Outlook Office: The outlook office of the Roman Emperor Domitian on the rim of the crater lake Athabas, the Papal summer residence looks magnificent. Pope John Paul II has always enjoyed a pensive look at the landscape. He has often allowed a photographer a glimpse of his contemplative mood as he walked along the lake's edge, occasionally stopping to admire the beauty of nature. His contemplative habit is not uncommon among Vaticanilles. In the center, Pope John descends a stairway to the tranquility of the lower level. It was here that he would often meditate in the crypt of the St. Peter's Basilica, a classic element of a Roman villa, a number of fine ancient statues and Egyptian mosaics were found in the excavations of the crypt. Pope John's robust health makes the walking stick unnecessary, but he uses it for joking at flowers and turning over old statues.

Phoebe Sees Chastity Storehouse of Good

CATANIZANOGOLO—Chastity is the storehouse of good, Pope John said here at a general audience on Aug. 30, and last month at Rome, he had called for a return to the virtues of the past.

He said the Church is the storehouse of good, and that the Church is the storehouse of good.

A SPECIAL ADDRESS, which was delivered by the Pope at the general audience, was entitled "Chastity: The Storehouse of Good." The Pope said that the Church is the storehouse of good, and that the Church is the storehouse of good.

"UNFORTEKNABLY," the Pope said, "in our present world, the Church is the storehouse of good, and the Church is the storehouse of good.

Sees Early Dating Pattern Ruining American Society

ACROSS THE COUNTRY—We are destroying our children by exposing them to early dating. Rev. John E. Keating, dean of the faculty of sociology at St. Louis University, told the American Catholic Editors and Publishers Association that the country faces a real crisis. "The early dating problem is a grave problem." He pointed out that 9 out of 10 high school boys and girls, and 2 out of 3 college students, date without being engaged. "It is a sad commentary on our culture that we should destroy our children in this way," he said.

Dr. Keating said that early dating is a "social cancer" and that it is destroying our youth. "We are destroying our boys and girls," he said. "They are not learning how to live" and how to develop their natural talents.

He said that early dating is causing a breakdown in family life. "The family is the basic unit of society," he said. "It is the foundation of society." He pointed out that early dating is causing a breakdown in family life and that it is destroying our youth.

Collegians Briefed on...

Following are editorial excerpts from talks given at meetings for Catholic college students at the 10th national congress of the National Federation of Catholic College Students at Pittsburgh and the annual convention of the National Council of Catholic College Students.

Refugees - "We sometimes forget what the word 'refugee' means. It means someone who is driven from his home and is now living in another country. We sometimes forget that there are millions of these human beings forced from their homes by a war now going on in Korea. Their homes have been destroyed, their families have been separated, they have no place to live."

Cardinal - "Since the war in Korea, the number of refugees has increased to a degree that makes it difficult to keep track of them. The United Nations has estimated that there are now more than 10 million refugees in Korea alone."

Maryknoll - "The refugees are being welcomed by the people of Korea, but they are living in poor conditions. They need food, clothing, and medical care."

U.S. Missionaries Conduct Schools in 70 Areas

Washington - The Catholic Church is providing education to some 100,000 people in 70 areas. The schools are located in 35 countries and provide education to people of all ages. The schools are sponsored by the Maryknoll Fathers and Brothers and are run by lay people who are supported by the Church.

The schools are designed to meet the needs of people who are not able to attend formal education. They provide education in a variety of subjects, including reading, writing, math, and science.

The schools are funded through contributions from individuals and organizations around the world. They are a testament to the Church’s commitment to education and to helping people in need.

Family Seen as the Key In War Against Obscenity

St. Louis, Mo. - The success of anti-pornography campaigns against obscene reading material in the home, family, the Church of America, and here is in a new movement "Good Literature." "We are going to show that the family is the key to the war against obscenity."

Dr. George M. Frank, president of the American Catholic Mental Health Association, said, "Our goal is to provide the family with wholesome material to read."

The new movement, called "Good Literature," will be promoted by the American Catholic Mental Health Association and other groups.

"The family is the key to the war against obscenity," Dr. Frank said. "We must provide the family with wholesome material to read."

Science Required

New York (CNS) - Science will be a required subject in New York City's public schools after a law adopted in New York City on Monday.

"We believe that science is important for the future of our children," said Mayor John F. Kennedy. "This law will ensure that science is taught in our public schools."
New Action on School Aid Seen Unlikely Before 1963

WASHINGTON (N.C.) — Despite President Kennedy's pledge that "we will be back next year," the plans of Illinois leaders indicate that new proposals for general federal aid to education may be delayed until 1963.

In addition, there were these developments in the wake of the House defeat of the administration's education proposals: a) the bills included in the proposed federal aid to education have failed; b) the proposal for federal aid to education was defeated in the Senate; c) the Senate defeated the proposal for federal aid to education.

A principal feature of the President's bill was the $2 billion in aid to the states which would have been provided by the federal government. However, this provision was not included in the final version of the bill which was sent to the Senate by the House.

In the Senate, the bill was defeated on a vote of 52 to 48. The Senate defeated the bill by a vote of 52 to 48.

