

Seton Hall Law School
CONSTITUTIONAL
LAW JOURNAL

IN THIS ISSUE
Spring 1996

ARTICLES

The Sixth Amendment Right to Shoot Oneself in the Foot:
An Assessment of the Guarantee of Self-Representation
Twenty Years After Faretta 483

"Everything Depends on How You Draw the Lines": An Alternative Interpretation of the Seventh Amendment 599

A Matter of Utility: Dworkin on Morality, Integrity, and Making Law the Best it Can Be 631

COMMENTS

The Decline of the American Labor Movement:
A Proposal for the Constitution as a Source of Workers' Rights 683

An Endorsement for the Test of General Applicability:
Smith II, Justice Scalia, and the Conflict Between Neutral Laws and the Free Exercise of Religion 713

Have Administrative Agencies Abandoned Reasonability? 763

Taxpayers of America Unite — You Have Everything to Lose:
A Constitutional Analysis of Retroactive Taxation 803

The Child Support Recovery Act of 1992: Squeezing Blood
From a Stone 845

CASENOTE

Arizona v. Evans, 115 S. Ct. 1185 (1995) 883

SURVEY

Purkett v. Elem, 115 S. Ct. 1769 (1995) (per curiam) 911

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES 917