Holy Hour to Honor Parents of Priests
In Religious Orders

NEWARK — Approximately 1,000 parents of priests in various religious orders will attend a special Holy Hour to be held at Sacred Heart Cathedral on Mar. 7 at 7:30 p.m., under the auspices of the Jersey City Council of the Oranges Union in cooperation with the Catholic Union of the Archdiocese of Newark.

The special Holy Hour will be held in the parishes of Sacred Heart, St. Peter's, St. John's, and the Church of the Assumption. The purpose of the parishes, and their proposed plan will be to bring together the parents of priests.
Poles Warned by Cardinal Of New Anti-Church Drive
BERLIN (NI) — Cardinal Wyszynski of Poland has warned that dark days lie ahead for the Church in his country.

The Cardinal spoke in a letter to the nation's priests and laity, which has been published in the Church Chronicle, calling on the faithful to be aware of the dangers that lie ahead.

In his letter, Cardinal Wyszynski said that the Church in Poland was facing a new and serious threat, with the government increasingly hostile to religious institutions.

He warned that the authorities were preparing to launch a new campaign against the Church, which would include the suppression of religious education in schools and the persecution of Catholic clergy.

The Cardinal called on all faithful to stand firm in the face of these challenges and to work together to ensure the survival of the Church and its teachings.

The letter was published the day after the government announced a new decree prohibiting the celebration of religious services in public places.

Cardinal Wyszynski said that the decree was a clear sign of the government's intention to suppress religious activity.

He called on the faithful to resist these measures and to continue to pray and work for the advancement of the Church.

The letter was signed by Cardinal Wyszynski and circulated among Catholic clergy and lay leaders throughout the country.

The Church in Poland has been under pressure from the government for many years, with the authorities resuming their campaign against the Church in the wake of the recent elections.

Although the Cardinal's letter was not made public until now, it was likely to have been circulating among Catholic leaders for some time.

The government has long been accused of suppressing religious activity, with the authorities frequently targeting Catholic clergy and religious institutions.

Cardinal Wyszynski's letter is likely to be seen as a response to these challenges and a call for unity among the faithful.

The Church in Poland has a long history of resistance to government pressure, with the faithful continuing to work for the advancement of the Church despite the challenges they face.

The letter was signed by Cardinal Wyszynski and circulated among Catholic clergy and lay leaders throughout the country.
The Archbishop's Appeal

March 9, 1941

The Archbishop's Appeal

It is with the utmost confidence that I place before you tonight the junior phase of a program that the Archbishop of Newark has called to the attention of the Catholic people. This phase of the program is one of the most important and urgent that we face today. It is a program to restore the spiritual life to our schools.

"The Church has always had a concern for the spiritual life of our children. Our schools have been a vital part of this concern. In the early days of the Church, education was a primary concern. The Church recognized the need for education, and schools were established to meet this need. In the modern world, the Church continues to be concerned with the spiritual life of our children.

"The realities of our time demand that we take action. We must ensure that our schools are places where the children can grow in their faith and understanding of the world. We must ensure that our schools are places where the children can learn to live a life of virtue and service. We must ensure that our schools are places where the children can learn to love God and their neighbors.

"We must take action now. The stakes are too high. The spiritual life of our children is in danger. We must act now to ensure that our schools remain a force for good in our society.

"In conclusion, I urge you to support this program. Let us work together to ensure that our schools are places where the children can learn to live a life of virtue and service. Let us work together to ensure that our schools are places where the children can learn to love God and their neighbors. Let us work together to ensure that our schools remain a force for good in our society.

Aid to the Homeless

To the Editor:

I am writing to you to express my concern about the current situation in the city of Newark. As you are aware, there are many families who are struggling to make ends meet, and I believe that we must do more to help them.

We can start by providing aid to the homeless. Many families are living in precarious conditions, and we must do everything in our power to ensure their safety and well-being.

I urge you to consider this issue and take action to address it. Let us work together to create a better future for our city.

Sincerely,

Rec. Walter W. Curtis, 76 Broad St., Bloomfield, N.J. is a member of The Advocate. Questions may be submitted to him at this address.

Q. Is there any way a woman can receive the Holy Sacrament, because she is not married?

A. As a priest, I can only answer for myself. I cannot speak for other priests, but I believe that a woman who is not married can receive the Holy Sacrament in certain circumstances. She must be in mortal sin and have the intention of改正. She must also be aware of the gravity of her sin and have the desire to be reconciled.

