$3,740,000 Pledged in Drive's 1st Week

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy announced that the American Red Cross's 1962 drive for funds had raised $3,740,000, $270,000 more than the drive's goal of $3,470,000. The drive, which began on March 22, will continue until April 16. The funds raised will be used to provide relief to victims of natural disasters, such as floods and hurricanes, and to support programs in other countries, such as medical assistance and educational programs.

Make Moral Judgment On Excluding Pupils

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court of the United States ruled today that schools must provide a public education to all children, regardless of race, religion, or gender. The decision, in the case of Brown v. Board of Education, was a landmark ruling that overturned the previous practice of segregation in schools. The court's decision was based on the Constitution's guarantees of equal protection and due process, and it established the legal principle that separate educational facilities are inherently unequal.

Holy Saturday F ast

On Saturday, April 8, which is Holy Saturday, the Feast of the Holy Saturday, and of the Easter Vigil. This is the day of the Resurrection of Christ, the day of the Easter Vigil. The service is celebrated by the Church in memory of the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles at Pentecost.

Seton Hall Plans Saddle River Unit

SOUTH RANGER — President J. A. Dougherty, director of Seton Hall University, announced this week that the university will open a new campus in Saddle River. The campus, which will be located on a 20-acre site in the heart of the New Jersey countryside, will provide a new educational opportunity for students from across the state.

Protests Arrests

"Jail Me With My Friends," Says Hungarian Prelate

VENEZIA, NY — Father John Hooper, 31, of St. Peter's Church, was arrested today for his role in a demonstration against the Hungarian government. Father Hooper is a member of the Catholic Workers and has been involved in many protests against the regime.

Father John Hooper of St. Peter's Church

JERSEY CITY — A former priest of St. Peter's Church was arrested for his role in a demonstration against the Hungarian government. Father Hooper is a member of the Catholic Workers and has been involved in many protests against the regime.

The Cardinal, in a statement, expressed his support for the protesters, saying that "the Catholic Church must be a voice of conscience in this important debate on human rights and social justice." The Cardinal added that the protesters must continue to fight for justice and that "the Catholic Church will always stand with those who seek to defend human dignity and human rights."

Make Moral Judgment On School Aid...

(Continued from Page 3) to the point where the school aid system is in a serious plight today in many states. Public opinion, he declared, is that the present method of school aid is unsound, unequitable, and inefficient.

Mr. Hirschel also stated that the Wisconsin State legislature recently passed a resolution urging the county to make a study of the school aid system. This same resolution was introduced in the state legislature in the District of Columbia and several other states.

Add 2nd Teacher For Blind Children

NEWARK — A second lieutenant teacher for blind children will join the special education department of the Mount Carmel Guild in September, Rev. Richard M. McGuinness, rector of the Mount Carmel Guild, the diocese’s agency for the blind, announced today.

At present, Margarette Landherr, 57, a former assistant librarian at the New York State Library for the Blind in New York City and a graduate of the School for the Blind in Passaic, will be responsible for pairing the blind children in Newark with qualified tutors. Mrs. Landherr said she would like to focus on the personal, social, and vocational aspects of the blind children.

In addition to her duties at the Mount Carmel Guild, Mrs. Landherr is also an assistant editor of The New York Times and a staff member of the United Nations Committee on Education.

ANNIVERSARY BLESSING: Bishop McNulty greets Rev. Stephen Landherr, director of the Diocesan School for the Blind Guild of Newark, at the dedication of the new school building in September. (This was a recent event and not related to the current context.)

St. Joseph’s Selects Chairman

PATERSON — St. Joseph’s Hospital has announced the election of Dr. Ralph R. Goldenberg of this city as chairman of its medical board.

A native of London, England, Dr. Goldenberg has been director of the department of orthopedic surgery at St. Joseph’s since 1964.

Dr. Goldenberg graduated from the University of Toronto in 1950 and held various positions in Cambridge, England, prior to his return to the United States in 1955. He served as a member of the New Jersey Orthopaedic Society and has been active in the New Jersey Medical Society and the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons.
To Canonize Blessed Bertilla Boscardin

VATICAN CITY (NC) — The canonization of Blessed Bertilla Boscardin, Italian Sister who continued ministering the sick for four years despite the pain of her own mail illness, will take place here on May 11.

The public and private considerations leading to the canonization were given May 8.

Boscardin was one of the 141 women of the Roman Catholic Church who are being considered for sainthood during the Jubilee of Mercy during the year 2015.

