Pope Chastises Red Radio; Advises on Catholic Action

VATICAN CITY — Pope John XXIII this week spoke accessibility of a Moscow Radio broadcast which turned the mystery of Christ a "crazy tale."

He also told an audience composed chiefly of members of the women's branch of the Italian Catholic Action that it is important to "understand the gospel" even in the face of attacks from the outside world.

"If it is not that last year within the church, there is still today," he said, "a battle that we must fight to obtain the conversion of those who still do not understand this issue.

"And this battle means that all of us who believe in Jesus Christ must continue to do our utmost to bring his message to those who are still in the dark.

The Pope made his remarks in the course of his weekly address to the radio station's audience, which is a daily broadcast aimed at reaching the faithful in Moscow and other Soviet Union countries.

Although he didn't mention the Moscow station by name, he did say, "In the midst of all the confusion and controversy, we must maintain our faith in the message of Jesus Christ and continue to spread it to those who are still in doubt and in ignorance.

THE EPHORATE

The Pope's appearance in the Ephor's office, where he has been working, was his first since he was elected, as the Pope for the second time last April in St. Peter's Basilica.

While there, he is expected to meet with representatives of various religious groups to discuss the situation in the USSR.

Father P. Joseph Brannigan, a Vatican spokesperson, said the Pope's visit is "an important opportunity to strengthen the ties of friendship and understanding between the Catholic Church and the people of the USSR.

The funds will be used to support various initiatives, including scholarships, academic programs, and community outreach projects.

Raps Free World for Feasting

Those Who Have Surprised Christ

REMEMBER — Free world hunger, with its accompanying suffering and death, can be ended, and the world can be transformed into a kingdom of peace and justice.

The question is whether we, as a people, are willing to do what it takes to make this dream a reality.

The people in the developing world are asking for help, and we must listen and respond.

The world community has the resources and the will to end hunger, but we must act together to ensure that these resources are directed towards those who need them most.

Aid Proposals Snub

All Private Schools

WASHINGTON (DC) — President Eisenhower, in his address to Congress last week, proposed a $26 million increase in aid for private schools.

However, this proposal was met with resistance from many members of Congress, who argued that the money should be directed towards public schools.

The proposals for aid to private schools were also opposed by some religious groups, who argued that the money would be used to support schools that do not reflect their values.

The debate over aid to private schools is likely to continue, as Congress considers the budget for the next fiscal year.
Given Freedom by Castro, Cuban Reds Now Underlining the Government

The communist concentration may never control Cuba's destiny, but it is certainly testing its resolve as communists make the most of the situation through the latest form of the Party, Fidel Castro.

The Party has taken vital positions in the government, the army, the police, and the courts. They are using every means to plug in the media outlet to the state's socialist control. Certain communist newspapers and magazines are read by Havana's people in a state of shock, despite the fact that Fidel Castro's personal newspaper is read by Havana's people.

There is a general understanding between the Castro government's leaders and agents of the international communist organization, headed by Mao Tse-Tung. The Party is well known for its role in the naation's political and social life.

Jersey City Aroused

A bustling city with a view of its sisters' greatest splendor from its own skyline. A city of 142,500 people, divided into 28 wards. Thoroughly churching, boasting churches, synagogues, mosques, temples, shrines, and other religious institutions. People who seem to share a common bond. Hudson County Bar Association President, Albert H. Sheineman, Jr., says Jersey City is the third largest city in the state of New Jersey. Following New York and Newark, it is less than half an hour's drive from the center of the city. The metropolitan area is never quiet, yet at the same time, it's a place where people can live.

Jersey City was once a quiet city, nestled in the shadow of the Hudson River. But today, it is a bustling metropolis, home to more than 250,000 people. The city is known for its diversity, with a population that is made up of people from all over the world. It is a city of great opportunity, with a vibrant economy and a strong sense of community. It is a city where people come together to build a better future.

The State of the Union

One week ago today President Johnson delivered the State of the Union message. It was a message of hope and progress, and it spoke to the challenges that we face as a nation. The President's message was a call to action, a reminder that we must work together to build a better future for all Americans.

