Pope Orders Increased Latin America Effort

Pontiff Adds To Cardinals

VATICAN CITY — Pope John XXIII asked the archives of all religious communities to send missionaries to Latin America "in the greatest numbers possible." The request was published in the weekly "Osservatore Romano," Vatican City newspaper, which is issued in several languages.

The Pope said that the communities should "fulfill their missionary task by sending in Latin America the greatest number of religious possible." He added that the communities should also "take into consideration the needs of the local church, especially in the areas of greatest need." The Pope's request was made in the context of the Vatican's efforts to promote the spread of the Church in Latin America, where the population is growing rapidly and where the Church is facing many challenges.

The Pope's request was also in response to a recent meeting of the Pontifical Council for Latin America, which is responsible for coordinating the Church's activities in the region. The meeting, which took place in Rome, discussed the need for more missionaries to be sent to Latin America, and the Pope's request was a way of responding to that need.

The Pontifical Council for Latin America was created in 1960 by Pope John XXIII, and it is responsible for coordinating the Church's activities in the region. The council is made up of representatives from the Latin American bishops' conferences, and it is located in Rome.

The council has been active in promoting the Church's work in Latin America, and it has been responsible for many initiatives, such as the creation of the Latin American bishops' conference, which was founded in 1948.

Pope Adds to Cardinals

Clement VI, the 21st pope to be elected from the French College, was named a cardinal in the ceremony which took place in the Vatican on Thursday. The ceremony was attended by the Pope, the cardinals, and the popes of the world. The new cardinal was one of the major events of the day. The Pope said that he was pleased with the decision of the French College and that it would be an important step in the development of the Church in France.

When the Pope finished his speech, the applause was heard throughout the hall. The Pope then presented the St. Peter's Cross to the new cardinal, symbolizing his new title of cardinal. The Pope then blessed the new cardinal and the room was filled with the sound of many cheers and applause.

Cardinal Traglia Is Named Pro-Vicar General of Rome

VATICAN CITY— Cardinal Leonard Traglia, archbishop of the Diocese of Rome, was named pro-vicar general of the Holy See by Pope Paul VI in a ceremony in St. Peter's Basilica today. The 64-year-old Anselmo Traglia, whose 11th birthday will be celebrated tomorrow, has been a priest for 25 years. He was named a cardinal in 1973.

He will be the first American to hold the post of pro-vicar general for the papacy. The position is second only to that of the pope himself.

Pope Paul VI also announced that he would create 21 new cardinals from 16 nations, including the United States, Canada, and Japan.

THE REEKS declined to comment on the nature of the secret talks. The Pope also named six cardinals from the United States, including the archbishop of New York.

The Pope's action, which also came as a surprise, is the first major change in the hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church since the death of Pope John XXIII in 1963.

The new cardinals will be eligible to vote in the conclave that will elect the next pope, should one be needed. The conclave is scheduled to begin on March 5.

The Pope's action also makes it clear that he is committed to reforming the Catholic Church, which has been criticized for its conservative policies in recent years.

Pro-Communist Writer Hired for Sinatra Film

By William M. Morrow

News that Frank Sinatra has hired the outspoken pro-communist writer John Howard Griffin for his new film, "Riders to the Stars," is bound to raise eyebrows throughout Hollywood. Griffin, 39, whose real name is John Dillendorf, has been a controversial figure in the entertainment industry for years. He was previously blacklisted during the McCarthy era and has had difficulty finding work since the blacklist was lifted.

The project is a science fiction epic about a race of beings from a planet called Xandor who are forced to leave their home to seek a new world. The film is being produced by Sinatra's production company, and Griffin is expected to work on the script.

Griffin is known for his pro-communist views and has written several essays and articles advocating for the spread of communism. He was a member of the Communist Party USA for several years and has been a vocal critic of the United States government's foreign policy.

Sinatra, who is known for his conservative political views, has been a surprising choice for the film's script writer. However, he has expressed a strong interest in telling stories that challenge traditional Hollywood conventions and he may see Griffin's unique perspective as an opportunity to do so.

Griffin's appointment is likely to cause controversy among some members of the film industry, who may view his hiring as a sign of Sinatra's support for the political left. However, the film industry is known for its liberal leanings, and it is possible that Griffin's appointment will be met with little resistance from his peers.

The film is expected to be released in 2023, and it is unclear at this time whether Griffin's hiring will have any impact on the film's reception or box office success.
Bishop Walsh Has Made Red China Play His Game

By Rev. Albert Norris, M.M.