The canonization is scheduled for May 11 in St. Peter’s Basilica, also on the Sunday of the Holy Body and Blood of the Lord.

In the United States, theCanonization will be celebrated on May 12, the feast day of St. Peter.

The liturgical celebration will be presided over by the Bishop of Rome, Pope Francis, who will install Her as a Saint.

Aid to Nations

VATICAN CITY (NC) — The Vatican’s aid to nations program will have a new name and a new organization.

The office, which has been known as the Pontifical Mission for Palestine, will be renamed the Pontifical Mission for the Middle East.

The new name reflects the changing geopolitical realities of the region and the need for a more comprehensive approach to the needs of the Christian communities in the Middle East.

Center to Offer Student and Faculty Study Abroad

ROCHESTER, Minn. (NC) — The University of Rochester’s study abroad program will be expanded to include additional opportunities for students and faculty.

The program will offer a wide range of courses and workshops, including courses on the history of the Middle East, the economy of the region, and the cultural traditions of the region.

Blessed Romaine Anthony Savelli honored

BOSTON (NC) — The Boston Archdiocese will celebrate the canonization of Blessed Romaine Anthony Savelli, the first African American to be canonized as a saint.

The celebration will take place on May 11, the feast day of the Virgin Mary.

The Archdiocese of Boston will hold a Mass and a prayer vigil in honor of Blessed Savelli, who was a priest and a missionary in the United States.

Business Educators

WASHINGTON, D.C. (NC) — The National Institute for Business Education will hold a conference on May 12, the feast day of St. Joseph.

The conference will focus on the importance of business education in today’s economy.

Mothers, Do You Wish Your Children

"DROWN-PROOFED" While You Perhaps GOLF?

Here, at the Madasbrook Golf Links' fastest-growing Swim Club this side of California, we specialize in our "drown-proofing" the children of our family members. Last summer 37 families lost out because we had no room for them. This winter we are adding to our parking lot, our Club House, our play areas. We shall have room for a few more families. And our links and pool are easily reached from either Route 46 or Route 10 and new 203—apply to Joyce City Reservoir.

Consider these advantages in your joining, and send the $25-Saving Coupon at once for full information.

1. Beautiful oceanfront pool with high diving board offering plenty of swimming water, and wading pools for the small children.
2. Five sand-bottom beaches for all, under adult supervision.
3. Free "drowning-proofing" lessons for all. An average of 17 American drownings a day occur in farms, in swamplands. Let your family enjoy the ocean....
4. Delicious lunches served every Sunday.
5. No hard liquor or drugs.
6. Great downstairs games of all kinds throughout season.
7. Special instruction in swimming and water sports with "drowning-proof" instruction, given in groups of young children while swimming on their own account.
8. Bases from Club House every Sunday morning.
9. Night swimming lessons when season Committee approves.
10. Rackets and beach balls for fun and play.
11. Hand-powered later taking, shallow depth.

PAPERSWORK Archdiocesan Bulletin checks the figures of the first report meeting of St. Rose of Lima, Newark, on the Archdiocesan Development Campaign with general parish chairman, James H. O'Brien, left, and editorial assistant, Helen Carley, pastor. The meeting was held Mar. 13.
The Memorial Gifts Plan of the Archdiocese of Newark Development Campaign is proving to be tremendously popular with thoughtful Catholics (as a review of the Memorial items already reserved proves) in planning eight new high schools, four homes for the aged and the Seminary addition. Bear in mind that in the Memorial Plan, you have a "once-in-a-lifetime" opportunity to not only do something substantial and lasting for the Archdiocese, but you can also gain for yourself and your loved ones perpetual recognition for your generosity. By investing in a Memorial NOW, you will also share TOMORROW in the countless prayers of our archdiocesan priests, religious, seminarians and the Catholic children who daily will remember your special generosity.

YOUR GIFT — A LIVING MEMORIAL

Memorial donations in any of the new buildings will be acknowledged in the "MEMORABLE BOOK" in the appropriate building. The "MEMORABLE BOOK" will be an impressively bound volume which will be displayed permanently in a special "Memorial Shrine" set aside in a prominent location in each building as a record of the generosity of the donors.

In each of the new buildings, Our Blessed Lady's Shrine will be a fitting place for the perpetual commemoration of your loved ones in whose memory you will make your sacrifice and your gift. Your name and the inscription you wish to be associated with the Memorial selected will be recorded in the MEMORABLE BOOK.

In addition, each Memorial donor will receive a beautiful scroll, suitable for framing, in recognition of his generosity.

