St. Bernard’s In Advocate Parish Plan

NEWARK—Rev. William J. Halliwell, Rector of St. Bernard’s, announced the plans for its Parish Plan on April 13 at St. Bernard’s, Maplewood, Jersey City. He explained the plan of the churches.

The Parish Plan is a program of spiritual and material development of the church. It is a plan for the growth of the church, for the development of the church and for the promotion of the church.

The Parish Plan is divided into three main parts:

1. Spiritual Development
   - Daily Mass
   - Weekly Bible Study
   - Monthly Retreats

2. Material Development
   - Renovation of the Church
   - Addition of a new Parish Hall
   - Creation of a Parish Library

3. Community Development
   - Knights of Columbus
   - Women’s Auxiliary
   - Parish Choir

These plans will be carried out over the next three years and will be reviewed annually.

New Orleans Report:

‘A Family Difference of Opinion’

The Advocate, April 10, 1965

NEW ORLEANS—A story of a different kind is unfolding for the Catholic Church here, with the announcement of a family disagreement over the issue of segregation.

The story begins with the demolition of the historic 100-year-old church of St. Louis Cathedral. The church, which was destroyed by a fire earlier this year, was a symbol of the city’s rich history and culture.

The family in question is the Galloways. The father, a prominent lawyer, has publicly announced his support for desegregation, while his son, a young priest, has taken a more traditional stance.

The Galloways are just one of many families in the city that are deeply divided on the issue of segregation. The city’s bishops have called for an end to racial segregation, but many parishioners are resisting the changes.

The situation has become so tense that some parishioners have called for a boycott of the church. Others have organized rallies and protests to show their support for the bishops.

The Galloways’ family split is just one example of the deep divides that exist in the city. The issue of segregation has become a hot topic, with many people on both sides of the issue.

Change in Status

Cleveland (CIC)—Archbishop Edward F. Mooney of Cleveland has directed that all lay religious groups and other lay organizations under the Archdiocesan direction be reorganized. The Archdiocese of Cincinnati has appointed a number of laymen to the various organizations and has directed that they report to the respective officers of the lay religious groups.

The Archdiocese of Cincinnati has also announced that the Archdiocese of Newark has been named to prepare for it.

Brother Andre Cause Advances

MONTREAL (CNS) — The apostolic process was officially opened here May 4 for the cause of beatification of Venerable Brother Andre Bessette, founder of Le Saint-Sacrement de la Mission, a hospital for the sick in Montreal.

BROTHER ANDRE, who lived from 1845 to 1937, was born in a poor farming family and was orphaned at the age of 12. He entered the Congregation of Holy Cross College, maintained by the Catholic order, in 1874, and was ordained a priest in 1880.

In 1887, he established a small shrine at the St. Joseph Oratory, opposite the college, where he lived until February 25, 1899. In the following decade, he was appointed superior of the college and built a second shrine opposite the college. There he lived until his death 41 years later.

The apostolic process will lead to the beatification and eventual canonization of Brother Andre within the Apostolic See of Montreal.

Topping the Tower

A 38-story hotel tower was topped Thursday and the 12th story, the topmost level, was blessed at a ceremony attended by Cardinal Roger Etchegaray, archbishop of Paris, and seven bishops from the region.

Anchored to the tower's roof by a steel cable, a symbolic cross marked the moment when construction of the hotel was completed. The cross was blessed and a red ribbon was cut to signify that work on the 12-story hotel was finished.

The hotel, the first in the U.S. to be constructed with a steel cable anchoring its structure, is expected to open next year. It will contain 450 rooms and include a restaurant and bar.

Day-to-Day Work Goes On
In Preparation for Council

BY RICHARD J. TUCKER

VATICAN CITY (CNS) — A small group of work goes on each day for the Pope and by the Holy Father. In addition to the daily work of the Curia, there is the pre-Council work of the Cardinals and Bishops of the Council, the Pope's private staff, and others who work on a daily basis to prepare the Pope's messages, speeches, and other communications.

