Welcome and Farewell

The Provinces of New York and Newarve exchanged great shepherds. To Bishop Navagh, coming to Paterson from Ogdensburg, we offer our warmest welcome. To Bishop McIlhenny, leaving Paterson for Buffalo, we offer our heartfelt good-bye and prides to him.

The One Way to Run up the Feelings of the People of Paterson toward Their Bishop for 10 Years Is to Say 'They've Known Him Well and They've Loved Him.' His Name Will Always Be Among the People of Paterson, as Well as of Newarve.

We shall have many different reasons for remembering him. For one thing it will be the way he sparked and quickened greater and more active participation of the people of his diocese in the celebration of Holy Mass. The emphasis he placed on this most important activity of God's holy people is Paterson to the mainstay of the Sundays of liturgical renewal. Others will recall his intense interest in the faith, his age, the Spanish-speaking nature of his diocese, his interest in education, from elementary to university level.

For Others, It Will be Just That We've Grown Acquainted with His Smile, and to the Kindness It Reflects.

Zoning Revision Poses Threat

TRENTON — A competition was being held recently among local governing municipal bodies to select the structure of law under which to regulate the zoning for a school. The bill, which has been denied two consecutive readings in the Senate, would give the zoning jurisdiction to the Board of Education. The hearing has been adjourned until the last day of the session, when it is expected to be passed. If passed, zoning could be done down and local school boards could be allowed to have a vote in its passage.

The Ruling

The bill, which has been denied two consecutive readings in the Senate, was also denied on its third reading in the Assembly. The bill would give the Board of Education the power to rezone a school building. The bill has been introduced by State Senator John F. Brennan, who is also a member of the Board of Education.

Bishop Navagh, Man of Action

February 15, 1983

The ADVOCATE

A CLEAN-DINER man who has not yet arrived at the point of taking it easy, Bishop Navagh has his hands full with the growth of the Roman Catholic Church in America. "Nowhere," he remembers, "have I found a greater sense of purpose and program. New Jersey, with 13 million Catholics and 2,000 parishes, is a challenge. The time is ripe for man, a new generation. The present, a wonderful world of possibilities." He points to the growth of the Catholic Action movement in the state.

Under Bishop Navagh, the Diocese of Camden has been strengthened. The present staff of 13 priests includes the parish of St. Joseph, a new school of the Diocese of Camden, and the diocesan newspaper, the "Catholic Register." Bishop Navagh is the first Catholic Bishop of Camden to have an office in the diocese. The new bishop has been welcomed by the people of the city.

The new diocesan newspaper is a good example of the Bishop's dedication to the work of the church. "The diocese is a man of action," he said, "and the newspaper is a powerful tool for spreading the word of God." The new newspaper is a stepping stone to the growth of the church in the diocese. Bishop Navagh is a man of action, and the people of the diocese are following him in his work.

The diocese has also been strengthened by the addition of the new school. The school is a good example of the Bishop's dedication to the work of the church. The school is a place where young people can learn the values of the Catholic Church. The school is a good example of the Bishop's dedication to the work of the church.

Bishop Navagh: Zealous for the Works of the Church

North Country Remembers His Piety, Achievements

By MGR. GEORGE E. WHITTAKER

The new Bishop of Paterson, Bishop James J. Navagh, a native of neighboring Ogdensburg, is the most humble, yet outstanding priestly quality, unimpeachable in spirit, and for the works of the Church. He is thoroughly acquainted with the basic teachings of the Faith. He has a unique gift of being able to put his teachings into words that are easily understood by his flock.

NEW SURROUNDINGS — These will become familiar surroundings to Bishop McNulty when he is installed on the 15th Bishop of Buffalo.

Bishop McNulty's Diocese

BUFFALO — Two men who became Catholics are among the nine predecessors of Bishop James A. McNulty, who will be installed as the 15th Bishop of Buffalo on Sunday, Feb. 21, at Buffalo's Canisius College.

One of the men to become Catholic was Bishop John H. Spellman, who was installed as the 10th Bishop of Buffalo in 1915. The other was Bishop Stephen H. Vivenzio, who was installed as the 1st Bishop of Buffalo in 1871.

The city's Diocese was established in 1817 on the 3rd District of New York State. It was divided into seven dioceses in 1869, and was made the Diocese of Buffalo in 1880, with 350,000 square miles.

The Spiritual of Lent

Traditionally in the Catholic Church, a Lenten fast is observed for the 40 days before Easter. This fast is a spiritual preparation for the Easter season, symbolizing the penance and penitence of those who have committed sins in the past. It is a time for reflection, prayer, and self-sacrifice, with the goal of growing closer to God.

How to observe Lent:

1. Giving Up Something: Many people choose to give up something during Lent, such as meat, sweets, or social media. This helps them focus on their faith and develop a stronger relationship with God.
2. Prayer: Lent is a time to deepen your prayer life. You might try praying a certain number of times each day or adding extra prayers to your routine.
3. Almsgiving: Give to those in need, whether it's through donations or volunteer work. This helps you remember the importance of compassion and charity.
4. Lenten Reading: Read scriptures, books about Lent, or devotional literature. This can help you gain a deeper understanding of the spiritual practices and teachings of the Church.
5. Confession: Make sure to go to confession during Lent. This is a chance to confess your sins, seek forgiveness, and prepare for the joyous occasion of Easter.
6. Attending Mass: Regularly attending Mass throughout Lent can help you stay connected to your faith community and deepen your spiritual understanding.

In summary, Lent is a time to reflect on your life, grow closer to God, and prepare spiritually for the celebration of Easter.