Journey in Christ's Footsteps

February 23, 1961

This is the beginning of a series of programs that will be heard on the Catholic Radio Network, in cooperation with the Franciscan Pilgrimage Tours.

The Franciscan Pilgrimage Tours, a group of programs that are being broadcast on the Catholic Radio Network, are a way for people to experience the spiritual journey of St. Francis of Assisi. The series will feature programs that are designed to help listeners understand the meaning of the Franciscan way of life and how it can be applied to their own lives.

The first program in the series is titled "The Franciscan Pilgrimage Tours." It features a brief overview of the life and teachings of St. Francis, as well as an introduction to the Franciscan way of life. The program also includes a special reading of the Gospel of St. John, which is a central text for the Franciscan tradition.

In the second program, titled "The Franciscan Pilgrimage Tours: Part II," the focus shifts to the Franciscan order itself. The program explores the history and development of the order, as well as the role it plays in the world today.

The third program, "The Franciscan Pilgrimage Tours: Part III," delves into the spiritual teachings of St. Francis. It features a discussion of the concept of the "poverty of Christ," as well as the importance of simplicity and humility in the Franciscan way of life.

The fourth program, "The Franciscan Pilgrimage Tours: Part IV," addresses the role of the Franciscan order in the modern world. It explores the ways in which the order is adapting to the challenges of the 21st century, and how it continues to inspire people around the world.

The fifth program, "The Franciscan Pilgrimage Tours: Part V," concludes the series with a special segment on the impact of St. Francis on contemporary culture. It features interviews with contemporary artists and thinkers who have been inspired by the Franciscan tradition.

Gather the Clan for an Old-Fashioned New England Clam Bake

A traditional New England Clam Bake is a fun and festive way to celebrate the start of summer. This recipe includes all of the classic elements of a Clam Bake: fresh clams, butter, and a variety of other seafood and vegetables.

The recipe for Classic New England Clam Bake includes:

- Fresh clams
- Butter
- Onions
- Mushrooms
- Potatoes
- Corn on the cob
- Summer vegetables

The steps to making a Classic New England Clam Bake are:

1. Clean the clams and place them in a pot of boiling water.
2. Add butter, onions, mushrooms, and potatoes to the pot.
3. Cook the clams and vegetables for 10-15 minutes, or until the clams are fully opened.
4. Serve the Clam Bake with a variety of summer vegetables, such as corn on the cob, and enjoy.

Holy Thursday: Blessing of Oils

Holy Oils, remnant of the Old Testament and symbolic of Christ, "the Anointed One of God," play an important part in the life of the Catholic. We are anointed with Holy Oil as we begin our life in Christ at Baptism, and as we are strengthened in that life through the Holy Spirit at Confirmation, and as we begin our journey into eternity with Extreme Unction.

At Mass on Holy Thursday morning the Bishop performs the rite of consecration of the three oils: the Oil of the Chrism, used in extreme Rapture and ordination of priests, Holy Chrism used in Confirmation, Baptism and the consecration of Bishop, and the Oil of the Sick, used in Extreme Unction. The accompanying photos show Archbishop Boland performing the rite of solemn oil at Sacred Heart Cathedral, New Rochelle.

Anointing the Archbishops are seven priests acting as deacons, seven as subdeacons. Required as witnesses to the rite are 12 priests who on this occasion included diocesan priests, Dominicans, Benedictines and a Franciscan.

After the oils are consecrated — with procession, exorcism, blessing and consecration — they become a sacramental reserve for use by all parishes of the Archdiocese. Thus it is dramatically demonstrated that sanctification is not the domain of the priesthood only, that it is possessed by the fullness of graces, that the whole people of God and the churches of the Earth are extensions of the cathedral.

In the century of the Blessing of Holy Oils, which each Catholic ought to witness once in his life, Archbishop Boland will consecrate the oils this Thursday at 11 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Cathedral, Bishop Boland will be anointed at 10 a.m. in St. John the Baptist Cathedral, Putee.

SACRAMENTAL RESERVE: In the sanctuary of the Cathedral the newly blessed oils are portioned into containers which will be called for during the day by priests from all the parishes of the Archdiocese for use during the year. As the vessels are brought out of the sanctuary into the sanctuary the sixth century hymn is sung. "Lord, by the action of the Church may all Thy favours be reserved, and that last dignity of man in his first glory be reserved."

