

SETON HALL LAW REVIEW

Volume Fifteen

1985

Number Three

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ARTICLES

- DIRECT DAMAGES: THE LOST KEY TO CONSTITUTIONAL
JUST COMPENSATION WHEN BUSINESS PREMISES
ARE CONDEMNED D. Michael Risinger 483
- NEW JERSEY DEBTORS 1982-1983: AN
EMPIRICAL STUDY..... Philip Shuchman 541
- THE DIRECTOR AS CORPORATE LEGAL
MONITOR: ENVIRONMENTAL LEGISLATION
AND PANDORA'S BOX*Andrew F. Emerson* 593

NOTES

TORTS

- Negligence—Social Host Held Liable for Serving Liquor to Intoxicated Guest Who Causes Auto Accident Injuring Third
Party (Kelly v. Gwinnell, N.J. 1984) 616

LIBEL

- Survival of Libel Actions—There Is Life After Death in New Jersey (Canino v. New York News, Inc., N.J. 1984) 639

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

- Federal Preemption—New Jersey's Casino Control Act Not Preempted by NLRA (Brown v. Hotel & Restaurant Employees International Union Local 54, U.S. 1984) 656

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

- The Soap Box Exception to the Miranda Rule: Fifth Amendment Protections Slip Down the Drain (New York v. Quarles, U.S. 1984) 685

SURVEY OF RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN

- NEW JERSEY LAW 707

BOOK REVIEW

Harm to Others: The Moral Limits of the Criminal Law, JOEL
FEINBERG, Oxford University Press, New York, New York,
1984..... Steven C. Bennett 721