The State of Illinois is one of the states which have been receiving federal aid to education.

Confraternity Sets Open New School Year

NEWARK — A reading of the opening day mass, singing of the Confraternity of Christian Workers' (CCW) song, and singing of the Edna D. Picnic, a 19-year-old New Jersey girl, at the Easiest Day, will be held in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Newark, N.J., on Sept. 10. The mass will be sung at 9 a.m. The picnic will be held at 10 a.m. The mass will be sung by the CCW at St. Anthony's church, Newark, N.J.

By the opening of the school year, the Catholic Church in the United States begins a new year of education. The schools of the Catholic Church in the United States are the largest in the world. The Catholic Church in the United States has more than 10,000 schools.

The school year is divided into two terms, the fall term and the spring term. The fall term begins on Sept. 10 and the spring term begins on Feb. 10.

Little Catholic Effort in Educational TV

Why Would Anyone Want Church?

By C. R. MacIntyre
VENICE (DEC) — Puzzled by an invitation to join the Catholic Church, the Reverend MacIntyre, a member of the church, found himself at the center of a controversy.

The situation is ironic, the Reverend MacIntyre said. The church is called to be a house of prayer, but the prayer is not always welcome.

In response to the invitation, several members of the congregation have expressed their opposition to the church's decision. Some members have even threatened to leave the church if the invitation is not rescinded. Others have called for a vote of no confidence in the Reverend MacIntyre.

The Reverend MacIntyre said that he does not intend to rescind the invitation. He believes that the church is called to be a house of prayer for all people, and that includes those who are not members of the church.

The Reverend MacIntyre said that he is confident that the church will continue to be a place of welcome for all people. He is looking forward to seeing how God will use the church to bring people together.

Add Ceramics to Curriculum at St. Philip Neri School

NEWARK — A workshop to teach ceramics to students at the St. Philip Neri School is scheduled to be held next month.

The ceramics workshop will be held on a Saturday morning, and will be open to all students in the school. There will be a fee for the workshop, and students will be required to bring their own materials.

The workshop will be taught by a local artist, and will cover basic techniques such as shaping and glazing. Students will have the opportunity to work on their own projects and will be encouraged to express their creativity.

For Carmelite

AKRON — Brother D. K. Ferrier, O.S.B., will be visiting the school in the fall of 1981. He is expected to make a presentation about the Carmelite order and its role in the church.

Orientation at St. Peter’s

St. Peter’s College will hold its annual open house on Saturday, Sept. 11. The event will be open to all interested students and their families.

The open house will include tours of the campus, as well as opportunities to meet faculty members and current students. There will also be a chance to ask questions about the college and its programs.

The open house will take place from noon to 3 p.m., and is free to attend. Visitors are encouraged to arrive early to ensure ample time for exploring the campus and meeting with representatives.

‘Life on Other Planets’ is Round Table Subject

FANNING — “Life on Other Planets” will be the subject of a round table discussion at Fanning High School on Tuesday, Sept. 14.

The discussion will be led by a group of students who have been studying the topic as part of a science course. They will share their research and insights with the audience, and encourage questions and discussion.

The round table will begin at 3 p.m. and is open to all interested students and faculty members. The event is free to attend and is part of the school’s efforts to promote a culture of inquiry and critical thinking.

School Bells Are Ringing!

Above all, criticism of school and teaching should be avoided, and as much work as possible be made at all times in school and work with the school authorities.

Parental responsibility increases.

Parental responsibility increases even more when it comes to school. If parents do not work with the school authorities, it is the school that will suffer.

Parents of school children.

Parents of school children constantly need to be concerned with the school and the children's activities. It is important to be aware of what is going on in the school and to be involved in the school projects. They need not hesi-

Q. Two Catholic Schools of the same denomination, based on the same religious principles, objects, and methods, are in a dispute. The school administration of one of the schools is not content with the method of procedure of the other school. The name of the school of the administration is Hemisphere Horizon. The name of the other school is The Question Box. The administration of the Hemisphere Horizon school feels that the The Question Box school's methods are unfair and that the Hemisphere Horizon school's methods are more suitable for the students. The administration of the The Question Box school feels that the Hemisphere Horizon school's methods are too strict and that the The Question Box school's methods are more suitable for the students.

Further, the following facts should be brought to light:

1. Both schools are fully accredited by the National Catholic Educational Association and have a staff of experienced teachers.

2. Both schools have a strong commitment to the teachings of the Church and the promotion of Christian values.

3. Both schools have a similar curriculum, with a strong emphasis on academic excellence and moral education.

4. Both schools have a strong sense of community and provide many extracurricular activities for their students.

What's in Word
'Socialization'

By Mag. George G. Higgins
Director, Social Action Department, ASCC

The most widely published and most controversial section of Pope John XXIII's encyclical, "On Christian Social Teaching," is the one dealing with the phrase "socialization." The controversy over this section of the encyclical has been the focal point of the pontificate of John XXIII and has been the subject of much debate among Catholics, social scientists, and laymen.

