"Law is nothing else than an ordinance of reason for the common good, promulgated by him who has the care of the community."

— ST. THOMAS AQUINAS

"A NATION, without a NATIONAL GOVERNMENT, is, in my view, an awful spectacle. The establishment of a Constitution, in time of profound peace, by the voluntary consent of a whole people, is a PRODIGY, to the completion of which I look forward with trembling anxiety."

— ALEXANDER HAMILTON

"Political power . . . I take to be a right of making laws with penalties of death, and consequently all less penalties, for the regulating and preserving of property, and of employing the force of the community, in the execution of such laws, and in the defence of the common-wealth from foreign injury; and all this only for the public good."

— JOHN LOCKE

"Liberty lies in the hearts of men and women; when it dies there, no constitution, no law, no court can save it."

— LEARNED HAND
