Pope Asks Generous Response To Bishops' Relief Fund Appeal

WASHINGTON (NC) — Pope John has expressed his gratitude to the American bishops for their relief fund appeal for the victims of the recent flood disaster in the American midwest. The appeal, launched by the Archdiocese of Chicago, has already raised over $1 million, with contributions from across the country.

The Pope said, "I want to express my gratitude to the American bishops for their noble and generous efforts on behalf of those affected by the recent flood disaster in the American midwest. I urge all of us to continue to support this relief fund appeal in whatever way we can."

Pope John's message came in a letter addressed to the bishops of the United States, expressing his appreciation for their efforts to assist those in need. The letter emphasized the importance of charitable works and the need to support those who are suffering.

The letter concluded with a call to prayer, "Let us pray that the Lord will bless all those who have been affected by this disaster and that His grace may fortify the hearts of those who are working to help them. Amen."
Catholic Leaders Protest School Aid Discrimination

LOS ANGELES — President Kennedy's proposal to extend federal aid to public schools has stirred strong reaction from a group of Catholic leaders who have expressed their disapproval of the plan. In a statement here, Catholic officials declared that the proposal would be an "invasory" threat to religious freedom and that it would establish a precedent by which the federal government would be able to enforce its will on the local schools.

"It is to be hoped that all religious leaders, particularly those representing religious minorities, will protest against this proposal," the statement read. "We are convinced that, if the federal government does not have to pay for educational services at the local level, its power to control the schools will be limited."

The statement was released by the Los Angeles Archdiocese, which is the largest Catholic diocese in the country. It was signed by Cardinal William J. Murphy, the archbishop of Los Angeles, and by Bishop John J. Mitty, the bishop of San Diego.

The Catholic leaders also said that they would continue to oppose the proposal in Congress.

-- Herald Examiner

Catholic church leaders have expressed their opposition to President Kennedy's proposal to extend federal aid to public schools, saying it would be an "invasory" threat to religious freedom.

"We believe that the federal government should not have the power to control the schools," said Cardinal William J. Murphy of the Los Angeles Archdiocese. "We will continue to oppose this proposal in Congress."

Russian Barrage Aimed at Church

LONDON (REX) — Broadcasts and reports from the Soviet Union depict the Catholic Church as a lesser force compared to political and economic control in the country. The church has been portrayed as a political tool in the Soviet Union since 1917. The report states that the church is used by the state to control and suppress religious groups.

PARIS CENTERS: Groundbreaking will be held next month for this one-story parish hall for St. Joseph’s, Flateau. It will have an infirmary accommodating 50 people.

Steel Strike End Exaggerated

By Magr. George O. Higgins

DIVINITY SCHOOL—It was rumored recently that the steel workers were going on strike due to the admission of new members. The church has denied these rumors, stating that the strike is simply a labor dispute that was settled by the steel company.

Will Erect Parish Hall

ELIZABETH — Mayor Michael J. Sweeney and Mayor of St. Joseph’s Church have been given plans for the construction of a $60,000 parish hall, which will provide a space for the infirmary and the church.

Construction will begin following the presentation of the plans on the center of the church, which was attended by the mayor.

In addition to the infirmary, there will be a large hall, a meeting room, kitchen, and a sleeping area. The hall will be built on top of the infirmary, with the infirmary being built on top of a steel frame.

The mayor thanked the church for their cooperation.

Cautions Catholics Against ‘Ghetto-Like’ Aloofness

PHILADELPHIA (REX) — The Catholic Church has been called to address its aloofness in the Latino community, which has been characterized as a “ghetto-like” environment.

The bishop of Philadelphia, who is also the archbishop of the diocese, has called for a more active role of the church in the Latino community, stating that the church should be more involved in the community’s concerns.

The bishop has also called for the church to address the issue of immigration, which has been a major concern in the Latino community.

Smut Charge Holds Union City Man

JERSEY CITY — Morris Cohen of Union City has been held in Hudson County Grand Jury on a charge of possessing obscenity. He has been arrested on his shop at 421 Grove St. here on Feb. 2, in the raid, police confiscated 15 boxes of photographs.

The man said that he sold them to Morris Cohen, who was a “true artist” and who had a strong collection of his work.

The man agreed with his brother, the parish priest, that the priest would have to take part in the construction of the church, which is expected to be completed in the fall.

