

DEDICATION

The editors of the Seton Hall Law Review take great pleasure in dedicating the first book of Volume 17 to former United States Supreme Court Chief Justice Warren E. Burger. Chief Justice Burger committed himself to the advancement of the legal profession for the greater part of his distinguished career. Following his retirement from the Court, the Chief Justice will be devoting his time and effort to an admirable cause—the bi-centennial of the United States Constitution. At Seton Hall, we were especially grateful for Chief Justice Burger's remarks which concluded our Constitutional Anniversary Symposium published in 1986.

We, as law students, were fortunate to have benefited from Chief Justice Burger's wisdom and presence on our nation's highest court. His leadership, integrity, and concern for the well-being of the legal profession will help guide us as we prepare to embark on our legal careers. Both students and lawyers should strive to achieve the high ideals that Chief Justice Burger so strongly advocated.