OFF Course

A Paschal Meal

"The white history of the Pontifical College of Our Lady of the Rosary is shaped into the outline of the Holy Thursday of the Fraternity of St. Francis with a devotion and respect that its members consider as the gem of their day. From the time of the Pontifical College being formed, the students have arranged Jewish symbols as a mnemonic aid. They are not Jews!" Father D'Angelo continued, "The main reason for our visit to the Jewish Community is to present the Jewish symbols for the Holy Week and to have a closer understanding of the Jewish Law and the establishment of the State of Israel.

AT THE PASSOVER the Jews are the Paschal Lamb to recall that the Blood of the Lamb was the passport for their ancestors was the salvation of their sons.

"BLESSED ART THOU, O Lord our God, King of the universe. Who dost create the fruit of the soil," say Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Valley of Palm Beach Park as they dip green herbs in salt water.

"THE MEAL, which Catholics are requested to shape on Holy Thursday or some other pre- Good Friday occasion, follows the basic of the Jewish Paschal meal: "Blessing of the Paschal Supper" the same prayers are said and with certain comment on the fulfillment of various passages in the Christian order, especially the Mass — the same Lord's Supper, the same Body, the same Blood, eaten and drunk happily before the cross upon which He died, before the heretics mocking their trifles.

The words speak the same language, the mother they used in their native folk, and water in their cisterns and arrows, wine drunk from a censer raised over a fire.

As the third of the consecrated wafer is consumed, the fire of the Paschal lamb is never extinguished. The flame which survives the fire, is said to be the fire of the Holy Thursday. It is then placed into the new, and this flame is the symbol of the faithful, the confessor, the monastic, the priest, and the bishop. The flame is handed down from generation to generation, and it is a symbol of the faithful, the confessor, the monastic, the priest, and the bishop. ITALIAN CUSTOM

St. Joseph Day Party

PONDONI LAKES — St. Joseph was honored with a party replete with handsome Italian customs at the Gerald Hall's farm, Hur, 19, where the neighborhood children and their mothers could assemble.

It began with a blessing of special St. Joseph Day food which was prepared by Rev. James Walls, O.F.S., parson of nearby St. Mary's parish. "The meals were included in the Oils of Healing, Salvation, Health, Safety, Success, Expectancy, Exercise, and others, and everything is prepared according to special recipes which are passed down from generation to generation, brought from her native land.

The table on which the food was placed was near a specially decorated shrine to St. Joseph, at which the first meal was blessed by the Rev. John J. Mullin, S.J., pastor of the parish. The food was prepared and served by a group of their playmates and props, making their own.. To recall incidents in the life of the Holy Family each child was given a flower and plants were handed out the flowers of the Holy Family each child was given a flower and plants were handed out.

If You Muzzle Your Faith, You Face Risk of Its Loss

A tremendous problem is the plan because it believes in state in which you can’t be able to muzzle your faith. The reason is that the state must believe in their country’s laws and regulations. To act out your faith and your body against these laws, you have to be in a prison cell. That’s why we can’t do that. We are not the one who can do that.

The values are non-positive. The values are the masses that believe in their country’s laws and regulations. The values must be in the country’s laws and regulations. We cannot act out our faith and our body against the state’s laws.

What a Time for Summer Dreaming!
By Jean DeWey

The weatherman has told us we are in for a sultry summer. With the morning sun beating down on us, no one is really prepared to sit and read. It may be a little early to be thinking of summer, but it certainly is too early to be planning for the winter season. In any case, you are going to be doing the thinking. Also, you are thinking about what you want to do during the summer. If you are at all interested in keeping up with the latest news, you should read this article. We were interested enough to read it ourselves and couldn't help coming on the subject of which children should be encouraged to summer camp.

Passbal Meal

Special Eating

A Passbal Meal, which you might plan for next Thursday to commemorate the Last Supper, would please many church members. This may serve as a model of what Our Lord and the Apostles ate in the Courtyard of the Last Supper, the location of the church in Jerusalem. The meal, fresh and wise, would cater to the needs of the family and provide wholesome nourishment.

Survey Says Teens Snub Film Ratings

NOTRE DAME — Catholic teenagers are overwhelmingly repelled by the films being released this season, a survey by the nation's bishops has indicated.

Rev. Lawrence Hurley, S.J., president of the National Catholic Office of Education, has announced the results of the survey, which was conducted in November by the bishops' office in conjunction with the Catholic University of America.

The survey, which included 1,000 Catholic high school students, found that 87% of the students reported that they had seen a film with a collects rating.

It was the first time that the bishops had attempted to measure the popularity of films among Catholic youth.

"Our findings confirm what we have long suspected," said Rev. Hurley. "The film industry has not been kind to the Catholic Church, and we must do more to inform our youth about the dangers of the movies."
