

The University Art Gallery, the Department of Sociology & Anthropology and the Filipino League at Seton Hall (FLASH) present

Lakas Diwa Strength of Consciousness/Spirit/Soul

an exhibition of mixed media works by
Imelda Cajipe Endaya

Above: Left: Magkapatid I, (Solidarity Sisters I), 1999, acrylic on textile and canvas, 200 cm. X 100 cm.
Right: Magkapatid II, (Solidarity Sisters II), 1999, acrylic on textile and canvas, 200 cm. X 100 cm.

17 October - 17 November 2006

University Art Gallery
Seton Hall University South Orange NJ 07079
Directions and visitor information <http://library.shu.edu/gallery>

Save the date for the artist's talk!

Imelda Cajipe Endaya will speak to Anthropology of Art students about her work and ideas about art, cultural identity and women's social spaces.

Thursday 19 October 2006 4-5:15 pm
Beck Rooms AB at the Walsh Library. Open to the public.
Light refreshments and gallery walk-through will follow.
Artist's information <http://imeldacajipeendaya.net/current>

Brief Description of the Exhibit

Internationally acclaimed in the Asia Pacific and Philippine art scenes, artist and women's advocate Imelda Cajipe Endaya exhibits key works that examine issues embracing ethnic identity on one hand as well as the ironies of women's social spaces. The exhibit title "Lakas Diwa" translates as strength of spirit-consciousness-soul and is presented in cooperation with the Anthropology Program of the Department of Sociology & Anthropology and the Filipino League at Seton Hall (FLASH). The artist will also give a talk on October 19 Thursday 4-5:15 pm at the Beck Rooms AB across from the University Art Gallery. These events are also part of the celebration of October 2006 Filipino American History Month.

Brief Description of the Talk

Internationally recognized artist and women's advocate Imelda Cajipe Endaya will talk about her work as painter, printmaker and installation artist to students of Anthropology of Art, Department of Sociology & Anthropology as well as the Filipino League at Seton Hall (FLASH). Her talk accompanies a month-long exhibit entitled "Lakas Diwa: Strength of Spirit/Consciousness" at the University Art Gallery from October 17-November 17 2006. Light refreshments and a gallery walk-through will follow.

brasilje@shu.edu

<http://library.shu.edu/gallery;>

<http://imeldacajipeendaya.net/current/>

<http://imeldacajipeendaya.net/viewer/index.php?file=rev5.htm>

http://imeldacajipeendaya.net/viewer/index.php?file=i_view1.htm