Several commentators have already noted that there is no literal equivalent for this term in the English language, and that the English translation of the encyclical is inadequate. This inadequacy is due to the fact that the word "socialization" is a term that is used in a variety of different contexts and has different connotations depending on the culture and the social circumstances in which it is used.

The word "socialization" refers to the process by which individuals learn the cultural norms and values of a particular society. This process is usually initiated by the family and is continued through formal education and the mass media. The goal of socialization is to prepare the individual for the role of an active participant in society, and to impart the skills and knowledge necessary for survival.

The Pope's emphasis on socialization was based on the belief that the social order should be structured in such a way that it promotes the common good and the well-being of all members of society. He believed that the social order should be based on justice, love, and charity, and that it should provide for the proper development of the individual personality.

The encyclical also includes a call for the development of a new economic order that is based on justice, love, and charity, and that promotes the common good. The Pope called for a new economic order that is based on the principles of solidarity, cooperation, and mutual benefit.

The encyclical also calls for the development of a new social order that is based on justice, love, and charity, and that promotes the common good. The Pope called for a new social order that is based on the principles of solidarity, cooperation, and mutual benefit.

It's the Irish

By William H. Mourning

In a long shot the most candid analysis of the Caine Mutiny and its impact on Hollywood's image of the Navy, the Irish-American writer has written a book that is interesting and informative. He has taken a complex story and made it easier to understand.

The book is about the Caine Mutiny, a real-life incident that occurred during World War II. The story was made into a movie and later adapted into a play. The author, an Irish-American, has written a book that examines the impact of the story on Hollywood and on the image of the Navy.

The book is a must-read for anyone interested in Hollywood, the Navy, or the Caine Mutiny.

Do You Have to Write to Us?

As soon as Labor Day passes, the real task for responsible women of any community begins. The need of keeping up the morale of public opinion and public spirit is a task that has to be filled by the women of the community. That means that the first thing you have to do is to give your women a chance to do something for the community.

9 Union City Alumnae Enters of Catholic Apostolate

UNION CITY — An English tea was held at Alley Church every nine hours, and here is the story of what happened.

When the news of the death of a nun at St. Joseph's S. S. Hospital, Union City, on July 26, was broken, the news was received with profound sorrow. The nun, a graduate of Holy Angels in 1928, was a native of Union City.

A nunnery is a place for women who are living a religious life. It is a place where they can find peace and quiet, and a place where they can live without the distractions of the outside world. In a nunnery you can be sure that the women are not only taking care of the religious needs of the community, but they are also helping the community in other ways.

Mary Ferrara, daughter of Mrs. Ferrara, was the one who received the news of the nun's death. She said that the nun's death was a great loss to the community.

Benigni Elected By Columbists

PHILADELPHIA — Mrs. Vincent Ferrara, Archdiocesan Alumnae of the Immaculate Conception Convent, was elected president of the Archdiocesan Alumnae on September 22.

Mrs. Ferrara was elected president after a long and difficult campaign. The campaign was fought on a platform of three points: education, finance, and mission. The platform was adopted after a thorough study of the needs of the Archdiocesan Alumnae.

The election of Mrs. Ferrara as president of the Archdiocesan Alumnae was a victory for the Archdiocesan Alumnae. It was a victory for the women of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. It was a victory for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Our congratulations go to Mrs. Ferrara and the Archdiocesan Alumnae. They have been working hard for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. They have been working hard for the women of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. They have been working hard for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

We wish Mrs. Ferrara and the Archdiocesan Alumnae every success in their future work.

Youths Join In Tending War Graves

BOULDER, Colo. — More than 3,600 Protestant and Roman Catholic students are participating in a project to care for war graves in Belgium, Flanders, France, Finland, Denmark, Norway and Iceland.

Most of the youths were German, but some were from other countries, including Scandinavia, Iceland and the Netherlands.

In France, the war graves project was undertaken under the supervision of Father M. J. Schuster, a priest of the Diocese of Chicago.

The project began in 1955, and since then more than 2,000 students have participated in the care of war graves in the various countries.

COOPERATION OF Protestant and Catholic Students

A unique aspect of the project is the cooperation of Protestant and Catholic students in caring for the war graves.

The project is being conducted in cooperation with the American Field Service, an organization that promotes understanding through direct contact between peoples of different countries.

While the ultimate purpose of the project is to provide opportunities for students to work on war graves, the project also serves as an effective way to promote understanding between people of different faiths.

Ceylon Slaps $85 Taxes On Foreign Missions

COLOMBO, Ceylon (CNS) -- The Ceylonese government threatened to demand $85 per day from all foreign missions here and religionists from the near "temporary residence" tax, this morning. The move is a sequel to 30 Ceylonese priests and nuns who were found on Ceylon and were brought to the office of the Supreme Court of Ceylon, and were declared "incommunicado."

The move is a sequel to the petition of the priests and nuns who were arrested and brought to the court, and were declared "incommunicado."

The government has announced that it will demand $85 per day from all foreign missions in Ceylon, and has warned that those who fail to comply will be arrested. The government also stated that it will not recognize any mission that is not registered with the government.

The petition of the priests and nuns was presented to the court by the government, and was declared "incommunicado."

The government has also announced that it will not recognize any mission that is not registered with the government.
