PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW
DIPL 3104
Professor Moremen
Spring, 2019
PRELIMINARY SYLLABUS

This course explores the nature and content of the law governing relations between states and relations between states and non-state actors. The first part of the course examines the building blocks of international law; the second part applies this knowledge to particular topics, such as the use of force, human rights and international humanitarian law. By the end of the course, students will possess an understanding of the operation of the international legal system and the role of international law in international affairs.

Students will also develop their critical thinking skills and gain an introduction to legal reasoning and to legal concepts. The course requires students to read closely, to think logically and rigorously, and to become skilled in developing and critiquing arguments. The course will explore methods of legal reasoning, emphasizing principles of logic that apply to legal analysis. Students will apply and learn these legal reasoning skills throughout the course in assignments and class discussion and in a class specifically devoted to legal reasoning. The ability to think critically and analytically, and to communicate an analysis clearly, are crucial skills not only for lawyers, but for practitioners of diplomacy and for all professionals.

In terms of the learning goals and student outcomes the School's Faculty have identified as key for students, students will:

- increase their knowledge and understanding of
 - key concepts, models, theories, and debates in international relations
 - the institutional backdrop underpinning international politics, including international organizations and international law
 - the normative aspect of international relations as reflected in international law, including human rights
 - an in-depth knowledge of a particular functional area and/or region of the world
- develop skills to
 - collect, sort, and evaluate information
 - analyze complex situations and synthesize information
 - communicate effectively in oral and written form
- develop a sense of global citizenship and to employ a global perspective to:
 - recognize and understand differences among a diversity of cultures and viewpoints
 - employ a global perspective and self-awareness regarding their own culture and responsibility as world citizens
 - demonstrate leadership qualities and other essential skills of diplomacy.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS: This course will include several requirements, more fully described below: (a) completing assigned readings before class and participating in class discussions and exercises; (b) preparing several case briefs; (c) participating in a mock argument before the ICJ and submitting an 8 page paper; (d) taking a mid-term exam; and (e) taking a final examination. Class participation and the case briefs together will be worth 15% of your grade, the ICJ Exercise will be worth 20%, the midterm 30%, and the final 35%. No incompletes will be given except for medical or other serious emergency. I encourage you (1) to take careful class notes; (2) to prepare an outline of the course as we go along as an aid to studying for the exams; and (3) to form study groups to review the materials and issues.

- a. Readings and Participation. Class attendance and participation are a required part of the course, and will be considered in determining your grade. I will expect you to read the assigned readings before class and to be prepared to discuss them in class. I will select a few students to lead discussion for each class.
- b. Case briefs. You will submit a number of case-briefs on the dates indicated in the syllabus. Please submit briefs on Blackboard before class. Late briefs will be penalized ½ a mark; briefs that are more than a week late will not be accepted. Each brief will be approximately a page in length, and will consist of the following information:
 - YOUR NAME, the title of the case, the court deciding the case, and the date of the decision.
 - A brief, one to three sentence summary of the facts.
 - A brief, one-sentence statement, in question form, of the issue(s) in the case.
 - A brief description of the court's decision, or "holding," on each of the issues and a brief summary/analysis of the legal basis for the decision and of the court's reasoning, including basic legal principles or relevant legal requirements.
- c. Mid-Term Exam. There will be one in-class mid-term exam on Tuesday, February 26.
- d. ICJ Mock Argument. You will participate in a mock argument before the ICJ. You will be graded on the 8 page paper you prepare and on your oral participation. The ICJ argument is scheduled for April 4. Please make sure you can participate that day and in group preparation work the previous week. The paper will be due Monday April 8 at 4:00 through the class Blackboard site. If you are having difficulties submitting on Blackboard, you may send the paper to me by email to beat the clock, but must also submit through Blackboard as soon as possible.
- e. Final Exam. The final exam for Section AA (2:00 class) is on May 14 during period 4, 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.; the final for Section AB (3:30 class) is on May 9 during period 2, 10:10 a.m. to 12:10 p.m.; and the final for Section AC (11:00 class) is May 13, period 3, 12:20 to 2:20 p.m. You will be expected to take the exam during the scheduled time, barring extreme circumstances.