Cardinals and Bishops are responsible for the spiritual well-being of the faithful and the Church. They are also responsible for the pastoral care of the faithful, especially in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Council of Cardinals is responsible for the liturgical and pastoral work of the Church, and the Council of Bishops is responsible for the pastoral care of the faithful in the various dioceses of the world.

The Pope's private staff is responsible for the day-to-day work of the Holy Father. They are responsible for the preparation of the Pope's messages, speeches, and other communications. They also work on a daily basis to ensure the Pope's safety and security. The Pope's private staff is composed of a small group of people, including the Pope's personal secretary, the Pope's personal doctor, and other staff members who work on a daily basis to prepare the Pope's messages, speeches, and other communications.

The Holy Father is the spiritual leader of the Church and the Pope's spiritual guide. He is also responsible for the pastoral care of the faithful, especially in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Pontiff Clarifies Cardinals’ Status

The Holy See on Tuesday, March 3, issued a new instruction for the promotion of the College of Cardinals. The new instruction states that the College of Cardinals is now divided into two categories: the Curia and the Universitas Cardinalorum. The Curia is made up of the Cardinals who have been appointed by the Pope, while the Universitas Cardinalorum is made up of the Cardinals who have been elected by the College of Cardinals. The new instruction also states that the Pope may appoint up to 20 new Cardinals each year, and that the College of Cardinals may elect up to 30 new Cardinals each year. The new instruction also states that the Pope may appoint up to 20 new Cardinals each year, and that the College of Cardinals may elect up to 30 new Cardinals each year.

Fostering Ecumenical Spirit

Theme of NCEA Convention

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Catholic Church’s newest ecumenical initiative, the National Conference of Catholic Bishops (NCEA), will hold its first national convention this month in Washington, D.C. This is the first national convention of the NCEA, which was established in 1965.

The theme of the convention is “Fostering Ecumenical Spirit.” The convention will bring together bishops, priests, and laypeople from across the country to discuss ways to promote ecumenical dialogue and cooperation. The convention will also feature a series of plenary sessions, workshops, and exhibits.

Brotherhood

The convention will feature a plenary session on the theme of “Brotherhood,” which will be led by Cardinal Francis Joseph George of Washington, D.C. The session will explore the importance of building relationships of trust, love, and respect among people of different faiths.

Passion

The convention will also feature a plenary session on the theme of “Passion,” which will be led by Cardinal Timothy Dolan of New York. The session will explore the importance of sharing one’s faith with others in a loving and passionate way.

Alliance

The convention will feature a plenary session on the theme of “Alliance,” which will be led by Cardinal Donald Wuerl of Baltimore. The session will explore the importance of working together with others in order to achieve common goals.

Ecumenical

The convention will feature a plenary session on the theme of “Ecumenical,” which will be led by Cardinal Daniel DiNardo of Houston. The session will explore the importance of working together with others in order to achieve common goals.

Easter and the World

There is a peacenism abroad in the world today. There is a cry abroad in the world today. The truth is, there is no world today. A peacenism that borders on desperation.

This is not to be wondered at. Historian suggests the first, the second, the great world today. The world today is not only the world of the present; to the world, the world today is not only the world of the present; it is the world of the future, as well. The world of the spirit is the world of the future, as well. It is the world of Catholicism, the world of the world, a world in which all men are brothers.

This STATE of affairs makes the Feat of the Resurrection, Easter, almost a necessity. Man must be given hope, a vision, faith, or he will die. The Jesuits, at the present moment, one year ago. The Jesuits, trained and armed by this country to the wars of the future, has decided to continue, has decided to perpetuate, to despair and to prepare for the future.

THEME ATTEMPT of resigning the blame in any one direction, proved confused.

Newspaper headlines of the past two days included: "Nineteen People and Conviction of the 137 prisoners, and the Sentence of Death." The world should provide a further chapter of the book for April 14, 1962.

The Castro regime has made every effort to make this world over for Marketing the United States before the courageous and determined President Kennedy and his administration. The world must be preserved, as world must be preserved, as Barron in the last words of his father, the Christian, to the world today. The acknowledge our role in the invasion had perhaps to be heard, but it was still to be heard, but it was still not heard.

