New Setback Raises Fear for Pontiff

An Advocate News Service

VATICAN CITY — In a speech recently repeated throughout the world this week as the Pope's appeal to the faithful, Pope John Paul II has touched a nerve in Rome and elsewhere.

The news report quotes Dr. John Paul II as saying, "It is difficult for me to speak publicly at this time..."

Havana's Exiled Bishop Due Here

PATERSON — Bishop Edward E. Buquet, retired April 7, Bishop of Havana, will celebrate a 2 p.m. Mass at the Basilica of St. Peter in Rome this weekend.

The Bishop will attend the Pope's Inauguration and the Catholic Church's meeting of cardinals.

Cardinal Scores Prejudice Against Parochial Pupils

WASHINGTON (CNS) — The effectiveness of parochial schools is not necessarily a function of race or income, but rather of the religious commitment of their parents, Cardinal Alfredo Cardinal Sosa, said.

The cardinal said, "We should be careful not to discriminate against parochial schools on the basis of race or income..."

Peru's Church Land Reforms Present Complicated Problem

By REV. VINCENT T. MALDON, S.J.

LIMA, Peru (NC) — The long and bitter church-land struggle which has consumed years of political maneuvering and court action is finally over. But the Church is not free of its land troubles. In the past, the Government has often been licentious in its land dealings. Now, the commercial farmers are telling the Church to give up its land. The Church's lands are among the most productive in Peru, and the Government is not willing to pay the Church proper compensation. This is a serious problem for the Church, as it has to support itself and the poor. The Church may not make a profit out of the sale of its lands, but it also cannot afford to lose them.

The Government's attitude is incomprehensible, as it is willing to compensate local industries with millions of dollars, while it is unwilling to give the Church its fair share of its land. This is a serious problem for the Church, as it has to support itself and the poor. The Church may not make a profit out of the sale of its lands, but it also cannot afford to lose them.

Omnibus Bill Dead

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CON) — President Kennedy has decided to veto a $72 million omnibus bill in which he is opposed to a $3.2 million provision for a New York City School Spring, the President said today.

President Kennedy said the bill was opposed because the House of Representatives had added a provision for a $3.2 million grant to the New York City School Spring.

The bill is the last of the omnibus legislation to be sent to the President for his signature.

The President vetoed the bill because he believes it is not in the best interests of the United States.

The bill was passed by a vote of 225 to 185 in the House of Representatives.

The veto was announced by the White House today.

Thank God and Serve Him, Pope John Urges

NCRBC News Service

Following a translation of a radio message broadcast on Sunday, Aug. 26, 1962, by Pope John XXIII to participants in the Second Vatican Council (Convocati in Habitate), the Pope addressed cardinals, bishops and deacons.

With deep joy we participate in the great German Church at that moment when you have your solemn assembly in Hamburg. We join you in heart and soul to your faithful brothers and sisters in Germany, who, together with you, are taking part in this historic conference. They are the most important of the Christian community of the German people in your region, a region that has always been an extraordinary example of faith and charity, of love and brotherly harmony.

The Lord is our strength. "In the Lord's hand is the power of the earth, and he will rock the foundations of the sea. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress. Come, and let us return to the Lord; for he has torn, but will heal us; he has struck us, but will bind us. After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight." (Isa. 30:5-8)

The Lord has delivered us and will deliver us. We are saved by the one Lord. "The Lord is my strength, and my song; he is my salvation. He is my God, and I will give him the glory. He is the God of my salvation; I will shout with joy at the Rock of my salvation." (Isa. 26:4-6)

"We are gathered in the name of the Lord. Therefore, may we all together in love and peace pray that the Lord will give us his Holy Spirit so that we may be able to fulfill every gift that is given to us by the grace of God." (1 Cor. 14:19)

In love and peace we pray that the Lord will give us his Holy Spirit so that we may be able to fulfill every gift that is given to us by the grace of God. "Therefore, may we all together in love and peace pray that the Lord will give us his Holy Spirit so that we may be able to fulfill every gift that is given to us by the grace of God." (1 Cor. 14:19)
Summer in Central America

Youths 'Want to Give Much...'

by ANNIE MAE ROBINSON

BARLEY - A group of youths are planning a summer trip to a country with an empty school. They want to be there to help fill the buildings with more education and to help them with this important work. They want to see the country for themselves and to share in the growth of the Church.

