SETON HALL COLLEGE.

THIS Institution was founded in 1856, at Madison, N. J., by the Most Rev. J. ROOSEVELT BAYLEY, D.D., the first Bishop of Newark. During the summer vacation of 1860, it was removed to its present location at South Orange. The Legislature of the State, during the session of 1861, passed an Act of Incorporation granting it all the rights and privileges enjoyed by other Colleges in the State.

It is situated near the village of South Orange, on the line of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Rail Road, fourteen miles distant from New York.

The College buildings are of great architectural beauty, large and commodious, thoroughly ventilated, well heated by steam, and lighted by gas. They are on high ground, overlooking a beautiful country. The Orange Mountains have long been recommended by physicians as a most favorable residence for their patients, and the advantages of the surrounding country have been fully appreciated; hence the villas and mansions on every eligible site for miles around.
The College is under the immediate supervision of the Rt. Rev. Dr. CORRIGAN, Bishop of Newark. It is conducted by Secular Priests, who are assisted by experienced Lay Professors.

The domestic arrangements are under the care of SISTERS OF CHARITY. The greatest attention is paid at all times to the neatness and cleanliness of every part of the establishment. In sickness the students receive the most careful nursing.

The object of the Institution is to impart a good education, in the highest sense of the word—to train the moral, intellectual and physical being. The health, manners, and morals of the pupils are objects of constant attention. The system of government is mild and paternal, yet firm in enforcing the observance of established discipline.

The better to carry out the design of the Institution, to maintain strict discipline, with kind and gentle treatment, and to devote constant and special attention to each individual student, but a limited number is received. For this reason, it is expedient that parents, who wish to secure places for their sons in SETON HALL, should make early application.

All the pupils are thoroughly instructed in the Doctrines of the Catholic Church, and trained in its practices.

The Academic year, which consists of two sessions, of five months each, commences on the first Wednesday of September, and ends on the third Wednesday of June.

At Christmas there is a vacation of ten days; and in the spring students are permitted to be absent for a day or two, to procure summer clothing. At no other time are they allowed to leave the College, except for reasons of great importance.

The visiting-day is Thursday.

Weekly reports of all the classes are read before the Professors, Tutors, and Students. Monthly reports are sent to the parents or guardians.

General examinations are held at the end of each session. These may be either written, or oral, or both as the President may direct. In the most important branches of study, both methods are employed.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are required to follow the studies of the classical course, and pass a satisfactory examination in them.

Graduates of the College may, on application, receive the degree of Master of Arts, two years after they have finished the course of studies.

The rules of the College require of all Students a manly bearing and kind, courteous deportment towards one another at all times; application to study during the hours of study, and the thorough preparation and recitation of the lessons assigned.

The use of Tobacco is forbidden.

Students are not allowed to receive newspapers, except for their Reading-room, which is under the direction of the President.

Students who are insubordinate, or of low and vicious habits, will not be retained in the College.