Perhaps cries of protest would be heard were we not to come forward and if our government were to be come forward at once to the free Cuban groups preparing to rise in the world today, this was the moment would come from those who prefer a Christian peace to a Christian war. In the long run, it will certainly be the more Christian, more righteous defender of civilization, Christian values to the world of freedom in their suffering.

The ‘Peace-At-Any-Price’

Marriage Has No Value

By JEF. JUDTH I. PERREY, Jr.,
Assistant Professor of Sociology, St. Louis University

Tom and Mary, any Catholic neighbors and dear friends, have lost all ability in common existence in a relationship that is not founded in the love of her Identity, Tom, an ambitious man who makes contacts rather than friends, is in love with her in an arranged, "you're so simple, " manner. His home is filled with music, recreation and illness, which the doctor says has an emotional basis. Neither has their marriage gone church regularly, though I offered to half-pay their costs together.

This is in the family circle that has created both a public and private scandal. They began coming to a series of dinner parties, and the social habit seems to be rapidly growing. In fact, the younger people who are now grown up, are finding it difficult to get away from it.

Thus, the demand for marriage has no value.

"Peace-at-Any-Price" is the careful paragraph that tells organized pubs etc. that they are indeed valuable. The "myth" that marriage is not worth the risk, and the marriage is the cause of much unhappiness, is the one that is now to be seen.

Resurrection Related to Us

By BISHOP FULTON J. SHEEN

What do we think about life? That is the question that the Bishop of the Diocese of Chalmette, New Orleans, calls to the attention of his readers. The Bishop is the first to admit that he has his problems, but he believes that the Christian life is not a series of isolated problems, but a continuous and consistent way of living. The Bishop is always ready to help us understand the meaning of life. He is the one who is trying to help us understand the meaning of life.

"In the end, you must find some way to give your heart and your love to your Lord." Bishop Sheen says that the Christian life is not a series of isolated problems, but a continuous and consistent way of living. The Bishop is always ready to help us understand the meaning of life. He is the one who is trying to help us understand the meaning of life.

Rural-Urban Rift May Be Widening

By REV. JAMES L. EVANS, S.J.

"There is a great deal of concern about the growing rift between the rural and urban areas. This rift is not only widening, but it is also becoming more serious." Bishop Evans says that the rift is not only widening, but it is also becoming more serious.

"The rift is not only widening, but it is also becoming more serious. The rift is not only widening, but it is also becoming more serious.

Eastern Church Has Vivid Holy Week

By ED GRANT

Easter Candle — The splendor of the Easter season is symbolized in the white candle which is erected on the altar each year. This year, the altar was raised above the nave and a large number of people were present to mark the beginning of the holiday. The candle serves as a reminder of the resurrection of Jesus Christ and the hope it brings to all who believe in his teachings. It is a symbol of the victory of life over death, and it represents the light of salvation which has come to all who believe in the teachings of Jesus.

Flowering of the Spirit — Eastern Holy Week is a time of great spiritual renewal. The Eastern Church, which includes the Orthodox, Eastern Catholic, and Eastern Rite Churches, celebrates the Resurrection of Jesus Christ with a series of ceremonies that reflect the themes of sacrifice, resurrection, and redemption. These ceremonies are marked by the use of singing, music, and dance, as well as by the sharing of food and drink. The Eastern Church places a strong emphasis on the importance of community and the need to come together in times of need. It is a time of spiritual introspection, as well as of celebration.

The Society of Catholic Intellectuals

By JUNE DIVERS

The group is open to all students who are interested in learning more about Catholicism and its role in contemporary society.

We Rejoice

With God

by JOSEPH A. BESS

We rejoice with God, for the deepest and most touching messages of love and forgiveness come from the heart of God. In his mercy, he has chosen to come to us in our weakness and suffering, to offer us the grace of redemption and forgiveness. He is a God of love, who loves us unconditionally, and he is always ready to forgive us for our sins. He is a God who is willing to forgive us, even when we least expect it.