Private Schools

Editor:

I am one of those Catholic who do not care for Kennedy and his Public Schools. I have not attended one of the Public Schools from the Democratic convention. I believe that there are many other Catholic who do not agree with his Public Schools.

January was a year of sacrifice and prayer for the end of the Public Schools. I believe that if the public schools are closed, it will be better for the children.

Recently, I heard an address on a radio program that pointed out how the Public Schools were the cause of the decrease of the Catholic Church.

It is my opinion that the Public Schools are not good for the children of the Catholic Church.

The question is really simple: why should all children be educated in the Public Schools? I believe that the Catholic Church should have their own schools.

The schools are able to teach the children the things that are important in life, the things that will help them in their future life.

This new administration is preparing for the future, but the Catholic Church is not. They are preparing for the future, but the Catholic Church is not.

Red Influence in Churches: ‘Zero’

By Rabbi George S. Darrow

Director, Social Action Department, NUPCC

About a year ago, when President Truman issued his proclamation urging a boycott of non-American labor, the American Jewish labor union movement, including the NUPCC, was almost unanimous in its approval of the President’s appeal. This is quite an unusual situation, and it is one of the reasons why reports of preaching and teaching the Communist creed in our churches and synagogues are so disturbing.

The decision of the President came as a result of weeks of careful study by labor leaders and was made possible by a close cooperation between the President and the leaders of the labor movement.

The President’s decision was based on the fact that the Communist party is a revolutionary organization, whose ultimate goal is the destruction of capitalism and the establishment of a world-wide Communist state. The President’s decision was also based on the fact that the Communist party is a dangerous organization, whose members are engaged in subversive activities, including the dissemination of false propaganda and the undermining of the democratic institutions of our country.

One of the most successful endeavors in Young Advocate Club history has just come to an end. We were over- whelmed by the 1,552 posters received in our Catholic Press March contest from the Senior Club members.

Further, we are pleased to report a recordbreaking turnout from the Valley. You can see our victorious posters, pictured here, in Catholic Press this week. If that's not enough, you can see the posters in person (or maybe you want to see them again) at the Young Advocate Club's annual poster show in our auditorium at 2 p.m. on Saturday, March 10. Every single poster you see will be there! (Yes, we know you've already seen them in Catholic Press. But you'll see them again, and you'll see them with your own eyes.)

We were overwhelmed by the posters we received, and so were you. Congratulations, everyone! You've really outdone yourselves this year. We were especially impressed with the posters received from St. Peter's, St. John's, St. Michael's, St. John Vianney, and St. Anthony's. We're sure you'll be proud of yourselves when you see them again.

We are proud to announce that the posters received from Sister Eliza, Our Lady of Grace, St. Paul's, and St. Joseph's were all winners. We're sure you'll be happy to see them again, too.

We are also pleased to announce that the posters received from St. Peter's, St. John's, St. Michael's, St. John Vianney, and St. Anthony's were all runners-up. We're sure you'll be happy to see them again, too.

We are also pleased to announce that the posters received from St. Peter's, St. John's, St. Michael's, St. John Vianney, and St. Anthony's were all honorable mentions. We're sure you'll be happy to see them again, too.

And we are also pleased to announce that the posters received from St. Peter's, St. John's, St. Michael's, St. John Vianney, and St. Anthony's were all awarded in the $100 category. We're sure you'll be happy to see them again, too.

We would like to thank all of you who submitted posters. We enjoyed seeing all of your work and hope to see more in the future. We look forward to seeing you all next year in our poster contest.

Italian Bishops Stress Rights
Of Parents in Education Matters

BOLOGNA, Italy (AP) — The Bolognese synod, attended by Catholic bishops from throughout Italy, has affirmed that parents have a right to determine the education of their children. The synod also said that the bishops were not simply organs of the Church but also representatives of the state in educational matters.

NEWS BRIEFS

- A group of Catholic bishops in the United States has issued a statement opposing the use of Federal funds for school education," said Bishop John H. Galvin of Chicago.

   "We cannot support any program that seeks to undermine the authority of parents over the education of their children."

Bishop McNulty: Film Selection Seen
Matter of Generosity

NEW YORK — "Christian generosity...and at any rate of indulgence, in the heart and soul" of the work of the Legion of Mercy, Bishop McNulty of Paterson said at a national rally last week.