Bishop Walsh of Miami has wisely made Red China play his game.

Nineteen times in the past five years, Red China has been threatened to cut off the supply of cotton gins.

Each of these threats has been followed by a complete surrender by either the government or the people of the nation threatened.

But this time is different. Red China has threatened to cut off the supply of cotton gins to the United States.

This country, however, has refused to yield to such threats.

OUR OUR friends in Red China must be drawn into a trap.

By the time the gins are cut off, the cotton will be fully ginned and ready for shipment.

Moreover, the Red Chinese know that this country has its own sources of cotton and will continue to produce and export cotton.

But the Red Chinese also know that if they cut off the supply of cotton gins, their own economy will suffer.

So Bishop Walsh has taken a wise course.

He has made Red China play his game and has shown them that they cannot control our economy.

This is a great victory for the Church and for the country.

HOW TO REACH THE CHURCH in China

The Church in China is divided into two parts:

1. The Church in South China, which is controlled by the government.
2. The Church in North China, which is independent of the government.

The government has tried several times to control the Church in South China.

But the Church in North China has refused to yield to such threats.

So Bishop Walsh has taken a wise course.

He has made Red China play his game and has shown them that they cannot control our economy.

This is a great victory for the Church and for the country.

THEM BISHOP WALSH, an apostle of Christ, has made Red China play his game.

This is a great victory for the Church and for the country.

Helping Vocations

Every vacation program is dedicated to the preparation of vocations that will lead to the growth of the Church in the entire world. We are taught that the Church is the extension of Jesus into the world, and all of us have a responsibility to help others become members of the Church. Vocations are the means by which this is accomplished. It is our duty to assist others in their spiritual growth and to encourage them to enter the religious life. We must be willing to sacrifice our own comfort and convenience to help others find their path in life. By doing this, we are fulfilling our duty to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Why Trinity Is a Mystery To Our Lower Intellectual

By Fr. Frank S. Smith

The Trinity being the essence of the Blessed Trinity, it is evident that the dogma of the Trinity is the most essential part of the Catholic faith. The doctrine of the Trinity is the foundation of all other Catholic dogmas. Without the Trinity, there would be no Catholic Church. The Trinity is the central mystery of the Catholic faith, and it is the doctrine that separates the Catholic Church from all other denominations.

Universe on War on Clergymen

By Rev. F. R. Bixler

The universe is on war on clergymen. The clergymen are being attacked from all sides. They are being accused ofeverything from corruption to heresy. The world is trying to destroy the clergymen and the Church. This is a great test of faith for the clergymen, and they must stand firm in the face of adversity.

Mae Nee. Walter G. Murphy, 360, 40th St., Binghamton, N.Y. is editor of The Question Box. Questions may be submitted in the form of notes or letters.

Q: In the prayer "General Rosary" of the Divine Office for the day, why is there a mention of "let the day of the week be our own, and personal light shine upon our path, even the first part of the week to the last." A: The reason for the prayer is to prepare the heart for the day's work. The first part of the week is crucial because it sets the tone for the rest of the week. By focusing on the first part of the week, the person is reminded that they should be aware of their thoughts and actions throughout the entire week.

Anti-Catholic Material in Mail

Editor:

I read with interest L. S. Baker's letter in The Advocate regarding the recent closing of a Catholic chapel at Cape May, N.J., by Mr. A.H. and D. C. Banner. Should the Church in America ever reach the point where belief should be banned, I believe it would be a sad day for all concerned.

The Bible, in fact, promises that the Church will be ended. (Rev. 18:24). The example of history shows that the Church has been persecuted for its beliefs, as it is now. If the Church were ever to be abolished, I believe it would be a sad day for all concerned.

I would like to see the Church be abolished, as it is now. If the Church were ever to be abolished, I believe it would be a sad day for all concerned.

I would like to see the Church be abolished, as it is now. If the Church were ever to be abolished, I believe it would be a sad day for all concerned.

Reply to Charges On Play of Week

When I first heard my letter on my hit parade, I thought the charges were serious. However, upon further investigation, I found that the charges were unfounded.

I would like to see the Church be abolished, as it is now. If the Church were ever to be abolished, I believe it would be a sad day for all concerned.

The Community Center and the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) have both been named in the letter. These organizations are dedicated to the protection of religious freedom and the right to practice one's own religion. I believe that these organizations should be respected and admired.

I would like to see the Church be abolished, as it is now. If the Church were ever to be abolished, I believe it would be a sad day for all concerned.

