SETON HALL JOURNAL OF SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT LAW

Volume Eighteen

2008

Number One

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ARTICLES

Guilty on All Accounts: Law & Order's Impact on Public Perception of Law and Order Kimberlianne Podlas	1
Warren Spahn's Legal Legacy: The Right to Be Free From False Praise	49
LOOKING BACK TO MACKEY V. NFL TO REVIVE THE NON-STATUTORY LABOR EXEMPTION IN PROFESSIONAL SPORTS Walter T. Champion, Jr.	85
Reconciling Soccer Authorities and European Union Institutions: Who is Best Placed to Administer Governance Within the European Soccer Market?Duncan McHardy	105
COMMENTS
Asking for It: A Grokster -Based Approach to Internet Sites that Distribute Offensive Content	151
A Family Affair: Extending the Right of Publicity to Protect Celebrity ChildrenSara Kimball	181
UNDERSTANDING THE FREE SPEECH RIGHTS OF PUBLIC SCHOOL COACHESAlison E. Price	209
Concussions in the National Football League: Jani v. Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle NFL Player Ret. Plan and a Legal Analysis of the NFL's 2007 Concussion Management Guidelines Jennifer Ann Heiner	255
A CRITICAL ANALYSIS OF SPORT ORGANIZATION BANKRUPTCIES IN THE UNITED STATES AND ENGLAND: DOES BANKRUPTCY LAW EXPLAIN THE DISPARITY IN NUMBER OF CASES?	297
OFF-GUARD AND ONLINE: THE UNWITTING VIDEO STARS OF THE WEB AND THE PUBLIC DISCLOSURE TORT	339
ONLINE STREAMERS: A NO LIABILITY ISSUE Justin Talley	371