SETON HALL COLLEGE.

THIS Institution was founded in 1856, at Madison, N. J., by the Most Rev. J. ROOSEVELT BAYLEY, D. D., the first Bishop of Newark. During the summer vacation of 1860, it was removed to its present location at South Orange. The Legislature of the State, during the session of 1861, passed an Act of Incorporation, granting it all the rights and privileges enjoyed by other Colleges in the State.

It is situated near the village of South Orange, on the line of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Rail Road, fourteen miles distant from New York.

The College buildings are of great architectural beauty, large and commodious, thoroughly ventilated, well heated by steam, and lighted by gas. They are on high ground, overlooking a beautiful country. The Orange Mountains have long been recommended by physicians as a most favorable residence for their patients, and the advantages of the surrounding country have been fully appreciated; hence the villas and mansions on every eligible site for miles around.

The grounds set apart for recreation, about ten acres in extent, contain a gymnasium, ball-alleys and base-ball fields. A safe skating pond affords means of exercise in Winter, and in Summer the College woods prove a pleasant retreat.

The College is under the immediate supervision of the Rt. Rev. Dr. CORRIGAN, Bishop of Newark. It is conducted by Secular Priests, who are assisted by experienced Lay Professors.

Sisters of Charity have charge of the household affairs.

Great attention is paid at all times to the generous furnishing of the table, and to the neatness and cleanliness of every part of the establishment. In sickness, should it occur, the students receive careful nursing.

The aim of SETON HALL is to impart a good education, in the highest sense of the word—to train the moral, intellectual and physical being. The health, manners and morals of the students, all of whom are required to live in the College, are objects of constant care. The system of government combines strict discipline with kind and gentle treatment. All the students are thoroughly instructed in the Doctrines of the Catholic Church, and trained in its practices.

The better to carry out the design of the Institution, and to devote constant and special attention to each individual student, but a limited number is received.

The Academic year, which consists of two terms of five months each, begins on the first Wednesday of September, and ends on the third Wednesday of June. At Christmas there is a vacation of ten days; and in the Spring students are permitted to be absent for a day or two, to procure summer clothing. At no other time are they allowed to leave the College, except for reasons of great importance.

The visiting-day is Thursday.

Weekly reports of all the classes are read before the professors and students. Monthly reports are sent to the parents or guardians.

Students who do not wish to follow the classical course may devote their time to commercial studies, or may select special branches of each course. In this latter case, they are not allowed to compete for prizes.

General examinations are held at the end of each term. These may be either written, or oral, or both, as the President may direct. In the most important branches of study, both methods are employed.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are required to follow the studies of the classical course, and pass a satisfactory examination in them.

Graduates of the College may, on application, receive the degree of Master of Arts, two years after they have finished the course of studies.

FUNDAMENAL RULES OF DISCIPLINE.

The rules of the College require of all students a manly bearing, and kind, courteous deportment towards one another at all times; application to study during the hours of study, and the thorough preparation and recitation of the lessons assigned.

No student leaves the College grounds without permission.

Leaving the College grounds after nightfall renders the student liable to expulsion.

The use of tobacco is forbidden.

No books, other than text-books and works of reference recommended by the Professors, may be held by the students, unless by permission of the President.

Students are not allowed to receive newspapers, except for their Reading-room, which is under the direction of the President.

Correspondence is subject to supervision.

Students who are insubordinate, or of low or vicious habits, will not be retained in the College.

Applicants for admission from other Colleges, must bring satisfactory testimonials of character.

Parents have the right to withdraw their sons at any time; they have not the right to interfere with the established discipline of the College.

O'Go

Bills are presented at the beginning of each term, and are payable in advance.

Each Student, on entering, should be supplied with sufficient clothing for the term. He should also have two silver spoons, two forks and a napkin ring, all marked with his name; and likewise a sufficient number of towels, napkins, and a toilet-box.

Articles of clothing, etc., will not be furnished to students without special instructions from parents and guardians, and, in such case, a sum sufficient to defray probable expenses should be deposited with the Treasurer in advance.

With regard to pocket-money, it is desirable that parents should allow their sons but a moderate sum, and that this should be placed in the hands of the Treasurer, to be given as prudence may suggest.

Parents or guardians residing out of the country, or at a great distance, must appoint a representative at some convenient place who will be responsible for the regular payment of all expenses, and bound to receive the student should it become necessary to dismiss him.

Should a student leave the College before the expiration of a term, no deduction will be made for the remainder of that term, except in case of dismissal or prolonged illness. Sixty dollars extra will be charged for students who remain in the College during the summer vacation.
