ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Pope John Paul II has named Auxiliary Bishop for Grand Rapids, Michigan, and Richmond, Va.

The new Auxiliary was Bishop Arthur A. Budke, a 27-year-old, born in the U.S., who studied and ordained to the priesthood in Rome. He was appointed Auxiliary Bishop for Grand Rapids, Michigan, and Richmond, Va.

Bishop Budke has been named Auxiliary Bishop for Grand Rapids, Michigan, and Richmond, Va., for the Diocese of Richmond.

The appointment comes ahead of a special meeting of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops in Richmond, Va., later this year.

At the meeting, the bishops are expected to discuss the issues of same-sex marriage and same-sex family life.

The appointment is the first for a U.S. bishop in the Richmond diocese.

Bishop Budke has been serving as a priest in the Diocese of Richmond since 1976.

In July, he was named Auxiliary Bishop for Grand Rapids, Michigan, and Richmond, Va.

The appointment is the result of a recommendation by the Diocesan Council of the Richmond Diocese, which has been studying the issue of same-sex marriage for several years.

The appointment is a win for the Diocese of Richmond, which has been working to change its policy on same-sex marriage.

The Diocese of Richmond has been known for its discriminating policy on same-sex marriage, which has been in place for several years.

Holy Christmas

"Almighty God, we acknowledge your Presence upon us and we beg Your Holy Spirit to come and rest upon our minds and our hearts, and to give us the true and living faith which alone can bring us salvation. Amen.

This prayer has been challenged as being too religious, the Board of Regents of the University of New York approved the prayer for the public schools of the State of New York. The recitation of this prayer was not mandatory, and each student could choose whether to participate or not.

The World Has Never Grown Tired of Christmas

"It was the height of the season," he said, "and the air was thick with the scent of pine and the sound of carols. It had been a wonderful day in the store, and it would be even more joyful now, with the jingle of bells and the cheeriness of the customers.

School Prayer

"God bless us, everyone," the principal said, "and may the Lord bless you all. Amen.

Cheering Notes on Africa

Belgium was given a name by the prominent figure, which some believe to be the King of the Belgians on the very day on which King Leopold, the last Holy Roman Emperor, entered the Polish city of Warsaw to receive the Roman Catholic Church, and a non-believer. Germany has been raging since then.

"Aeterna Dei Sapientia"

The fifth and sixth centuries were both periods of great intellectual activity, as witnessed by the writing of St. Gregory the Great, who is known for his works on the liturgy and the discipline of the clergy. The Council of Nicea in 325 AD declared the faith to be one, and the development of the liturgy continued through the following centuries.

Press Close Seen Red Aid

By Louis F. Budenz

Our interest is in the fact that the Catholic Church is not only a religious institution, but also a political one. It is an organization that has been in existence for over a century, and it has a significant influence on the political and social life of many countries around the world. The Church has been involved in various political, social, and economic issues, and it has been a powerful force in many countries.

The question of whether the Catholic Church is helping or hindering the cause of socialism has been a matter of debate for a long time. Some people believe that the Church is promoting socialism by providing social services to the poor, while others believe that the Church is opposing socialism by its teachings and actions.

The Catholic Church has been involved in various political and social issues, and it has been a powerful force in many countries. It has been involved in the struggle for democracy in many countries, and it has been a leader in the fight against oppression and tyranny. The Church has been involved in the struggle for social justice, and it has been a leader in the fight against poverty and inequality.

How Can Warmth Return
To Cold War Marriage?

By Rev. John L. Thomas, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Sociology, St. Louis University

After 25 fairly happy years together our marriage is starting to fall apart. My wife and I still love each other, but we've become so intimate and impatient that all we do to each other is annoy me. I know she has something to say but me being self-centered in the moment, can we break the tension between us and regain some of the warmth and utility?

If a competent marriage counselor could visit us, he might tell us to:

1. Communicate; don't make an issue of what's bothering you until you know how he feels about it. He may have a different idea of what's bothering you. If you can't disagree at times, it might be wise to let him know that, too.

2. Give each other a chance. If you're not interested in something, let him know. If you don't think it's important, let him know. If you don't think it's important, let him know. If you don't think it's important, let him know.

3. Don't let your behavior be controlled by someone else's behavior. When you lose your temper, consider the possibility that you might be responsible for it. Also, consider the possibility that he might be responsible for it.

4. Try to be happy. If you can't be happy, try to be unhappy. If you can't be unhappy, try to be neutral. If you can't be neutral, try to be ambivalent. If you can't be ambivalent, try to be variable.

5. Remember that you are not alone. Your friends and relatives may be there for you. If you can't use them, consider the possibility that you might be responsible for it.

6. Try to be happy. If you can't be happy, try to be unhappy. If you can't be unhappy, try to be neutral. If you can't be neutral, try to be ambivalent. If you can't be ambivalent, try to be variable.

7. Try to be happy. If you can't be happy, try to be unhappy. If you can't be unhappy, try to be neutral. If you can't be neutral, try to be ambivalent. If you can't be ambivalent, try to be variable.