For These Daughters, The Livin' Is Easy
By Rev. John L. Vergara, A.J.
Assistant Professor of Literature, St. Mary's Seminary

Our children are fully grown and living at home, with their father the main press. They contribute most of the household expenses, and we're all set in all. Although they expect help and cooperation from us, they show no little respect, with the remark that there is much argument and friction around the home. What should we do?

CHEROKEE TRIBAL MEMBERS of all ages should be prepared to shape the future of their tribal society. They can do this by leading education programs that emphasize the importance of Cultural teachings. The Cherokee Nation has a rich history and a unique culture that needs to be preserved for future generations.

SINCERE SALUTATIONS to all Cherokee

and their descendants.

This year, one out of every three families in our state probably will have a hospital bill accompanied by medical or surgical treatment. Furthermore, the cost of such treatment will be considerable. These expenses could be minor... or they could be substantial enough to create a serious financial problem. And in the more than 70 of New Jersey's Blue Cross-Blue Shield.

Solemn Engagement

By JOSEPH A. BRENS

With what may well have been a touch of public sensitivity, the Bishop of the Diocese of Paterson, Rev. Msgr. Joseph A. Brens, and the Rev. Msgr. John J. O'Brien, have announced the engagement of their son, Francis O'Brien, to Miss Elizabeth Ann O'Brien, the daughter of Rev. Msgr. John J. O'Brien and Mrs. John J. O'Brien. The engagement is expected to take place early next year.

In the traditional ceremony of engagement, which includes readings from Scripture, a presentation of rings, and the blessing of the engagement ring, a Catholic priest, the Rev. Msgr. John J. O'Brien, will officiate.

The couple will celebrate their engagement at a reception at a local hotel.

The couple will reside in Paterson, New Jersey.

The announcement was made by the Rev. Msgr. John J. O'Brien and Mrs. John J. O'Brien.

There's a But In the Butter

By J. J. BURRIS

With butter becoming a scarce commodity these days, it seems that we are all trying to make do with what we have. Some are using substitutes like margarine, others are trying to stretch their butter supply by using it sparingly. But for those who are truly committed to the use of butter, there is always the hope that somehow, someway, they will be able to obtain some.

I was recently in a supermarket, and I could see that the butter section was virtually empty. But I noticed a small display of butter just behind the cash register. It was a small display, but it was there, and I thought I might be able to get some butter from there.

I approached the cash register and asked if there was any butter available. The cashier looked at me and then at the display of butter. She said, "Yes, we have some butter, but it's only for our customers who have a membership card." I said, "I don't have a membership card," and she said, "Well, you can't buy it, but you can have some.

I was surprised to hear that I could have some butter for free. The cashier gave me a small container of butter, and I was grateful for her kindness.

It's true that butter is a scarce commodity these days, but there are still ways to obtain it. I hope that someday I will be able to buy some butter in the supermarket again.

Sculptural Rosary

Part 4

There are many ways to express one's devotion to the Rosary. Some people may prefer to use a scapular, others may use a rosary bracelet, and still others may use a rosary necklace. Whatever the form, the Rosary is a powerful tool for prayer and meditation.

In this part of the Sculptural Rosary, we will explore the use of the Rosary as a form of prayer. We will examine the various ways in which the Rosary can be used, and we will discuss the benefits of using the Rosary in our daily lives.

The Rosary is a powerful tool for prayer and meditation. It can help us to focus our minds on the mysteries of our faith, and it can help us to meditate on the lives of the saints. The Rosary is a form of prayer that can be used by people of all ages, and it can be used in any setting.

A Substitute May Be Waiting

BY MARG. W. FURSTING

Seminarians or others who have read that it is possible to substitute teach in New York State, two possibilities suggest themselves. Either one is a qualified substitute and the other is not. The first is true, the second is false.

In New York, a substitute teacher must have a bachelor's degree and a New York State teaching certificate. The second possibility, however, is not true. A substitute teacher must be a New York State teacher, a New York State substitute teacher, or a New York State temporary substitute teacher.

In Heaven There Are Places of Great Honor Which Are Left Unoccupied by Those Who Were Intended by God.

I have known a young man who will have to leave the very high places he was called to be for God. He was called by Christ to be a priest. Thrilled, as an idea of union with God among his peers, he took the course of study and joined the Jesuits. Unfortunately, however, he became ill and gave up his studies. He was sent to a Jesuit retreat and there thought about his vocation. He realized that if he were to do it right, he could not serve God. He never became a priest and, of course, did not serve God.

But God, Who Will Not Be Wronged in His Plans, Gave the Required Vocation to Another Young Man Who Accepted, Becoming a Priest, And, in a Great Manner, Served God.

THE LESSON IS CLEAR. IF GOD WANTS you to become a Catholic priest, He will make it clear. God will not confuse you. If you don't, He may ask another and He will be patient until He finds one who is suitable. God will not be wronged in His plans. Remember this is short, but life is long.

ALMOST IMMEDIATELY AFTER OUR LORD'S ascension into heaven, the Apostles and disciples were gathered together in Jerusalem. St. Peter declared to them the need for choosing a 12th Apostle to take the place of Judas Iscariot. From a list of qualifications, three were named: Joseph, called Barsabas, who was justly rewarded and Saint Matthias, who was chosen by lot. Not only would God not be wronged in His plans, but God would also in His infinite wisdom, have the hearts of all, so that which of the three they chose would have the right heart. God knew the hearts of all, so that each chose them in the right place.

WAIT AND SEE. Wait and see how God plans His work. Sometimes they draw it between two, and the lot is left upon Matthias. God is always with the Apostles.
