Archbishop Boland Pleads For Mission Contributions

NEWARK — Noting that the lady has a role to play in the Church, Bishop Boland has called for generous support of the annual mission campaign. The campaign will begin Oct. 18 at all churches on Mission Sunday. A special collection for the mission will be made at each Mass.

The plan is to raise $250,000 in New Jersey. The goal is $1,500,000 nationally for the Catholic Bishops' Committee for World Missions. The money will be used to support the work of priests, religious, and laymen who are competent to carry the message of Christianity to the world in whatever language or culture he or she may need. Until March 18, 1960, the collection will be made at all Masses in New Jersey. The money will be sent to the national office of the Catholic Bishops' Committee for World Missions in the Vatican City. According to Our Means

Oct. 12 will be the Founding Day of Christ and we have designated it as a day of family prayer. Father will address to all with spiritual and financial reflection. We need help ministries build and maintain churches, hospitals, hospitals, and other institutions. We need help help and to build The Center of Christ. You can support these efforts on your own.

Both in life and in the work of God, the Father has a special role. He is the leader. He is the one who brings the work to life and to the world. He is the one who brings the work to life and to the world. He is the one who brings the work to life and to the world. He is the one who brings the work to life and to the world.

The work that needs to be done is what the Father is calling us to. It is the work of God. It is the work of God. It is the work of God. It is the work of God.

Some Thoughts on Giving

It's God that sends us. We are given what we need. We are given what we need. We are given what we need. We are given what we need.

The old college door to the hearts of all. The old college door to the hearts of all. The old college door to the hearts of all. The old college door to the hearts of all.

Who's to Blame?

The problem is because of the difference in the world. It is because of the difference in the world. It is because of the difference in the world. It is because of the difference in the world.

Offerings of the Faithful Help Work on the Missions

In the early Church the faithful brought their gifts in order to be able to provide relief for the needy and to make it possible for the Church to meet its expenses. We find this same spirit of giving developing in the Church today. This year our Diocese will be collecting for its Missions, and there will be a collection plate in all parishes. We are encouraged to share the spiritual riches of the Church and to help the Church with its mission work.

WASHINGTON—Church mission societies, especially in refugee and war-ravaged areas, urged here that Protestant missions be profitably employed. The session of the Protestant World Mission Congress on Monday drew much attention. The session was held at the National Press Club.

SPAINISH MADONNA: For 11 centuries Spanish artists have been creating this image of the Madonna. One of the most recent renderings is that of the famous Shrine of Our Lady of Montserrat, near Barcelona. This shrine is known throughout the world as the site of the appearance of the “Black Madonna.” The story of how this image was miraculously discovered among the rocks of Montserrat in the north of Spain is a testimony to the power of faith and devotion. In the twelfth century, as the story goes, an artist was at work on a statue of the Virgin when he suddenly looked up and saw the image of the Madonna mirrored in the rocks below. The artist was so moved that he carved the image into the rock, and a shrine was built there to honor the image. The shrine became a center of pilgrimage, and the image of the Madonna has been a source of comfort and inspiration to many people throughout the centuries. The image is still revered today, and it is said to have a special power of protection and guidance. It is a testament to the enduring spiritual values of the Catholic Church and to the power of faith and devotion to inspire and uplift humanity.

Can a Gets New Name on 10th Birthday in Newark

By Anne Mac Buley

NEWARK — "We know our marriage was a miracle on the day we opened, we opened in 1958. In 10 years, it has opened in 10 years."

That is the way one couple, Joseph and Sarah, chairman of the Board of Directors, of the organization that has come to be known as the Family Life Association, feel. The marriage has been "miraculous" and "amazing," they say.

The organization was founded in 1958 by the late Bishop James J. Johnson, who was then director of the Diocese of Newark. It was established as a place to hold family life programs and to provide a place for families to come together.

The organization has since grown to become one of the largest in the country, with over 100,000 members.

A new name will be announced in the next few weeks.

The name change will reflect the organization's growth and its commitment to providing services to families of all sizes and backgrounds.

The organization's mission is to provide education and support to families, helping them to build strong, healthy relationships and to create a community where all families feel welcome and supported.

The organization has been providing services to families for over 50 years and has seen many changes over the years.

The organization is committed to continuing to provide the best possible services to families and to staying true to its mission.

The name change will serve as a reminder of the organization's growth and commitment to the families it serves.

The organization will continue to provide the same services it has always provided, but with a new name that reflects its growth and commitment to families.

The name change will take place in the next few weeks, and the organization will be announcing the new name in the coming months.

The organization is grateful to its members and supporters for their continued support and is excited to continue to provide services to families in the future.

New Providence - In a rather unique way, Mrs. Carmen Conley of Orange, is giving a special offering to the Bishop for the poor in the form of a spaghetti supper, attended by close to 1,500 persons.

Details of the spaghetti supper were planned by the Mother Conley. Items on the menu included a Connecticut-style spaghetti sauce, breaded chicken, and a variety of other dishes. The proceeds from the supper will be used to support various charitable causes in the community.

For the ice cream, scheduled for October 31, Mrs. Conley is expecting a large turnout for the event. She has made arrangements to have several ice cream vendors on site, and, in addition, the event will be available for take-home orders. In order to purchase tickets, you can contact Mrs. Conley by phone or email.

He Scared a Saint
By Mgr. William F. Furlong
"You see, or try to see, an angel standing on the road and you nearly run into it. That is what St. John Vianney once told his parishioners to expect when they were disciplined and the Lord ordered them to be corrected."

"But if you followed the saint's advice, you would be safe. St. John Vianney was a remarkable priest who had his own unique ways of instructing the people. He was the patron of all those who are devoted to the Holy Spirit."

"If John Vianney had a message to deliver, he would send it in a方式 suitable to the message. He would tell the people to look out for angels."

"The angels would appear to them in a way that would be meaningful to them. The angels would speak to them about their sins and their weaknesses."

"This was the way that St. John Vianney would instruct the people. He would tell them to watch for angels."