Secret Ordinations Held in Hungary

TONGILS, Belgium (NC) — Young Belgian Catholics have been held up as the model for the whole west European church. But history has shown that the church itself has been far more worldly in the last few years. For the record, the church authorities in Belgium have been working for years to keep the church in line with the rest of the world. But there is no escaping the fact that the church is still split on many issues.

YOUNG BELGIAN CATHOLICS have been brought into the world under the banner of the young church. The young church is a movement of young Catholics who are trying to bring the church back to its roots. They are trying to make the church more relevant to young people and to the world in general.

All Can Aid the Missions In One Way or Another

Most of us can do something to help people who live far from us. We cannot all give help in the same way, but most of us can take a positive step in this direction by doing something that we can do for the missions.

Our example will influence others, beneficially in the long run. The light of Christ's love for little children, who we are receiving now through others, shines very bright. We are called to carry this light to others.

Can't we by our own kindness help in saving the Lord's work? We can! For instance, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith is one such organization. They help in various ways to support missions around the world.

The Propagation of the Faith

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith is a Roman Catholic organization founded in 1822 by Pope Leo XII. It is dedicated to supporting missions by providing financial aid and spiritual guidance.

Why help the Society for the Propagation of the Faith?

1. By helping the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, you are directly supporting the missions that they are funding. This can include providing funds for schools, hospitals, and other essential services.
2. You are helping to spread the word of God to those who may not have heard it before.
3. You are supporting the work of priests and missionaries who are working in the missions.
4. You are helping to meet the needs of people who may not have access to basic necessities like food and shelter.

How to Help the Society for the Propagation of the Faith

1. Make a donation to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. You can do this online or by sending a check to their office.
2. Pray for the missionaries and their work. You can also pray for the people in the missions.
3. Spread the word about the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Share information about their work on social media or with friends and family.

There are many ways to help the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. By doing so, you are helping to make a difference in the lives of others.

Thank you for considering helping the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Together, we can make a difference in the lives of others.

St. PAUL, apostle to the Greek ancient 1962.
all through time the angel comes down and announces to you today and every day the Redeemer is born. That is Christ the Lord.
What Do You Do About Christmas?

Christmas is neither pure nor passive. Christmas happens to you every day. Every day you must respond to Christmas. The incarnation is the reason for the season. For the first time in the history of the world, the life you must live. Do what you wish as Christ, became incarnate and came into man's history, so Christ has become incarnate and becomes a part of each of us.

Do as Father Deebold states, "The Litany of the Mysteries of the Body of Christ," the mystery of the incarnate God being man in the here and now.

The Litany of the Mysteries of the Body of Christ:

1. For Christ sake, grant the Old Testament: that the Word might take flesh and dwell among us. Amen.

2. For Christ sake, grant the New Testament: that we might believe in Christ and his grace. Amen.

3. For Christ sake, grant the Church on earth: that the Church might be given the power to be the Body of Christ. Amen.

4. For Christ sake, grant the Church in heaven: that the Church might be given the power to be the Body of Christ. Amen.

5. For Christ sake, grant the world: that the world might be given the power to be the Body of Christ. Amen.

6. For Christ sake, grant the salvation of all mankind: that all mankind might be given the power to be the Body of Christ. Amen.

7. For Christ sake, grant the end of all things: that the end of all things might be given the power to be the Body of Christ. Amen.

8. For Christ sake, grant the second coming of Christ: that the second coming of Christ might be given the power to be the Body of Christ. Amen.

9. For Christ sake, grant the final judgement: that the final judgement might be given the power to be the Body of Christ. Amen.

10. For Christ sake, grant the everlasting glory: that the everlasting glory might be given the power to be the Body of Christ. Amen.

The Litany of the Mysteries of the Body of Christ: That the Body of Christ may be given to all mankind. Amen.

We join you in saying...

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men of good will."

They Journey to Bethlehem

The journey of Mary and Joseph from Nazareth to Bethlehem and the journey of the Magi from the Garden of Eden to the Christmas star are reflected annually by the figures of Mary and Joseph and the donkey set out four days before Christmas.

To Bethlehem... On Christmas Eve Mary and Joseph reach the inn at Bethlehem and the empty case beyond it, with the assistance of Gerry Hendy as Mrs. Hendy and Stephen Hendy took it. The map shows weather conditions, terrain.

Through Samaria... Mary and Joseph are moved each evening a little closer to their destination, as above Peter and Stephen Hendy discuss the pause and overnight stay under a tree in Samaria. The map stretches 12 feet.

Leading to Christmas... Mrs. Hendy and some admire Christmas candle decorated with symbols of Old Testament events that pointed toward Incarnation. Seated are Gerry, Danny and Paul standing. Stephen, Peter and Mrs. Hendy.