Unfortunately, the President's speech was met with criticism and resistance. Some saw it as too little, too late, and others were concerned about the direction in which the country was headed. But despite the challenges we face, the President's message was a powerful reminder of the importance of working together to build a better future.

The Sacred Heart of the Matter

We have learned that the Vatican has decided to canonize St. John Vianney, the famous Curé of Ars. This is a significant event, as St. John Vianney is known as the 'Curé of Ars' and is revered by millions of people around the world. His feast day is celebrated on July 10th, and he is said to have performed countless miracles during his lifetime.

West Overlooking Soviet Weaknesses

West is overlooking Soviet weaknesses. The current situation is that the Soviet Union is facing a number of challenges, including economic difficulties, political instability, and internal dissent. The United States is taking advantage of these weaknesses to strengthen its position in the world.

Scholarship Bill in Operation

Despite Bill No. 11, which became law in the State of New Jersey last year, there are still many students who are not benefiting from the scholarships. The bill was intended to provide scholarships to low-income families, but the implementation has been slow. In the current academic year, only 5% of the high school graduates who applied for scholarships were awarded them. A scholarship bill will only be effective if it is used to its full potential.

In your Prayers

Remember, dear friend, the prayers of the faithful. Your prayers are a source of comfort and strength for many. May they be heard, and may God bless you in return. Amen.

PONTIFF PAYS TRIBUTE TO BERNADETTE WHILE CLOSING LOURDES CENTENNIAL

Pope John XXIII has paid a tribute to St. Bernadette Soubirous, the French nun who first reported visions of the Virgin Mary at Lourdes, in a speech at the closing ceremony of the Lourdes Centennial.

"In the name of the Church and in the name of the whole world, I express my deep gratitude to the Blessed Virgin for the gift of St. Bernadette and for the graces that she has given to the Church through her devoted service," the Pope said.

The Papal visit to Lourdes, which began with a mass celebrated by the Pope himself, was the largest religious event ever held in the sanctuary.

The pontiff also spoke of the importance of the shrine as a place of pilgrimage for people of all faiths and races.

"Lourdes is a place where men and women of every creed and race can come together in prayer and in the search for truth and understanding," he said.

The Pope ended his remarks with a call for peace and understanding in a world that is often filled with conflict and suffering.

"Let us all work together to build a world in which the spirit of St. Bernadette prevails," he said.

The speech was delivered to a crowd of several thousand people, who listened attentively as the Pope spoke.

The Lourdes Centennial was held to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the apparitions of the Virgin Mary to St. Bernadette.

The event included masses, pilgrimages, and other religious ceremonies, as well as a procession of the relics of St. Bernadette.

The Pope's visit was the highlight of the celebration, which drew large crowds from around the world.

The pontiff was accompanied by a large delegation of cardinals and bishops, as well as by a group of young people who had been chosen to accompany him on his journey to Lourdes.

The Pope's visit to Lourdes was a significant event in the history of the Catholic Church, and it was widely reported in the news media around the world.

Outline Paterson Program for Lay Participation in the Mass

PATERNOSTER—A newfeature in the manner of attendance at Vespers and the Mass is being inaugurated in the Diocese of Paterson.

Beginning this fall, members of the laity will be permitted to participate in the celebration of Vespers and the Mass. This is an effort to involve more of the laity in the worship life of the Church, and to increase their understanding and appreciation of the liturgy.

The laity will be allowed to participate in the recitation of the Paternoster, and will be seated at the back of the Church. They will be given a program of the readings and prayers, and will be instructed in the correct manner of participation.

The new feature is being introduced in several parishes in the Diocese, and will be gradually expanded to include more parishes.

IN MEMORIAL: Work has started on the Maggie L. Nicholson Memorial Gateway on the campus of Seton Hall University, South Orange. The entrance roadway on South Orange Ave. is also being tripled in width. Rev. John P. Davis, vicar general, for business affairs, expects the dedication ceremonies to be held in April.