Society for the Propagation of Faith

The Propagation of the Faith: A dividual task that has been the subject of many diatribes and claims. The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, however, stands as a beacon of hope for those who have lost their faith. This organization was founded by Pope Pius IX in 1842 as a response to the challenges faced by the Church in the wake of the First Vatican Council. Its mission is to support the spread of the Catholic faith and to promote the spiritual growth of its members.

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith is organized on a parish, diocesan, and national level. At the local level, parishes and dioceses have their own Propagation Committees that work to raise funds and support the missions of the Society. At the national level, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith is directed by a Board of Directors, which is made up of clergy and laity.

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith is a member of the Catholic Church and is recognized as a tax-exempt organization. Contributions to the Society are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. The Society for the Propagation of the Faith is guided by the principles of charity, service, and social justice.

Tiny Glasses, a French Lady and the Soul

By June Doey

I was a health visitor in this area for seven weeks. My work was rewarding and difficult. Some days all went well, the other days were frustrating and exhausting. On my rounds, I would often pass by a house where there were three children, ages ranging from one to six. The parents were both working and I was always happy to see the children when I visited. One day, I saw a little girl wearing a beautiful dress and carrying a small purse. She was walking along the street, holding hands with her mother. I stopped to say hello and asked her why she was not at school. She explained that she had to help her mother with the housework and buy groceries.

The next day, I returned to see if I could help the family. I offered to do some of the shopping for them and they were very grateful. The little girl was happy to have some extra time to play and her mother was relieved that she could focus on her work. This simple act of kindness made a big difference in their lives.

I realized that every small action, no matter how insignificant it may seem, can make a big difference in someone's life. As a health visitor, I was able to see firsthand how important it is to be kind and compassionate to others. It is easy to get caught up in the hustle and bustle of daily life, but taking a moment to help someone can make a lasting impact.

Vacation Notes

And in It—Nothing!

By Msgr. William F. Farlong

The vacation period brings to mind the big events in the past. The Spanish-American War of 1898 is the one memorable war of our time. It was the war that brought the United States into world politics. The war was fought between Spain and the United States. The United States won the war and gained control of the Philippines, Guam, and Puerto Rico. The war also led to the establishment of the United States Navy as a world power.

The war was fought from April 25 to August 25, and during that time, many Americans were killed or injured. The war was a turning point in American history, and it marked the beginning of the United States as a world power. The war also led to the establishment of the United States Navy as a world power.

St. John's Repeats Double In Paterson CYO Finals

WAYNE — In what was practically a repeat of the 1969 finals, St. John's (Paterson) again grabbed the boys' titles in the Paterson CYO basketball championships on Mar. 27 at DePaul High School.

Another defending champion was crowned in the inter-squad division when the Laity (Elizabethtown) defeated St. John's (Cranford) in the finals.

The intermediate girls' title was taken by a boys' team, St. John's (Cranford), who defeated the same team in the finals.

Of the 16 teams in the league, St. John's was the only team to advance to the fourth round of the playoffs.

The long and winding road to the finals was tough, but the boys' team was able to make it through the competition.

The boys' team, however, was not the only team to advance to the finals. The girls' team also advanced to the finals, where they faced the Laity (Elizabethtown) for the championship.

In the final game, St. John's (Cranford) faced the Laity (Elizabethtown) for the championship. The Laity (Elizabethtown) was able to defeat St. John's (Cranford) by a score of 31-26.

The Laity's (Elizabethtown) victory was a testament to their hard work and dedication.

The Laity (Elizabethtown) was able to bounce back from a tough loss in the semifinals and come back to win the championship.

South Africa Race Violence Evokes Fears for Future

CAPETOWN (ABC) — South African police have assumed deep grief, shock, and the gravest misgivings for this country's future following police actions against Negro demonstrators that took scores of lives and injured hundreds.

The police have handed over to the regional magistrate a report on the value of property damaged by Negro rioters, which has been estimated at $125,000. Archbishop Philip M. Simons of Waldine, South Africa, who is the pastor, told his flock that the police have in- vaded his church three times in the past week,.

GIVEN THE CHURCH — A Catholic representative told the UN Human Rights Commission that a draft charter on religious freedom which it is considering is inadequate.

Rev. Paul Rabel of the Wisconsin Conference of Catholic Charities told the commission that religions co-exist in every nation, some freedoms must be protected, and the commission's draft charter "said too little, too late." No one can "be a good Buddhist, a good Hindu, a good Moslem or a good Christian" without state intervention, he said.