A CAREFULLY DEFINED finds of the Livingston record that he “will stand up for the truth.”

Chinese Water Torture

In recent centuries the Chinese were repeatedly subjected to this method of torture. A single drop of water was allowed to fall upon the man's chest. This practice was extremely cruel and caused exquisite pain.

The practice is considered one of the most primitive methods of torture known to man. It is practiced worldwide and is often inflicted on prisoners of war, political dissidents, and other enemies of the state.

Baptism Cleanses the Soul And Imparts a New Life

By Frank J. DelGuidice

We receive Christ by baptism, whether because of faith or because of reason. In either case, the soul is cleansed and a new life is imparted.

The Church teaches that all who are baptized are to be baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. This is according to the teaching of Christ himself, who said: "Whoever accepts my Father accepts me, and whoever accepts me accepts my Father, who sent me." (John 14:13)

The rite of baptism is performed by a priest, who is usually assisted by an adult sponsor. The sponsors are chosen by the parents of the child being baptized, or by the godparents if the parents are unable or unwilling to do so.

The sponsors are required to promise to be good parents, to help the child to follow the teachings of the Church, and to assist the child in his journey to heaven.

Reds' Post-Congress Campaign Prepared

By Louis F. Rabinowitz

While Red leaders rated the congress as most of its potential, they were also quick to point out that the congress had not been as successful as they had hoped.

The congress was held in Moscow, and was attended by representatives from all over the world. The main topics discussed were the need for the unity of the world Communist movement, and the importance of international cooperation.

The congress ended with the adoption of a number of resolutions, which called for greater unity among the Communist parties of the world, and for the establishment of a new international organization to promote this goal.

The resolutions were then submitted to the Communist parties of the world for ratification, and it is expected that they will be ratified in the coming months.
Book Reviews:

Labor Picture at 'Midcentury'

MINCEMENT, by John Dos Passos. Frank Moderns. Mr. Dos Passos, who is known as the author of 'Trinity' and 'The 42nd Parallel,' has written a novel which is as important as it is controversial. It is a tale of the labor movement in America, and it is written in a style that is both highly readable and highly critical.

In Mincement, the labor movement is shown to be a force for social change, a force that is capable of bringing about a better world. The novel is divided into two parts: the first is a series of vignettes, each of which depicts a different aspect of the labor movement. The second part is a narrative, in which Mr. Dos Passos tells the story of a group of workers who organize a strike in a factory.

Mr. Dos Passos's style is very effective. He uses a variety of devices to bring his story to life. He uses a variety of characters, each of whom is sympathetic to the labor movement. He uses a variety of settings, each of which is vividly described.

Mr. Dos Passos's novel is a powerful statement about the labor movement. It is a book that is sure to be read by many people, and it is a book that is sure to be debated.

Jersey Priests in Radio A Postulate

By James Doyle
PATERSON — a priest who speaks five languages and has served in three nations is preparing for a new assignment in the homeland of Brazil. I think it is the Advocate that is sending me back to the missions again," he said. Ron, John W. De Jong started his priest in the Dutch nation's missions and was assigned to Brazil for over 12 years. It was in years of the 1960s, and he was named to the post at the Vancouver, his home in the 20th.

During this time, he was studying in the United States and later in the Philippines, and was assigned to Brazil for the post of the 1970s. He is the second of seven children of John W. De Jong and his wife, the late Margaret, who is also a missioner in Brazil.

The Advocate recently spoke with Father De Jong about his upcoming assignment and the challenges he faces in Brazil.

The Advocate: Father De Jong, how are you faring in Brazil?

Father De Jong: I am doing well, thank you. I have been in Brazil for about six months now. The weather is hot and humid, but I am comfortable with it. The people are friendly and welcoming, and I have been well received by the community.

The Advocate: What challenges are you facing in Brazil?

Father De Jong: One of the biggest challenges I face is the language barrier. I speak Portuguese fluently, but I am still learning to communicate more effectively with the people in the community. I am working hard to improve my language skills and connect with the people on a deeper level.

The Advocate: What are your plans for the upcoming assignment in Brazil?

Father De Jong: My main focus will be on providing spiritual support to the community and helping them to grow in their faith. I plan to organize community events and bring people together to celebrate their faith.

The Advocate: What role do you see for priests in the community?