COURSE MATERIALS: The required casebook will be Janis & Noyes, International Law: Cases and Commentary (5th. ed). An optional, but strongly recommended, text is Janis, International Law (7th or 6th or earlier editions.). A number of assigned readings will come from this text; it also will serve as a useful resource. Additional readings will be placed the course Blackboard site and other readings are available online. The reading assignments listed below are subject to modification.

GRADING SCALE: The grading scale used for most assignments will be: 93 and above=A; 90-92=A-; 87-89=B+; 83-86=B; 80-82=B-; 77-79=C+; 73-76=C; 70-72=C; 67-69=D+; 63-66=D; 60-62=D-; Below 60=F. Case briefs will be graded on a check, check minus, and check plus basis.

OFFICE HOURS AND CONTACT INFORMATION. My office hours are Wednesday 10-12 and Tuesday, 5:30-6:30, or by appointment. I am also available after class. Please do not hesitate to come talk to me. My extension is 2517 and my e-mail address is philip.moremen@shu.edu.

PLAGIARISM AND OTHER SERIOUS ABUSES OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY. All forms of dishonesty, whether by act or omission, including, but not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and knowingly furnishing false information to the University, are prohibited. Work submitted in courses must be the product of the efforts of the student presenting the work, and contributions of others to the finished work must be appropriately acknowledged. The presentation of another's work as one's own is a serious violation of the academic process. Plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty will be reported to the administration, and may result in a lowered or failing grade for the course and up to possible dismissal from the School of Diplomacy. See University and School standards for academic conduct here:

<<http://www.shu.edu/academics/diplomacy/academic-conduct.cfm>>

In a paper like the ICJ paper, where you quote language word for word from a source, you must place it in quotation marks or in a block quote and give the exact source for each quoted passage. Where you paraphrase something, you must cite the source. Where you refer to or use an author's insight or idea, you must cite the source. Lifting or paraphrasing language from a web site without indication and citation is plagiarism.

More particularly: any indication of plagiarism on a case brief will result in a failing grade for the assignment and a reduction in the participation grade for the class. Any indication of plagiarism in the ICJ Paper will result in a minimum reduction of 10 points in the score for the assignment, may result in a failing grade for the course or for the assignment, and will be reported to the School's administration. A repeated incident of plagiarism (i.e., more than one) almost certainly will result in a failing grade for the class and will be reported to the administration.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

It is the policy and practice of Seton Hall University to promote inclusive learning environments. If you have a documented disability you may be eligible for reasonable accommodations in compliance with University policy, the Americans with Disabilities Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and/or the New Jersey Law against Discrimination. Please note, students are not permitted to negotiate accommodations directly with professors. To request accommodations or assistance, please self-identify with the Office for Disability Support Services (DSS), Duffy Hall, Room 67 at the beginning of the semester. For more information or to register for services, contact DSS at (973) 313-6003 or by e-mail at DSS@shu.edu.

POLICY ON INCOMPLETES

Incompletes will be given only in exceptional cases for emergencies. Students wishing to request a grade of Incomplete must provide documentation to support the request accompanied by a Course Adjustment Form (available from the Diplomacy Main Office) to the professor before the date of the final examination. If the incomplete request is approved, the professor reserves the right to specify the new submission date for all missing coursework. Students who fail to submit the missing course work within this time period will receive a failing grade for all missing coursework and a final grade based on all coursework assigned. Any Incomplete not resolved within one calendar year of receiving the Incomplete or by the time of graduation (whichever comes first) automatically becomes an "FI" (which is equivalent to an F). It is the responsibility of the student to make sure they have completed all course requirements within the timeframe allotted. Please be aware that Incompletes on your transcript will impact financial aid and academic standing.