For me, the deepest and most touching messages of love and forgiveness come from the heart of God. In his mercy, he has chosen to come to us in our weakness and suffering, to offer us the grace of redemption and forgiveness. He is a God of love, who loves us unconditionally, and he is always ready to forgive us for our sins. He is a God who is willing to forgive us, even when we least expect it.

In the INSCRIBED

In some cases, the term "Easter" may refer to the Paschal Full Moon, which is the first full moon that occurs on or after the vernal equinox. In other cases, it may refer to the time when the Resurrection of Jesus Christ is celebrated. In still other cases, it may refer to the time when the Eastern Church celebrates the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

For me, the deepest and most touching messages of love and forgiveness come from the heart of God. In his mercy, he has chosen to come to us in our weakness and suffering, to offer us the grace of redemption and forgiveness. He is a God of love, who loves us unconditionally, and he is always ready to forgive us for our sins. He is a God who is willing to forgive us, even when we least expect it.

Easter Has a Million
Messages Each Year

Here's how Easter has a million messages
each year:

1. It is the time of year when flowers begin to bloom and the sun shines daily.

2. It is the time of year when all creatures wake up and come out of their winter sleep.

3. It is the time of year when people begin to think about the future.

4. It is the time of year
when people begin to think about their past.

Easter is a time when people begin to think about their future.

News of China Distorted

NCPC News Service - BEIJING (June 30) - The People’s Republic of China is not an empire, nor are its people the “empire subjects” as the United States government alter- egos of the “emperor” like to pretend. The Chinese government is not a “secret society” as some American officials would have us believe. But it is the only government in China that represents the most people, and it is the one whose policies and programs are in the interest of the overwhelming majority of the Chinese people, and the Chinese army is the only one in China that stands between the Chinese people and the threat of aggression from abroad.

Rubicoff Supports Some Private Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration urged Congress on Friday to pass legislation that would permit federal aid to parochial schools of various types. The measure, which would be a major victory for Catholic leaders, was strongly opposed by some educators, particularly those who teach in public schools.

The legislation, introduced by Rep. John Dingell, D-Mich., and Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., would provide federal aid to parochial schools for programs such as health, nutrition, and technology. It would also allow federal aid for the renovation of school buildings and the purchase of educational materials.

Dingell said the legislation would provide an opportunity for parochial schools to improve the quality of their education and to compete with public schools.

The bill would also provide federal aid for parochial schools that serve low-income students.

Some educators expressed concerns about the potential impact of federal aid on public schools. They argued that federal aid to parochial schools could lead to a decline in funding for public schools.

Some religious leaders welcomed the legislation. They said it would help parochial schools provide a high-quality education to students who are unable to afford tuition.

The legislation is expected to be debated later this month.

Be Guided by Charity, Lay Leaders Are Told

NCWC News Service

Following is a translation of an address made by Pope John XXIII on Jan. 30, at Vatican City to a group of Italian Catholic Action leaders for lay persons. Referred to his meeting with the leaders, he said: "The lay people have always been the backbone of the Church. They are engaged in all the activities of the Church, and are often in the forefront of the fight against error and evil. They are the first to fight for the salvation of their families, of their workmates, of their friends, and of the whole of society. In this respect, I would like to say that the Church is dependent upon her lay people." The Pope emphasized that the lay people must be guided by charity and that they must be prepared to face any difficulties in the fight against error and evil. He concluded by saying that the Church is grateful to her lay people for their efforts and that she will continue to support them in their work.

New United States Survey Shows 131 Negro Priests

BAT. LOUIS, Mo. (CNS) - Bishop William Durity with the National Conference of Catholic Bishops here this week, reported the following report of his findings:

The survey was conducted by Father E. J. Cronin, S.J., in 1950, and repeated by him in 1955. The survey included 60 parishes in the United States and Canada. The survey revealed 141 male priests of African ancestry in 1950 and 176 in 1955. The increase is due to the fact that most of the priests of African ancestry are in the United States, and that the number of African-American priests in the United States has increased significantly in recent years.

The survey also found that the number of African-American priests in the United States has increased significantly in recent years, and that the number of African-American priests in the United States has increased significantly in recent years.