Father De Jong: I believe priests can play a pivotal role in the community by being an example of faith and providing guidance and support to those in need. I also believe that priests can help bridge the gap between different cultures and promote understanding and cooperation.

The Advocate: What advice would you give to young priests who are considering working in Brazil?

Father De Jong: My advice to young priests is to be open-minded and flexible. Brazil is a diverse and complex country, and it is important to be willing to learn and adapt to the local culture. I also encourage priests to be patient and persistent in their efforts to build relationships and make a difference in the community.

The Advocate: Thank you, Father De Jong. We wish you all the best in your upcoming assignment in Brazil.

Father De Jong: Thank you. I am looking forward to this new adventure and am excited to see what the future holds.
At Last We Can Say We Grew Up With Priests and Nuns

By June Dunyer

As my daughter and I watch the TV and remember them as they were - a charming pair of early twenties - we remember the stories they used to tell us about their days as nuns and priests. The stories were always interesting, but never dull. They had been happy and humbled by their experiences. It seemed as if they had learned a lot from their experiences. It was as if they had learned a lot from their experiences. It was as if they had learned a lot from their experiences.

One day, Father and Sister would sit down and talk about their experiences. They would talk about the good times and the bad times. Charity to the Missions Exceeds Other Charities

What is the key charity when you make your year? In the opinion of some, it is this one. For those who care, this answer can be given as a basis. For the love of the charity, and the love of the missions all around the world, our society is committed to helping those in need. Each and every penny counts.

To give to this charity, you may contact our fundraising department at 123-456-7890. With your support, we can make a difference in the lives of people around the world.

Oblatory

In the oblation, we have the opportunity to share our love and dedication to the mission of our church and the work of the Holy Spirit. It is a form of offering that we make in love, faith, and thanksgiving. The oblation is a way for us to express our gratitude for the many blessings we have received from the Lord.

In the oblation, we are invited to make a private prayer that asks the Lord to accept our offering and to use it for the work of the church.

In our oblation, we are asked to consider the following:
- What are the needs of the mission?
- How can we use our offerings to meet those needs?
- What is the work of the Holy Spirit in the mission?

In our oblation, we are asked to make an offering that is significant to us. This offering can be in the form of money, time, or talents.

A VACANT BARN

In a new building, the people of the village can convert it into a barn. The barn can be used for various purposes, such as storing hay, grains, and other livestock feed.

A STONY LODGE

To the people of the village, this building can serve as a lodge for the lodge. The lodge can be used for meetings, social gatherings, and other activities.

In the village, the lodge can be a place for people to come together and share in the community's wealth. The lodge can be a place for people to come together and share in the community's joy.

The village can make use of the lodge by organizing events such as dances, parties, and other social gatherings.

Latin America Asks U.S. To Send 270 Volunteers

WASHINGTON (CNS) — Latin American Church leaders have asked President-elect J. F. Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk to send 270 volunteers to Latin America.

The leaders, who are members of the Latin American Missionaries Association, asked in a letter to Kennedy and Rusk that 270 volunteers be sent to Latin America.

The leaders said that the volunteers should be sent to the countries of Latin America that are in need of assistance.

Study Scripture, Pope Urges Seminarians

Following is a translation of a prominent Italian newspaper: "Pope Paul VI, in a recent message, encouraged the young clergy to make a total commitment to the Church and society. The Pope's message was published in the Vatican's daily paper, L'Osservatore Romano, and the Italian language newspaper, La Città, which is owned by the Vatican City State. The Pope's message was also published in the English language newspaper, The Advocate, which is owned by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops."
Four Teams Vie for Honors in NJCTC Championships

By Ed Grant

NORWOOD — Four of the New Jersey Catholic Track Conference (NJCTC) teams are in position to win their respective league championships on May 4 at the New Jersey State Athletic Conference (NJ-SAC) Track Meet in New Brunswick. The eight teams of the league are: St. Francis Prep, Bergen Catholic, St. Mary's (Eliz.), and Notre Dame. These are the teams that have been most consistent throughout the season.

The meeting is set for tomorrow at a high school near the middle of the state, with the meeting site to be announced later.

St. Francis Prep’s team is the top gun of the conference, having defeated four teams this season and picked up the victory at the NJCTC championship. The team won the conference championship by three points, while Bergen Catholic was second and St. Mary’s (Eliz.) was third.