An Old fashioned Merry Christmas

Christmas With the New First Family of New Jersey

By Alice Mac Buckley

After Christmas festivities and the Nativity of Christ is celebrated in tabernacle in the Trenton living room of Elizabeth A. Hughes, the dramatic productions are over for the year for young people in the family. Next year the scene of the tableau will move from Trenton to Morven, the mansion of the Gover- nor of the State of New Jersey, in which Mrs. Hughes will take her family next year after his inauguration. Jan. 16.

Mary Hughes, 12, portrays Mary, John Hughes, 11, portrays Joseph, and Annabel Hughes, 9, portrays baby Jesus. "We're not really good at acting," Mrs. Hughes observed, "but it's a lot of fun." The Hughes children (they were playing on their parents' room.)

BY THE CHIMNEY, WITH CARE: Seven stockings are hung at the Hughes Place on Christmas Eve—care-fully arranged according to age with John's first gift $1.50 and the others ranging down to Annabel's $0.40. On mantel are the figures of Mary and Joseph and the Babe against a midnight blue backdrop glittering with gilded stars. Above, Governor-elect and next year's First Family, the Hugheses, symbolizes the tidings of age.

While the Earth Is at Peace...

In the small dark hours of Christmas morning, when the rooks are assembled in the abbey to chant the first hour of the Divine Office, the ears, wearing that splendid vestment, the cope, resounds Christmas — by this reading from the Martyrology:

In the year 589 from the creation of the world, when in the beginning God created the heavens and the earth,

In the year 2018 from the Flood,

In the year 1963 from the birth of Abraham,

In the year 1393 from the gazing forth of the people of Israel out of Egypt under Moses,

In the year 1032 from the assisting of David as King,

In the 60th week according to the prophecy of Daniel,

In the 106 Olympiad,

In the 750 from the foundations of the city of Rome,

In the 61st year of the reign of the Emperor Octavian Augustus,

In the 8th age of the world, while the whole earth was at peace, Jesus Christ, Himself Eternal God and Son of the Eternal Father, being pleased to dwell in the world by His most gracious coming, having been conceived of the Holy Ghost, and when nine months were past after His Conception,

The Descendants of St. Paul's Abbey, Weston, like other monasteries throughout the world, give us on the 25th of December the official prayer list for the Christmas season. Their Christmas is a true and beautiful feast! Provided by the Rev. monks from the St. Paul's Abbey, this prayer list is a delight for those who are interested in the liturgy of the hours for Christ.

At Midnight, the solemn benediction of the Virgin Mary is imparted to all the faithful who环 the Church's Christmas Day.

Accompanied by a nodding heart, peaceful Christmas of the Virgin Mary is brought to all of Thy faithful on the earth.

Accompanied by work, maintaining their Christmas spirit, pilgrims from the whole world visit the Church of the Nativity of the Virgin Mary.

SYMBOLIC GIFTS of gold, frankincense, and myrrh are offered to the Virgin Mary and to Holy Epiphany Day ceremonies, to recall the coming of the Three Kings, here Father Mark, as one of the Kings, presents his gift to Father Abbot as Brother Bernard and Father Peter attend.

The first star arrives, that glittering point of light in the holiday sky. It is a symbol of Christmas, a symbol that is as old as the Christian Church itself. The star appeared in Bethlehem a long time ago, and it is the star that we see on Christmas cards today.

The star is a symbol of hope and joy, and it is a reminder of the Christmas story. It is a symbol of the birth of Jesus Christ, the savior of the world.

The star is also a symbol of the Nativity, which is the story of the birth of Jesus Christ. The story of the Nativity is told in the Bible, and it is a story that is told every year at Christmas.

The star is a symbol of love and peace, and it is a reminder of the message of Christmas. It is a reminder that love and peace are the true meaning of the holiday.

The star is also a symbol of the Christmas spirit, which is a spirit of giving, sharing, and joy.

The star is a symbol of the Christmas tree, which is a symbol of the holiday as well. The Christmas tree is decorated with lights and ornaments, and it is a symbol of the love and joy that the holiday brings.

The star is a symbol of the Christmas spirit, and it is a reminder of the meaning of the holiday. It is a symbol of hope and joy, and it is a reminder of the love and peace that the holiday brings.
Share on Feast of Stephen

Dear Sir and Madam, and to all who read this column:

With the season of Christmas near, we would like to share with you some thoughts about the Feast of Stephen.

The Feast of Stephen is one of the most important events in the Christian calendar. It commemorates the day on which the first deacon of Jesus was appointed, St. Stephen. The story of St. Stephen is one of great courage and faith, as he was chosen by the Holy Spirit to perform the work of the first deacon.

St. Stephen's role included the task of caring for the poor and the sick, and he was known for his generosity and kindness. He was also a skilled orator and a powerful preacher, using his gifts to spread the message of the Gospel.

The Feast of Stephen is a time to remember the importance of charity and compassion, and to reflect on the role of deacons in the Church.

May we all be inspired by the example of St. Stephen and strive to be more generous and compassionate in our daily lives.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
"they found the child with Mary his mother, and falling down they worshipped him. And opening their treasures they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh."
