Course Objectives:
This course will examine wars of religion and religious views of war, focusing particularly on how religion has informed the international laws of war. We are living through an era fraught with religious warfare - wars animated by religious conflict and wars that use religious abuse as weapons to demoralize and subdue the enemy. The course will focus on three major religious traditions (primarily Judaism, Christianity and Islam) and set in dialogue their respective views of war, assess their contributions to the contemporary norms of war, and examine particular historical episodes of religious conflict notably the Crusades as well as a number of religious conflicts in the 20th and 21st centuries. These case studies will include the India-Pakistan conflict, the Bosnian civil war, the Arab-Israeli conflict, the Al-Qaeda and September 11th events and the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS).

Required Textbooks:

Recommended:

The above books, as assigned, are required reading for the course. Additional reading assignments will be added during the course of the semester.

Course Requirements:
Students will be graded on the following basis:
1) One-hour midterm exam (Thursday, February 25). It will be given during the regular class period and will cover the material studied thus far. Questions will be of the essay type, but there will be objective and identification questions as well. It counts 25% of the final grade.
2) A term paper of 10-12 pages with at least seven references (not including the textbooks), on a topic to be approved beforehand by the professor. Due April 14 and counts 25% of the final grade. Students should work in groups of two or three. All groups should present findings of their research in class in 10 minutes, followed by five minutes of questions and answers.
3) Take home final exam for which essay type questions will be provided on April 29 and must be received by May 6. It will cover the entire course, lectures and readings, counting 40% of the final grade. Students can choose three out of five questions and write a one-page essay for each.
4) Class participation counts 10% of the final grade.
