mix of paragraphs, lists, and notice-style text, adhering to the format of the time. The page is a snapshot of the daily life and events in the community during that era.
North Jersey women are adding a new touch of glamour to Keeping It Simple for Washington Day with their Rosary Bouquet, which is being designed for the Jubilarians of the Archdiocese of Newark. The bouquet was designed by Mrs. James C. Burchett in Philadelphia.

The design features a beautiful arrangement of red and yellow flowers, symbolizing the life-giving and sacrificial nature of the Eucharist. The bouquet is to be used during the rosary preceding the Mass of the Rosary at the Cathedral Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Newark. The event is part of the Archdiocese's celebration of the Year of the Rosary, which aims to promote contemplative prayer and the union of the faithful.

The Rosary Bouquet is expected to be an important part of the Mass, with many women participating. The event is open to the public, and all are encouraged to join in this act of faith and devotion.
Pope Pius Rates Slight Favorite In Wide Open Tri-County Race

By Ed Grant

PASSAIC — With one week to play behind it, the Tri-County Catholic "A" Conference seems sure to come up with a hot new race in the first football game of the season for this crown, but at least three other teams — St. Cecilia's, Bergen and Don Bosco — can make a run at the title, according to John F. Burke, the President of the Catholic Conference.

Burke pointed out that all three teams will be facing each other at some point this season and that the conference is always competitive. He also said that St. Cecilia's, Bergen and Don Bosco have shown strong play in the past and should be considered strong candidates for the championship.

St. Peter's - St. Joseph's Game Tops Bill, Delbarton, St. Benedict's, DePaul to Bow

The Pius dining room was jammed with fans of the Catholic Conference on Saturday afternoon as the St. Peter's - St. Joseph's game was played.

But the biggest news of the day was the announcement that St. Peter's will be playing against DePaul, St. Benedict's and Delbarton in the second week of the season.

The Catholic Conference, which is made up of five teams, has been playing against each other for the past 15 years. The conference was formed to give Catholic schools an opportunity to compete against each other and to help promote Catholic education.

The conference has been growing in popularity over the years and is now considered one of the top football conferences in the country. It is known for its tough competition and its high level of play.

Knights, Cadets
Score Victories

The Cadets and the Knights had another impressive victory over the Bearcats this time around when the Cadets went on to win by a scoring difference of 15 points. The game was tightly contested in the early stages, but the Cadets' experience and skill proved too much for the Bearcats. The team's defense was solid, limiting the Bearcats to only 30 points. The Cadets' offense, led by Billy Brown and John Carter, scored 45 points, with Carter hitting a buzzer-beater at the end to secure the win. The team is now in a strong position to make a run for the championship.

To Note Anniversary Of Pope’s Coronation

VATICAN CITY (CNS)—The first anniversary of the elevation and coronation of Pope John XXIII will be commemorated both in Rome and throughout the world with special prayers, ceremonies and public observations.

On the anniversary of the Popes election, Oct. 28, there will be a special Mass in which parts of the Divine Office are recited in the morning and evening. The Mass will be celebrated in the Basilica of St. Peter. Bishop and priests of the Diocese of Rome will assist the Pope in the celebration.

While there are no special observances, the Pope’s instructions to the clergy have been followed in the Catholic Church throughout the world. In the United States, the Pope’s message has been read in the pulpits of the churches.

Pope John XXIII IN HIS FIRST ADDRESS AS PONTIFF AT THE FIRST GENERAL CONGREGATION—anted the Foundation of the Jubilee Year of the Faith. The Pope said he had received the whole Christian world for his anniversary and had asked for prayers and assistance from all parts of the earth. … "Why we chose Preackness Valley Estates..."

Bob Copeland tells how he picked the second home for his wife and himself.

"After living in a small cape end in Locust for many years, we just realized we were not getting along with what we owned in our second home. And after doing a lot of looking, we chose one at Preackness Valley Estates. "One of the things we were looking for was a bigger house. We particularly liked the big planing room and the formal dining room because with five kids you need lots of indoor space for bad weather. "In our old home, we really missed having a dining room and we liked a split one at Preackness Valley Estates. And also the kitchen is a dream come true for us. For our kids, living at Preackness Valley Estates means walking is school instead of taking the bus and that's a big factor. Shopping and the movies are all nearby, but, perhaps most important, was the idea of the house near the kitchen. No more running back and forth to the kitchen!"