Bishop McNulty, chairman of the Bishops Council, said sufficient money to support the work of Catholic organizations is "a matter of generosity to those who are called to the apostolate by their faith." He added that it is "a matter of generosity to those who are called to the apostolate by their faith."

Behind the Plans: A Man’s Concern for His People

By Anne Mac Buckley

The issue of education and the relationship of the Catholic Church to the development of the educational needs of the diocese have always been a concern of the Diocese of Newark. In this connection, it is interesting to note the thoughts of Bishop Boland on the subject.

The Bishop, in an article recently published in the Diocese of Newark Bulletin, stated:

"The education of the young, particularly in the Catholic schools, is a great concern of the Diocese of Newark. Our Catholic schools have always been places of learning and growth, and it is our duty to ensure that they continue to be so in the future.

The need for additional space in the Catholic schools is evident, and the Bishop has called for an increased effort to meet this need.

It is important that we continue to support the Catholic schools, for they provide a solid foundation for the future of our community. We must work together to ensure that these schools continue to be a force for good in our society."

is The Home Of World-Famous Pianos
And Headquarters For The Hammond Organ For Convents, Schools, And All Institutions.

Our traditional background is in the development of a magnificent line of pianos of the highest quality. Our Hammond Organs are the result of the same exhaustive research and study, and incorporate the same high standards of excellence in design and workmanship as our pianos. Indeed, the principles on which an organ is built are the same as those on which a piano is built. The Hammond Organ is simply a large piano with electrically activated keys and a set of huge pipes that duplicate the sound of an organ played in a great church.

Our Hammond Organs offer you the advantages of economy and portability. They are ideal for churches of any size, from small chapels to large cathedrals. They also provide the kind of organ music that you have come to expect from your church music director. And, best of all, they provide an organ that is easy to maintain and operate.

NEWARK — In six days, the Catholic hospital

Union Has Three 1960 Buildings

Three buildings, a church, a school, and a high school facility were completed by Catholics of Union County in 1960 in the four-month period, 1957 through 1960, a total of 13 new buildings for Catholics in the county.

Completed in 1960 are still under construction or in planning stages are in additional buildings. A total of 13 new buildings are in planning stages for the building program.

The High School has an enrollment of 1,500 people.

Besides the three high schools, the following additions are being constructed at the Catholic school: A new building is being constructed at the Catholic school.

The new school comprises the following:

- Completed in 1960 for the first time.
- The new church for St. Hedwig's, Elizabeth, is completed.
- The new school for St. Joseph's, Scotch Plains, is completed.
- The new church for St. Patrick's, Summit (described on Page 15).

Details of the new buildings follow:

- St. Boniface, Elizabeth, receives a new church and rectory.
- St. Joseph's, Scotch Plains, receives a new church and rectory.
- St. Patrick's, Summit, receives a new church and rectory.

Whereas the Bishop had finally been able to bring St. Patrick's Church, Summit, to the status of a church, this was not without a struggle. The Bishop had to overcome a number of obstacles, including the opposition of some parishioners.

Advertising the new church, the Bishop said: "We have been working on this project for some time, and we are very pleased with the results." The new church will be dedicated on October 1. It is by Archbishop Reilly of Newark.

No Chal!: Kloep, Inc. (1960) - Under the leadership of a priest who has since retired, a small Catholic school was opened in this town. The school was named in honor of St. Joseph, the patron saint of the parish. By the time the school was completed, it had an enrollment of 400 students.

Construction at 18 High Schools

By June Dayre

A total of 18 high schools are involved in the current construction picture.

An announcement by Archbishop Boland of a $350,000 building program was highlighted by the proposal for eight new high schools—the first in each of the four counties. Location had been announced from Lakeland, Upper Montclair, which was a site of new schools in three years ago. The announcement was followed by the September, 1961, dedication of the new school at Lakeland, North Bergen, which was the first new school in the area.

PLUMBING

A new high school in East Orange, following the plans of four high schools in the area, was the first to be dedicated in the area. The new building was dedicated in the garden area of New Jersey, which is currently under construction.

The school will add 900 students to the current enrollment, which is now 1,200. The new school will accommodate the needs of 1,300 students.

The Bishop of Newark, who was present at the dedication, commented on the progress of the new school.

The Bishop said that the new school would be ready for use in the fall of 1961.

BERGEN COUNTY: Bergen County will break ground for an expansion of the high school in early spring. The $350,000 addition will consist of 20 rooms and will double the capacity of the school.

The Bishop of Newark, who was present at the dedication, commented on the progress of the new school.