The BIG PURPOSE of their trip is to help the Church and the students of the country. They want to see the conditions of life in the country and to share in the work of the Church. They want to learn more about the Church and the people of the country.

PLAIN TALK

Of the newly "died" FATHER OF THE BARIO
The don't say wedding ring in a show, but one of the most famous exponents of the test is the late Louis R. Fordham, who was a man of the Church of England and one of the most respected figures in the field of music. He was a great admirer of music and a good friend to many of the famous composers of his day. He was also a great admirer of the Church of England and a good friend to many of the famous composers of his day.

Don't get confused, but what you would like to know is how much you are prepared to do. There is no question of what you are doing now. Fordham was a good friend to many of the famous composers of his day and a great admirer of the Church of England. He was also a great admirer of the Church of England and a good friend to many of the famous composers of his day.

In the year 1975, Fordham was appointed as the President of the New York City Council, becoming the first black to hold that position. He was also the first black to hold the position of Mayor of the City of New York. Fordham was a great admirer of the Church of England and a good friend to many of the famous composers of his day.

Union County Wins Three Firsts

NEWARK—Union County students dominated the New- ark Archdiocesan CYO essay contest with three first prizes and two honorable mentions, and high schools won a Divi- sion 1B statewide championship.

John Golden of St. Ther- esae (Wyckoff), then a student at Annette Catholic High School, was declared the top essay writer in the Union County division.

John Golden, a member of the National Honor Society and the school’s Student Council, was awarded $500 for his essay titled "The Importance of Education." His essay focused on the role of education in shaping a person’s life and society as a whole.

Additionally, two other students from Union County received honorable mentions: John McAllister of St. Mary’s High School and John Doe of St. Joseph’s High School.

Christ the King Cops Title
NEWARK—Christ the King of Bayonne, N.J., topped the league in the New- ark Archdiocesan CYO essay contest, winning the title of essay champion in the Union County division.

The essay, which was titled "The Importance of Education," was written by John Golden, a student at St. Theresa’s High School.

In the essay, Golden discussed the role of education in shaping a person’s life and society as a whole. He argued that education is essential for personal growth and development, and that it plays a crucial role in creating a just and equitable society.

The essay was judged by a panel of judges, including a former superintendent of schools, a retired university professor, and a practicing attorney.

The New Jersey Catholic League’s Archdiocesan CYO Essay Contest is open to all Catholic high school students in the Archdiocese of Newark. The essay must be a minimum of 1,000 words and address the topic of education. The contest closes on May 31.

The first-prize winner will receive a $500 cash award, and the essay will be published in the New Jersey Catholic League’s Archdiocesan CYO Newsletter.

Liturgy Declaration Seen as Spur to Unity

KEVIN (Catholic News Service)—The Cardinal is the key to any question concerning the church and its liturgies. But the eventual outcome of the current study is certain to draw a lot of attention.

The Cardinal has been a vocal advocate of change in the church's liturgical practices. In recent years, he has called for a return to simpler, more traditional forms of worship. He has also been critical of the use of English in liturgical services, arguing that it is more difficult for people to understand and appreciate the language of the liturgy if it is not spoken in their native tongue.

In a recent interview, the Cardinal said that he believed the church's liturgical practices should be changed to reflect the needs of the present day. He said that the liturgy should be easier to understand and more accessible to people of all ages.

The Cardinal's position has been controversial, with some people arguing that it is important to maintain the integrity of the liturgy, while others believe that change is necessary to make the church more relevant to people today.

The Cardinal's views have been influential in the church, and his support for change has helped to shape the direction of the church's liturgical practices. In recent years, the church has made a number of changes to its liturgical practices, including the introduction of simpler forms of worship and the use of English in liturgical services.

The Cardinal has also been involved in the development of the church's liturgical calendars. He has been a vocal advocate for the introduction of the new liturgical year, which has been introduced in recent years.

The Cardinal's views have been influential in the church, and his support for change has helped to shape the direction of the church's liturgical practices.
